Desecularizing the Christian Past Enrico Beltramini,2025-10-01 The essential objective of this study is to unpack the complicity between historians and secularization theory in the study of late ancient and early medieval Christianity and then suggest a way out In this work of historiography of religion Enrico Beltramini argues that religious history is inherently secular and produces distorted representations of the Christian past He suggests moving from an epistemological to a hermeneutical approach so that the supernatural worldview of the Christian past can be addressed on its own terms This work also engages Markus s saeculum and replaces Markus s secularized relationship between the Kingdom and the government of the civitas with the Augustinian association of the Kingdom and divine government Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1870 The Index to American Catholic Pamphlets Eugene Paul Willging,1927 Sheppard's British Isles Richard Joseph Publishers Ltd Publishers,2007-04 This new edition is a directory of antiquarian and second hand book dealers in the British Isles the Channel Islands the Isle of Man and the Republic of Ireland After the Geographical Section indexes include ones for proprietor business name website and book stock specialities Also includes information related to the trade Completely revised A Poetics of Church Jennifer Reek,2017-09-25 This innovative book aims to create a poetics of Church and a religious imaginary as alternatives to more institutional and conventional ways of thinking and of being Church Structured as a spiritual and literary journey the work moves from models of the institutional Catholic Church into more radical and ambiguous textual spaces which the author creates by bringing together an unorthodox group of thinkers referred to as poet companions the 16th century founder of the Society of Jesus Ignatius of Loyola the French thinkers Gaston Bachelard and Hélène Cixous the French poet Yves Bonnefoy and the English playwright Dennis Potter Inspired especially by the reading and writing practices of Cixous the author attempts to exemplify Cixous notion of critique feminine writing that suggests new ways of seeing and relating The project's uniting of Ignatian spirituality with postmodern thinking and its concern with creating new theological literary and spiritual spaces for women both coincide and contrast with Pope Francis's pastoral and reformist tendencies which have neglected to adequately address the marginalisation of women in the Church As Francis has called for a theology of women of which there are of course many to draw from this volume will be a timely contribution with a unique interdisciplinary approach American Book Publishing Record ,2006 The Living Church ,1994 Cross-Examined Films Matthew King,2017-12-06 After spending nearly a quarter of a lifetime watching popular and independent films Matthew King RN makes a point to criticize the Christian church for its lack of engagement with films He believes that the lack of engagement and the strong denunciation of films only because of their sexual or violent content has lost an entire generation because of the inability to speak the millennial language of popular Hollywood films With searing prose and biting confrontation King attempts to engage films through the lens of theology philosophy and political analysis to assist the church in identifying positive as well as negative examples of the topics within to better engage an entire generation Through this investigation Christians and non Christians alike will be both enlightened and surprised at what popular films have unconsciously taught them from a young age The Athenæum ,1874 The British Quarterly Review ,1880
