Kevin James O'Brien

When The Powers Fall Reconciliation In The Healing Of Nations:

When the Powers Fall Walter Wink, 1996-12-01 Repressive authoritarian regimes are falling and fragile new democracies emerging around the globe How are longstanding conflicts and deep divisions to be healed and enemies reconciled without breeding further injustices To answer this question Walter Wink here applies his compelling analysis of the Powers as they appear in the New Testament to the global scene Surveying the wrenching religious and ethical dilemmas involved in transitions from despotism to democracy Wink neatly summarizes key concepts from his Fortress Press trilogy on the Powers including sections on Jesus against Domination and Nonviolence He then shows how central concepts in the teaching of Jesus can clarify true and false ideas of forgiveness and reconciliation and apology without sacrificing justice The personal political and geopolitical pertinence of Wink's ideas shines in his discussion of specific situations in Africa and Latin America

Unmasking the Powers Walter Wink, 1993-03-01 Angels Spirits principalities powers gods Satan these along with all other spiritual realities are the unmentionables of our culture The dominant materialistic worldview has absolutely no place for them But materialism itself is terminally ill and let us hope in process of replacement by a worldview capable of honoring the lasting values of modern science without succumbing to reductionism Therefore we find ourselves returning to the ancient traditions searching for wisdom wherever it may be found We do not capitulate to the past and its superstitions but bring all the gifts our race has acquired along the way as aids in recovering the lost language of our souls In Naming the Powers I developed the thesis that the New Testament's principalities and powers is a generic category referring to the determining forces of physical psychic and social existence In the present volume we will be focusing on just seven of the Powers mentioned in Scripture Their selection out of all the others dealt with in Naming the Powers is partly arbitrary they happen to be ones about which I felt I had something to say But they are also representative and open the way to comprehending the rest They are Satan demons angels of churches angels of nations gods elements and angels of nature

The Struggles After the Struggle David Kaulemu, 2008 Culture of Peace Alan Kreider, 2005-11-01 Why is peace such a divisive issue even among Christians Why is it so hard to practice right here right now Why is peace often considered an extra rather than an essential to faithful Christian living The three authors decided to write this book when the Indonesian member of the team remarked to the other two If the Christian church is to make any impact on Indonesia it must address itself to the biggest peace issue reconciliation with Muslims But before the writers could honestly consider that explosive possibility they first had to ask why Christians find it so difficult to live peaceably with other Christians They've discovered that conflict is often a prerequisite of peace They grant that peace is a continuum easier to live in some areas of life than in others They've learned that peace has two parents hard work and grace Living in peace is muscular activity The authors suggest how to develop peacemaking reflexes how churches can learn to handle conflict well and how to cultivate vulnerability and humility two essential attitudes of peacemakers True stories from communities around the world support this hopeful but strenuous call to faithful living Meeting the Enemy Kevin James O'Brien, 2025 The catastrophic effects of climate change are overwhelming What can we do Who is responsible In the tradition of Walter Wink O'Brien reminds us that Christians have the power to name and oppose the enemies of God's creation The fossil fuel industry is our enemy We can confront this evil power and build a more faithful future Unmasking the Angel Stephen Langford, 2025-05-01 This book explores the concept of an angel of the church It begins with the question that so intrigued Walter Wink Why would Jesus ask John to write to an angel in Revelation 2:3 This work develops critiques and expands Wink's answer It does so by taking the historical records of three churches in England's West Country and bringing them into conversation with Wink's understanding of the angel of the church It then goes further by introducing Wink's work to specialists in fields that include architecture demographics and church polity This scholarly conversation creates a matrix within which ministers with pastoral charge might be equipped to explore the spiritual identity or angel of their own congregations What Did Jesus Do? F. Scott Spencer, 2003-08-01 What Would Jesus Do is a popular phrase in Christian circles but answers to that question might be more on target if we spent more time exploring as Scott Spencer has What Did Jesus Do Spencer examines both the Synoptics and the Gospel of John as he tries to catch a wide angled vision of Jesus behavior in the gospels Rather than focus on sayings or pronouncements as an authoritative code of conduct he studies Jesus deeds or actions as keys to his identity and vocation While not ignoring Jesus teaching this study is more interested in discovering how Jesus personally lived up to his own moral instruction his personal conduct Chapters are devoted to Jesus actions with respect to his family his friends his body his possessions his work his reputation and the environment Spencer suggests paths and pitfalls for relating Jesus personal conduct to individual behavior how we might move from what Jesus did in the New Testament to what we should do today F. Scott Spencer is Professor of New Testament at Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond Virginia and is the author of The Portrait of Philip in Acts A Study of Roles and Relations and Acts He is the Chair of the New Testament section for the Southeastern Commission for the Study of Religion Transforming the Powers Ray C. Gingerich, Ted Grimsrud, Walter Wink's widely acclaimed trilogy from Fortress Press Naming the Powers 0 8006 1786 X 1984 Unmasking the Powers 0 8006 1902 1 1993 and Engaging the Powers 0 8006 2646 X 1992 has sold over 80 000 copies The Powers are good the Powers are fallen the Powers must be redeemed says Wink and the illustrious theologians and ethicists in this volume apply this suggestive analysis to economics politics and government war and peace personal ethics and ecological and social justice Contributors include Ray Gingerich Eastern Mennonite University Ted Grimsrud Eastern Mennonite University Nancey Murphy Fuller Theological Seminary Daniel Liechty Illinois State University Walter Wink Auburn Theological Seminary Willard M. Swartley Associated Mennonite Biblical Seminary Glen Stassen Fuller Theological Seminary Jesus, Deliver Us Willard M. Swartley, 2019-06-04 Deliver us from the evil one is the heart's cry from the Lord's Prayer Evil wears many faces in our modern world This book connects the Lord's Prayer to troubles of our times be it attacks from Satan the wars around the world the scourge of racism or the mass shootings of our time The subtitle of the book identifies the scope This book blends both deliverance from demonic bondage and witness to the powers in relation to political policies and government While the book aims to be a biblical theology on these topics it seeks also to address the praxis how these evils are confronted through healing deliverance ministries and what people of God say and do in witness to the powers The two streams of response to evil are really one as a faithful response to the saving work of the Lord God Almighty through Jesus Christ s victory over Satan sin evil and death Love your enemy confronts evil with power to transform

A Political Theory of Identity in European Integration Catherine Guisan, 2013-03-01 This book provides a theoretical and historical examination of the speech and deeds of European founders Using a fresh and innovative approach this monograph connects political theory with concrete political practices based on empirical evidence and theorizes the internal process of European reconciliations as it has been experienced by those involved The book draws upon over 100 interviews memoirs autobiographies and essays of elite and grassroot actors across the history of the European Union from the founding of the European Coal and Steel Community in 1950 to the 2010 financial crisis It introduces the reader to major contemporary Western political thinkers Hannah Arendt Jürgen Habermas Charles Taylor and Paul Ricoeur and examines how their theories develop the interpretation of political phenomena such as European integration As one of the first studies of EU memories this approach opens a unique window of analysis to view the development of the European community and makes a fascinating contribution to our understanding of the political tradition born of 60 years of European integration A Political Theory of Identity in European Integration Memory and Policies will be of strong interest to students and scholars of European politics contemporary democratic theory and EU studies
