Wrong Doing Truth Telling Wrong Doing Truth Telling:

Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault delivered a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that until recently remained almost unknown These lectures which focus on the role of avowal or confession in the determination of truth and justice provide the missing link between Foucault's early work on madness delinquency and sexuality and his later explorations of subjectivity in Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the twentieth century Foucault traces the early use of truth telling in ancient Greece and follows it through to practices of self examination in monastic times By the nineteenth century the avowal of wrongdoing was no longer sufficient to satisfy the call for justice there remained the question of who the criminal was and what formative factors contributed to his wrong doing The call for psychiatric expertise marked the birth of the discipline of psychiatry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as well as its widespread recognition as the foundation of criminology and modern criminal justice Published here for the first time the 1981 lectures have been superbly translated by Stephen W Sawyer and expertly edited and extensively annotated by Fabienne Brion and Bernard E Harcourt They are accompanied by two contemporaneous interviews with Foucault in which he elaborates on a number of the key themes An essential companion to Discipline and Punish Wrong Doing Truth Telling will take its place as one of the most significant works of Foucault to appear in decades and will be necessary reading for all those interested in his thought

Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault gave a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that have remained relatively unknown until only recently Entitled Wrong Doing Truth Telling these lectures provides the missing link between Foucault's early work on sexuality and punishment and his later work on Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the 20th century Foucault traces how the early ethical acts of truth telling in ancient Greece gradually metamorphosed into acts of self incrimination in monastic times and ultimately into the birth and rise of psychiatry as the foundation of modern penology criminology and criminal justice For Foucault self incrimination no longer did the work necessary to quell justice because by the 19th century we wanted to know more than just the fact of wrongdoing we wanted to know who the criminal was not just whether the accused committed the crime but what it was about him that made him commit the crime An avowal of wrong doing was no longer sufficient psychiatric expertise was now necessary and that development marks the birth of discipline and modern criminal justice made so famous by Foucault

The Force of Truth Daniele Lorenzini, 2023-09-13 A groundbreaking examination of Michel Foucault's history of truth Many blame Michel Foucault for our post truth and conspiracy laden society In this provocative work Daniele Lorenzini argues that such criticism fundamentally misunderstands the philosopher's project Foucault did not question truth itself but what Lorenzini calls the force of truth or how some truth claims are given the power to govern our conduct while others are not This interest Lorenzini shows drove Foucault to articulate a new ethics and politics of truth telling precisely in order to evade the threat of relativism The Force of Truth explores this neglected dimension of Foucault's project by putting his writings on regimes of truth and parrhesia in conversation with early analytic philosophy and by drawing out the possibilizing elements of Foucault's genealogies that remain vital for practicing critique today Personal Identity and the European Court of Human Rights Jill Marshall, 2022-05-25 In this new and burgeoning field in legal and human rights thought this edited collection explores by reference to applied philosophy and case law how the European Court of Human Rights ECtHR has developed and presented a right to personal identity largely through interpretation of Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights Divided into three parts the collection interrogates firstly the construction of personal identity rights at the ECtHR secondly whose identity rights are protected and thirdly the limits of identity rights The collection is the first in the Routledge Studies in Law and Humanity series Contributions from nine leading and emerging legal scholars from the UK Ireland and continental Europe explore how the right has developed rights to identity and marriage LGBTI persons with disabilities religious and cultural issues and critical perspectives on the social construction and framing of the right The collection is primarily aimed at scholars and advanced students particularly of human rights law and its theory Jurisprudence and Philosophy of Law and those interested in ECtHR jurisprudence and those interested in the connection between theories of inclusion belonging and rights including human rights lawyers Literature and Politics in the Later Foucault Azucena G. Blanco, 2020-11-09 This study proposes a revised interpretation of Foucault's views on literature It has been argued that the philosopher's interest in literature was limited to the 1960s and of a mostly depoliticized nature However Foucault's previously unpublished later works suggest a different reality showing a sustained interest in literature and its politics In the light of this new material the book repositions Foucault's ideas within recent debates on the politics of literature How the Military Remembers Cynthia E. Milton, Michael Lazzara, 2025 This groundbreaking collection of essays examines how Latin American militaries construct memories of past human rights violations in ways that challenge established public memory and human rights discourse While previous studies have focused on democratization transitional justice and victim centered narratives this volume takes a different approach It highlights the importance of deconstructing the military's own active memory work or their countermemories a term the editors use to describe military narratives that are both counterintuitive and that run counter to the victim oriented memories that have long dominated the region's public memory With attention to the distinct cultural political and historical contexts across Latin America the essays reveal how military figures and institutions appropriate mechanisms of truth telling and accountability to reframe the past blur the lines between perpetrator and victim and weaponize memory itself Contributors Mariana Achugar Gabriela Fried Amilivia Rebecca Atencio Jo Marie Burt Rachel Hatcher Nicol's Rodriguez Id rraga Michael J Lazzara Cynthia E Milton Carla Granados Moya Mar a Emma Wills Obregon Leith Passmore Valentina Salvi Gladys V squez Zevallos Foucault and the Making of Subjects Laura Cremonesi, Orazio Irrera, Daniele Lorenzini, Martina Tazzioli, 2016-10-10 Michel Foucault's account of the subject has a double meaning it relates to both being a subject of and being subject to political forces This book interrogates the philosophical and political consequences of such a dual definition of the subject by exploring the processes of subjectivation and objectivation through which subjects are produced Drawing together well known scholars of Foucaultian thought and critical theory alongside a newly translated interview with Foucault himself the book will engage in a serious reconsideration of the notion of autonomy beyond the liberal tradition connecting it to processes of subjectivation In the face of the ongoing proliferation of analyses using the notion of subjectivation this book will retrace Foucault's reflections on it and interrogate the current theoretical and political implications of a series of approaches that mobilize the Foucaultian understanding of the subject in relation to truth and power

