When War Ends Building Peace In Divided Communities:

When War Ends David J. Francis, 2016-02-17 This volume critically examines what happens when war formally ends the difficult and complex challenges and opportunities for winning the peace and reconciling divided communities By reviewing a case study of the West African state of Sierra Leone potential lessons for other parts of the world can be gained Sierra Leone has emerged as a successful model of liberal peacebuilding that is now popularly advertised and promoted by the international community as a powerful example of a country that they finally got right Concerns about how successful a model Sierra Leone actually is are outlined in this project As such this volume An Introduction to Transitional Justice

Olivera Simić, 2020-07-30 The Second Edition of An Introduction to Transitional Justice provides a comprehensive overview of transitional justice judicial and non judicial measures implemented by societies to redress legacies of massive human rights abuse Written by some of the leading experts in the field it takes a broad interdisciplinary approach to the subject addressing the dominant transitional justice mechanisms as well as key themes and challenges faced by scholars and practitioners Using a wide historic and geographic range of case studies to illustrate key concepts and debates and featuring discussion questions and suggestions for further reading this is an essential introduction to the subject for students Institutional

Reforms and Peacebuilding Nadine Ansorg, Sabine Kurtenbach, 2016-09-13 This book deals with the question how institutional reform can contribute to peacebuilding in post war and divided societies In the context of armed conflict and widespread violence two important questions shape political agendas inside and outside the affected societies How can we stop the violence And how can we prevent its recurrence Comprehensive negotiated war terminations and peace accords recommend a set of mechanisms to bring an end to war and establish peace including institutional reforms that promote democratization and state building Although the role of institutions is widely recognized their specific effects are highly contested in research as well as in practice This book highlights the necessity to include path dependency pre conflict institutions and societal divisions to understand the patterns of institutional change in post war societies and the ongoing risk of civil war recurrence It focuses on the general question of how institutional reform contributes to the establishment of peace in post war societies This book comprises three separate but interrelated parts on the relation between institutions and societal divisions on institutional reform and on security sector reform The chapters contribute to the understanding of the relationship between societal cleavages pre conflict institutions path dependency and institutional reform This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding conflict resolution development studies security studies and IR

Peacebuilding in the Asia-Pacific Carmela Lutmar, James Ockey, 2018-09-04 This book explores theories of conflict and peacebuilding and applies them to case studies from the Asia Pacific region seeking to shift attention to the inherency of conflict the constant danger of re emergence and the need to establish mechanisms to resolve it The authors argue that the central focus of peacebuilding should not be state building per se but rather the creation of effective mechanisms for peaceful resolution of both past and newly emerging conflicts To do so it is important to consider the entire process of creating peace to contemplate the linkages between conflict resolution and post conflict peacebuilding rather than focus only on the period of institution building

The Diverse Facets of Corruption in Sierra Leone Emmanuel Saffa Abdulai, Ina Kubbe, 2024-07-15 This edited volume delves into Sierra Leone's complex post conflict landscape It posits that the nation's path to peace and stability hinges on robust anticorruption measures The chapters explore Sierra Leoneans' unique perception of corruption reflecting its political economic legal and socio cultural dimensions Moving away from mere theoretical abstraction the book pulls together fascinating practical discussions on the success and challenges of anti corruption tools used in Sierra Leone Approaches used to explain corruption in this postwar fragile democratic country include issues like non conviction based asset recovery and how it works unexplained wealth exposes lifestyle offences accountability of the judiciary and how judicial institutions can become a predator the role of the media in the fight against corruption the part of culture and history in engraining corruption patrimonialism as an explanation of corruption and social norms and sociological exposition to explain corruption

Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa Kenneth Omeje, 2018-10-03 Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa explores the challenges and opportunities faced by countries and societies transitioning from armed conflicts to peace in contemporary Africa It evaluates the effectiveness outcomes and failures of existing peacebuilding initiatives implemented by stakeholders and proposes new strategies and approaches to facilitate the transition The book investigates both micro and macro level conflicts in various parts of Africa as well as the efforts made to resolve them and build peace The book pays particular attention to grassroots based micro level conflicts often disregarded in peacebuilding literature which tends to focus on macro level neo liberal state reconstruction and peacebuilding efforts The book adopts an evidence based policy relevant approach to peacebuilding in Africa The various chapter contributors offer a lucid analysis and critique of some of the prevailing paradigms and strategies of peacebuilding practiced in Africa Together the authors recommend innovative strategies to mobilise and coordinate governance institutions and partnerships at all levels international regional national and local to prevent conflict escalation in volatile states and advance the rebuilding of violence affected states and communities Peacebuilding in Contemporary Africa provides a much needed perspective from African scholars and will be of interest to students researchers policy makers and practitioners with an interest in promoting legitimate policy interventions and sustainable peace in Africa

