Alexandra Oeser, 2019-08-01 For more than half a century discourses on the Nazi past have powerfully shaped German social and cultural policy Specifically an institutional determination not to forget has expressed a duty of remembrance through commemorative activities and educational curricula But as the horrors of the Third Reich retreat ever further from living memory what do new generations of Germans actually think about this past Combining observation interviews and archival research this book provides a rich survey of the perspectives and experiences of German adolescents from diverse backgrounds revealing the extent to which social economic and cultural factors have conditioned how they view representations of Germany's complex history Wave (Verlag Edition) Morton Rhue, 1998-07-01 Youth Transforming Conflict Nadine Lyamouri-Bajja, Yael Ohana, Ruben Markosyan, Osama Abukatta, Ditta Dolejšiová, Aleksandra Vidanovic, 2013-01-01 In 1998 the Council of Europe and the European Commission decided to take common action in the field of youth. Both institutions initiated a partnership agreement with the aim to promote active European citizenship and civil society by giving impetus to the training of youth leaders and youth workers working within a European dimension. In 2003 additional agreements were signed in the fields of youth research and Euro Mediterranean youth co-operation. Since 2005 the partnership between the European Commission and the Council of Europe in the field of youth activities has focused on the following topics: European citizenship, human rights education and intercultural dialogue, quality and recognition of youth work and training, better understanding and knowledge of youth and youth policy development. The partnership between the European Commission and the Council of Europe in the field of youth brings together the two institutions' experience in non-formal education, youth policy, youth research and youth work practice. Activities organised within its framework gather representatives of those areas who share their knowledge and experience for the benefit of enhancing evidence-based policy practice, quality and recognition of youth work and training. Results and other material are made available on the partnership website <http://youth-partnership.eu/coe-int> and in various publications including the Training Kits. T-Kits are thematic publications written by experienced youth trainers and experts and constitute easy-to-use handbooks for educational activities. All activities and publications enhance the exchange of experience and good practice between the actors involved and contribute to the implementation of the political objectives of both partner institutions. T-Kit, Volume 12 Council of Europe, 2012-01-01 The GCSE Drama Coursebook Andy Kempe, 2002 The GCSE Drama Coursebook is firmly based on practical explorations of how to make, perform and respond to drama. The resources used to stimulate drama are exciting and varied, ranging from photo love stories and poems to fine art and contemporary plays. Teaching Literature, 11-18 Martin Blocksidge, 2000-06-01 This text is written by in-service teachers and covers both teaching methods and the work authors taught. The contributors discuss how particular methods of teaching suit particular authors in particular contexts.