Homer's Iliad and the Problem of Force Charles H. Stocking, 2023-04-05 The topic of force has long remained a problem of interpretation for readers of Homer's Iliad ever since Simone Weil famously proclaimed it as the poem's main subject This book seeks to address that problem through a full scale treatment of the language of force in the Iliad from both philological and philosophical perspectives Each chapter explores the different types of Iliadic force in combination with the reception of the Iliad in the French intellectual tradition Ultimately this book demonstrates that the different terms for force in the Iliad give expression to distinct relations between self and other At the same time this book reveals how the Iliad as a whole undermines the very relations of force which characters within the poem seek to establish Ultimately this study of force in the Iliad offers an occasion to reconsider human subjectivity in Homeric poetry

Critique and Praxis Bernard E. Harcourt, 2020-08-11 Critical philosophy has always challenged the division between theory and practice At its best it aims to turn contemplation into emancipation seeking to transform society in pursuit of equality autonomy and human flourishing Yet today's critical theory often seems to engage only in critique These times of crisis demand more Bernard E Harcourt challenges us to move beyond decades of philosophical detours and to harness critical thought to the need for action In a time of increasing awareness of economic and social inequality Harcourt calls on us to make society more equal and just Only critical theory can guide us toward a more self reflexive pursuit of justice Charting a vision for political action and social transformation Harcourt argues that instead of posing the question What is to be done we must now turn it back onto ourselves and ask and answer What more am I to do Critique and Praxis advocates for a new path forward that constantly challenges each and every one of us to ask what more we can do to realize a society based on equality and justice Joining his decades of activism social justice litigation and political engagement with his years of critical theory and philosophical work Harcourt has written a magnum opus

Developing Restorative Justice Jurisprudence Tony Foley, 2016-04-22 What are the requirements for a just response to criminal wrongdoing Drawing on comparative and empirical analysis of existing models of global practice this book offers an approach aimed at restricting the current limitations of criminal justice process and addressing the current deficiencies Putting restoration squarely alongside other aims of justice responses the author argues that only when restorative questions are taken into account can institutional responses be truly said to be just Using the three primary jurisdictions of Australia New Zealand and Canada the book presents the leading examples of restorative justice practices incorporated in mainstream criminal justice systems from around the world In conclusion the work provides a fresh insight into how today s criminal law might develop in order to bring restoration directly into the mix for tomorrow This book will be of interest to undergraduates postgraduate researchers and lecturers as well as lawyers who work in the field of criminal law criminologists social scientists and philosophers interested in ideas of wrongdoing and criminal justice responses to criminal offending
