International Women Artists and War, 1560-2023 Deborah A. Deacon,2024-09-25 Like many of their male peers women artists have used their chosen mediums to explore and express their reactions to the violence of war which they frequently experienced firsthand The 345 named artists discussed in this book come from diverse backgrounds across hundreds of years The book divides the 652 covered works of art into five general categories those that provide support for the war effort those that oppose war and or support peace those that document the impacts of war on the individuals who fight and the civilians who experience it those that commemorate and memorialize the events and participants in war and general representations of those who fight While most of the women who documented the impact of war on those who experienced it were professional artists self taught artists have told equally compelling stories in their works Whether working in a studio or on the battlefield the women s professionalism and dedication allowed them to convey the impact of war powerfully Works + Conversations ,2007 The fifth BMW Art Guide by Independent Collectors BMW Group, Independent Collectors,2020-07-14 The revised and extended BMW Art Guide by Independent Collectors presents nearly 300 private collections of contemporary art accessible to the public featuring large and small famous and the relatively unknown Succinct portraits of the collections with countless color illustrations take the reader to more than 40 countries often to regions or urban districts that are off the beaten path This practical guide is a collaborative publication stemming from the partnership between BMW and Independent Collectors the international online platform for collectors of contemporary art To date neither the Internet nor any book has ever contained a comparable assembly of international private collections including several that have opened their doors to art lovers and connoisseurs for the first time The Cultural Post ,1980

Unnatural Wonders Arthur C. Danto,2017-03-14 Arthur C Danto s essays not only critique bodies of work but reflect upon art s conceptual evolution as well drawing for the reader a kind of philosophical map indicating how art and the criteria for judging it has changed over the twentieth century In Unnatural Wonders the renowned critic finds himself at a point when contemporary art has become wholly pluralistic even chaotic with one medium as good as another and when the moment for the next thing has already passed So the theorist goes in search of contemporary art s most exhilarating achievements work that bridges the gap between art and life which he argues is now the definitive art of our time Danto considers the work of such young artists as John Currin and Renee Cox and older living masters including Gerhard Richter and Sol LeWitt He discusses artists of the New York School like Philip Guston and Joan Mitchell and international talents such as the South African William Kentridge Danto conducts a frank analysis of Matthew Barney s The Cremaster Cycle Damien Hirst s skeletons and anatomical models and Barbara Kruger s tchotchke ready slogans finds the ghost of Henry James in the work of Barnett Newman and muses on recent Whitney Biennials and art influenced by 9 11 He argues that aesthetic considerations no longer play a central role in the experience and critique of art Instead art addresses us in our humanity as men and women who seek meaning in the unnatural wonders of art a meaning that philosophy and religion are unable to provide Toshiko Takaezu Ai Fukunaga,Laura Kina,Nonie Gadsden,Leilehua Lanzilotti,Margo Machida,Diana Jocelyn Greenwold,Katy Siegel,Laura Mott,2024-04-02 An expansive look at the multifaceted American artist Toshiko Takaezu within the history of postwar artmaking Toshiko Takaezu 1922 2011 was an American artist whose multidisciplinary work in ceramics painting sculpture weaving and installation innovatively drew from the natural world combining expressionist energies with influences from East Asia The closed ceramic forms for which she is best known are effectively abstract paintings in the round Her reputation as a ceramic artist however has obscured the breadth of her output in other mediums and her role within the larger art movements of the twentieth century This book provides the first retrospective assessment of Takaezu s art and life representing her diverse oeuvre which spanned six decades and her hybrid identity as an Asian American woman artist and teacher This ambitious volume features essays exploring Takaezu s biography her background as a Hawai i born artist of Okinawan heritage the relationship between her abstract work and that of her contemporaries the role of cultural exchange in her art her impact as an educator and more Beautifully illustrated with nearly 300 images of artworks and archival photographs and including an updated chronology exhibition history and recollections from the artist s former apprentices the book offers a compelling and comprehensive account of this singular
