Ecological Engineering Design Christopher Gorse, Beth Jones, Darryl Newport, Colin Booth, Lloyd Scott, Mohammad Dastbaz, Saheed Ajayi, Bianca Drotleff, 2025-05-03 The International Conference of Sustainable Ecological Engineering Design for Society SEEDS brings together global experts to focus on a sustainability agenda and the positive and detrimental changes that are taking place. Papers presented at the conference come from across a broad spectrum of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and bring forward practices to tackle the climate emergency and evaluate their impact. It addresses technical issues measuring, monitoring and assessing change, emphasizing the environment, infrastructure and buildings, how they exist in relative isolation and the possibilities for sustainable integration. The SEEDS Conference addresses the interdependence of people and the built and natural environments and recognizes the interdisciplinary and international themes necessary to assemble the knowledge required for positive change.

Human Resource Management Practices for Promoting Sustainability Atiku, Sulaiman Olusegun, Fapohunda, Tinuke, 2020-09-18 In the midst of climate change, responsible business practices and ecological modernization become essential tools for the promotion of sustainability. Due to the current level of demand for eco-friendly products and services, there is a need for green training and green human resource development to support green creativity and eco-innovation for sustainability. By incorporating green initiatives into human resource practices, organizations can maintain a positive impact on the environment. With a full understanding of sustainable business practices, positive impacts on the environmental management field become easier to produce. Human Resource Management Practices for Promoting Sustainability is a pivotal reference source that explores the incorporation of green initiatives into all aspects of human resource management practices in a variety of industries. The book delivers a discussion on green human capital, collective green intelligence and competencies that are essential to cope with the challenges in Industry 4.0. It also provides a basis for green recruitment and selection processes as a way of promoting pro-environmental behavior in the labor markets. While highlighting a broad range of topics including employee relations, knowledge management and recruitment, this book is ideally designed for executives, entrepreneurs, human resource managers, academicians, researchers and students. The book is also suitable for conventional and corporate universities looking to meet sustainable development goals as well as policymakers as it provides a guideline in designing and implementing green creativity and eco-innovation based on a wide range of global issues confronting sustainability in the Fourth Industrial Revolution.

Organic Acids in Diabetes Md. Shahidul Islam, 2025-10-29 This book comprehensively reviews the pivotal roles and intricate mechanisms through which organic acids contribute to the management of type 2 diabetes and its associated complications. The introductory chapters provide a foundational understanding of diabetes, encompassing its pathogenesis, classification and conventional therapeutic approaches, as well as examining the complications inherently linked to this chronic condition. The chapters discuss the sources, chemistry, digestion, absorption, metabolism and health benefits of phenolic acid, emphasizing their roles in managing diabetes and related complications. The subsequent chapters of the book highlight the potential benefits of non phenolic organic acids in the management of insulin resistance and type 2 diabetes discussing their metabolic effects and potential in reducing diabetes related complications In conclusion the book offers a holistic approach to diabetes management emphasizing the significance of dietary choices and natural compounds in improving overall well being while managing this prevalent chronic condition This book is a valuable resource for researchers healthcare professionals and academicians keen on harnessing the therapeutic potential of these organic acids

Whose History Counts June Bam,Lungisile Ntsebeza,Allan Zinn,2018-11-29 Originally planned as a fact based book on the pre colonial history of the Eastern Cape in the true tradition of history this ground breaking book focuses on epistemological and foundational questions about the writing of history and whose history counts Whose History Counts challenges the very concept of pre colonial and explores methodologies on researching and writing history The reason for this dramatic change of focus is attributed in the introduction of the book to the student led rebellion that erupted following the RhodesMustFall campaign which started at the University of Cape Town on 9 March 2015 Key to the rebellion was the students opposition to what they dubbed colonial education and a clamour for among others a decolonised curriculum This book is a direct response to this clarion call

The Everyday Politics of Food Co-ops Celia Plender,2025-05-01 National politics has a significant impact on organizing and accessing community welfare This book engages with notions of everyday politics within two London based food co ops emerging from different political environments and ideologies It provides a careful and engaging examination of the experiences of political and economic change in Austerity Britain revealing how national politics came to punctuate everyday lives within the co ops It highlights the political resonances that practices of care aid and community organizing came to have within the food co ops at a time of rapid welfare withdrawal as well as the tensions between more radical and neoliberal imaginaries that played out within them

Global Childhoods in International Perspective: Universality, Diversity and Inequalities Claudio Baraldi,Lucia Rabello De Castro,2020-02-10 Global Childhoods in International Perspective gathers a wide spectrum of contributors from Europe the U S South Asia South Africa and Latin America who attuned with present dilemmas in the area of childhood studies discuss some key theoretical and empirical aspects of child scholarship such as identity child wellbeing child mobility and migration intergenerational relationships and child abuse Through these expert contributions the book explores the many ways in which the relationship between universality and particularities of childhood plays an important role in describing global childhoods The book highlights childhood as a cross cutting issue in global sociology with chapters on globalization and schooling in Burkina Faso child abuse and neglect in India identity and integration among children of African immigrants in France social class mobility of Filipino migrant children in Italy and France and an investigation into Kyrgyz childhoods Ideal reading for researchers practitioners and students interested in both childhood studies and the other areas including community research sociology of education social stratification and the sociology of migration Language Narratives and Shifting Multilingual Pedagogies Belinda Mendelowitz, Ana

Ferreira, Kerry Dixon, 2022-12-15 Winner of the UKLA Academic Book Award 2024 This book challenges monoglossic ideologies traditional language pedagogies and dominant forms of knowledge construction by foregrounding multilingual and multicultural students language narratives repertoires and identities The research is based on a sixteen year longitudinal study of a sociolinguistics course at an English language university and the language narratives produced by the first year education students The study was borne out of a need to create a critically inclusive course that would engage a cohort of students from socially and linguistically diverse backgrounds in contemporary South Africa Drawing on data from over 5 000 students who have journeyed through this course this book shows how a narrative heteroglossic pedagogy harnesses students multilingual strengths A close analysis reveals complex identity work by students located in the Global South The authors argue that decolonising language education is about reconceptualising language reconfiguring what knowledges are valued in the classroom and reshaping pedagogy Advances in Nature and Biologically Inspired Computing Nelishia

Pillay, Andries P.