Rethinking Transitional Justice for the Twenty-First Century Dustin N. Sharp, 2018-03-01 Transitional justice is the dominant lens through which the world grapples with legacies of mass atrocity and yet it has rarely reflected the diversity of peace and justice traditions around the world Hewing to a largely western and legalist script truth commissions and war crimes tribunals have become the default means of doing justice Rethinking Transitional Justice for the Twenty First Century puts the blind spots and assumptions of transitional justice under the microscope and asks whether the field might be re imagined to better suit the diversity and realities of the twenty first century At the core of this re imagining is an examination of the broader field of post conflict peace building and associated critical theory from which both caution and inspiration can be drawn By using this lens Dustin N Sharp shows how we might begin to generate a more cosmopolitan and mosaic theory and imagine more creative and context sensitive approaches to building peace with justice

The International Committee of the Red Cross and its Mandate to Protect and Assist Christy Shucksmith, 2017-08-24 The purpose of this book is to consider the legality of the changing practice of the International Committee of the Red Cross ICRC It provides extensive legal analysis of the ICRC as an organisation legal person and humanitarian actor It draws on the law of organisations International Humanitarian Law International Human Rights Law and other relevant branches of international law in order to critically assess the mandate and practice of the ICRC on the ground The book also draws on more abstract human centric concepts including sovereignty as responsibility and human security in order to assess the development of the concept of humanity for the mandate and practice of the ICRC Critically this book uses semi structured interviews with ICRC delegates to test the theoretical and doctrinal conclusions The book provides a unique insight into the work of the ICRC It also includes a case study of the work of the ICRC in the Democratic Republic of Congo Ultimately the book concludes that the ICRC is no longer restricted to the provision of humanitarian assistance on the battlefield It is increasingly drawn into long term and extremely complicated conflicts in which civilians soldiers and non State actors intermingle In order to remain useful for the people on the ground therefore the ICRC is progressively developing its mandate This book questions whether on occasion this could threaten its promise to remain neutral impartial and independent Finally however it should be said that this author finds that the work of the ICRC is unparalleled on the international stage and its humanitarian mandate is a vital component for those embroiled in the undertaking of and recovery from conflict

Handbook of the International Political Economy of the Corporation Andreas Nölke, Christian May, 2018-09-28 Over the past few decades corporations have been neglected in studies of international political economy IPE Seeking to demystify them what they are how they behave and their goals and constraints this Handbook introduces the corporation as a unit of analysis for students of IPE Providing critical discussion of their global and domestic power and highlighting the ways in which corporations interact with each other and with their socio political environment this Handbook presents a thorough and up to date overview of the main debates around the role of corporations in the global political economy

Business and Conflict in Fragile States Brian Ganson, Achim Wennmann, 2018-10-25 Large scale investments in fragile states in Latin America Africa the former Soviet Union and Asia become magnets for conflict which undermines business development and security International policy responds with regulation state building and institutional reform with poor and often perverse results Caught up in old ways of thinking about conflict and fragility and an age old fight over whether multinational corporations are good or bad for peaceful development it leaves business related conflicts in fragile states to multiply and fester Surveying a new strategic landscape of business and conflict Brian Ganson and Achim Wennmann conclude that neither company shareholders nor advocates for peaceful development need or should accept the growing cost of business related conflict in fragile states Drawing on decades of experience from mainstream conflict prevention and violence reduction efforts as well as promising company practice they show that even acute conflict is manageable when dealt with pragmatically locally and on its own terms The analysis and conclusions of this Adelphi book will interest policymakers business leaders and community advocates alike all those hoping to mitigate today s conflicts while helping to reduce fragility and build a firmer foundation for inclusive development
