Space and Place in Children's Literature, 1789 to the Present Maria Sachiko Cecire, Hannah Field, Malini Roy, 2016-03-09 Focusing on questions of space and locale in children's literature this collection explores how metaphorical and physical space can create landscapes of power knowledge and identity in texts from the early nineteenth century to the present The collection is comprised of four sections that take up the space between children and adults the representation of real world places fantasy travel and locales and the physical space of the children's book as object In their essays the contributors analyze works from a range of sources and traditions by authors such as Sylvia Plath Maria Edgeworth Gloria Anzald a Jenny Robson C S Lewis Elizabeth Knox and Claude Ponti While maintaining a focus on how location and spatiality aid in defining the child's relationship to the world the essays also address themes of borders displacement diaspora exile fantasy gender history home leaving and homecoming hybridity mapping and metatextuality With an epilogue by Philip Pullman in which he discusses his own relationship to image and locale this collection is also a valuable resource for understanding the work of this celebrated author of children's literature

Narratives from the Classroom Paul Chamness Miller, 2005 Narratives from the Classroom An Introduction to Teaching introduces the reader to many of the important classroom issues surrounding the field of teaching This book is unique in that it is a collection of personal accounts and ideas written by the teachers and teacher educators who lived those experiences Because this is an introduction to teaching each chapter addresses a different topic ranging from the purpose of schools and teachers issues about policies and programs in the school and various practices found within the classroom walls There is also a section that addresses preparation for the job market and what the first year of teaching is like This book deliberately avoids being prescriptive and encourages the reader to form his or her own conclusions about the presented issues

Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Justyna Deszcz-Tryhubczak, Irena Kalla, 2020-10-29 Rulers of Literary Playgrounds Politics of Intergenerational Play in Children's Literature offers multifaceted reflection on interdependences between children and adults as they engage in play in literary texts and in real life This volume brings together international children's literature scholars who each look at children's texts as key vehicles of intergenerational play reflecting ideologies of childhood and as objects with which children and adults interact physically emotionally and cognitively Each chapter applies a distinct theoretical approach to selected children's texts including individual and social play constructive play or play deprivation This collection of essays constitutes a timely voice in the current discussion about the importance of children's play and adults contribution to it vis the increasing limitations of opportunities for children's playful time in contemporary societies

The Documented

Child Maya Socolovsky, 2025 Looking at picture books and middle grade and young adult literature written from 1997 to 2020 The Documented Child demonstrates how the portrayal of Latinx children has dramatically shifted and discusses how these shifts map onto broader changes in immigration policy and discourse in the United States Poetry in Literature for Youth Angela Leeper, 2006-03-28 Poetry in Literature for Youth offers teachers librarians parents and students with an instrumental guide for incorporating all forms of poetry into the curriculum More than 900 annotated entries provide descriptions of books and other resources including anthologies classics various poetry formats poetry novels multicultural poetry performance poetry teen poetry poet biographies and curriculum connections Educators who are often unaware of the poetry resources available particularly for young adults will welcome this book with open arms Lists for building a core poetry collection along with resources for teaching poetry criticism and writing electronic poetry resources booktalks classroom activities and lesson plans complement this guide Author Geographic Grade Subject and Title indexes are also included For anyone interested in knowing more about poetry in literature this is an indispensable guide More Mirrors in the Classroom Jane Fleming, Susan Catapano, Candace M. Thompson, Sandy Ruvalcaba Carrillo, 2016-06-08 Nearly 30% of all public school children attend school in large or mid size cities totaling more than 16 million students in 22 000 schools For schools serving culturally and linguistically diverse populations and large numbers of children living in poverty a significant achievement gap persists Proponents of multicultural education often advocate for instruction with culturally relevant texts to promote inclusion compassion and understanding of our increasingly diverse society Less discussion has focused on the significant body of research that suggests that culturally relevant texts have important effects on language and literacy development By connecting the dots of existing research More Mirrors in the Classroom raises awareness about the critical role that urban children s literature can play in helping children learn to read and write In addition it provides practical step by step advice for increasing the cultural relevance of school curricula in order to accelerate literacy learning Purposeful Teaching and Learning in Diverse Contexts Darrell Hucks, Yolanda Sealey-Ruiz, Victoria Showunmi, Suzanne C. Carothers, Chance W. Lewis, 2022-01-01 Teachers have faced serious public critique regarding their effectiveness and professionalism in classrooms At every level their work is often measured solely against student achievement outcomes often on standardized tests Darling Hammond Ravitch 2010 Unfortunately students who are coming from culturally economically and linguistically diverse backgrounds are often occupying the bottom rungs regarding academic achievement Ladson Billings 1995 Milner 2010 Hucks 2014 What are the obstacles and challenges teachers and students face in their respective school settings and how do they grapple with and overcome them Finally what do these teachers and students know that motivates and informs their work The scholars in this volume will take up these questions and share the findings of their research in the field of leadership teacher education and achievement These concerns are not limited to the geographic boundaries of the United States of America Engaging purposeful teaching is an imperative that concerns students teachers teacher educators educational leaders and education policy makers around the globe There are many educators worldwide who are committed to delivering this type of teaching and promoting learning that is engaged and active The four sections of the book capture the work of educators in teaching in diverse global settings such as the Australia United Kingdom Jamaica Turkey and across America As diverse populations of students enter American classrooms it is important for their teachers to have relatable examples of purposeful teaching that are culturally responsive and culturally relevant

Border Thinking Andrea Dyrness, Enrique Sepúlveda III, 2020-03-31 Rich accounts of how Latinx migrant youth experience belonging across borders As anti immigrant nationalist discourses escalate globally Border Thinking offers critical insights into how young people in the Latinx diaspora experience belonging make sense of racism and long for change Every year thousands of youth leave Latin America for the United States and Europe and often the young migrants are portrayed as invaders and if able to stay told to integrate into their new society Border Thinking asks not how to help the diaspora youth assimilate but what the United States and Europe can learn about citizenship from these diasporic youth Working in the United States Spain and El Salvador Andrea Dyrness and Enrique Sepúlveda III use participatory action research to collaborate with these young people to analyze how they make sense of their experiences in the borderlands Dyrness and Sepúlveda engage them in reflecting on their feelings of belonging in multiple places including some places that treat them as outsiders and criminals Because of their transnational existence and connections to both home and host countries diaspora youth have a critical perspective on national citizenship and yearn for new forms of belonging not restricted to national borders The authors demonstrate how acompañamiento spaces for solidarity and community building among migrants allow youth to critically reflect on their experiences and create support among one another Even as national borders grow more restricted and the subject of immigration becomes ever more politically fraught young people's identities are increasingly diasporic As the so called migrant crisis continues change in how citizenship and belonging are constructed is necessary and urgent to create inclusive and sustainable futures In Border Thinking Dyrness and Sepúlveda decouple citizenship from the nation state calling for new understandings of civic engagement and belonging
