Unraveling Ties From Social Cohesion To New Practices Of Connectedness:

Unraveling Ties Yehuda Elkana, Shalini Randeria, 2002 Unraveling Ties is a unique addition to current debates in sociology a compilation of essays mapping the creation of community life in a modern world that often appears alienating cold and even threatening Topics range from family life and friendship to the integral role of the deviant in society The result is a thoughtful meticulously researched volume that will be useful to sociologists economists and anyone interested in the creation of community in a decentralized and rapidly globalizing world Delimiting Modernities Sven Trakulhun, Ralph Weber, 2015-02-12 This collection seeks to contribute to the many long standing discussions on modernity but also and more specifically to the more recent debates over trends to pluralize modernity These debates are current in many different academic disciplines such as sociology anthropology literature and postcolonial studies Hitherto most engagements with modernity in the plural have remained conspicuously confined to one or other intra disciplinary notion of modernities such as that of Shmuel Eisenstadt s multiple modernities which has triggered a host of conference papers and publications largely within sociology all the while it seems that the literatures for instance of multiple modernities and alternative modernities are each distinguished by the fact that one ignores the other It is the principal aim of this edited volume to subject these disciplinary discussions to a more encompassing view assembling contributions from different scholars who not only work in different disciplines and regional settings but who also engage with their research topics in a variety of approaches and at different levels of analysis The volume thus transcends the sometimes narrow boundaries of the debates over modernities within the established academic disciplines and seeks to turn the unavoidable friction brought about by this interdisciplinary setting into most original and insightful scholarship Cultural Turns Doris Bachmann-Medick, 2016-01-15 The contemporary fields of the study of culture the humanities and the social sciences are unfolding in a dynamic constellation of cultural turns This book provides a comprehensive overview of these theoretically and methodologically groundbreaking reorientations It discusses the value of the new focuses and their analytical categories for the work of a wide range of disciplines In addition to chapters on the interpretive performative reflexive postcolonial translational spatial and iconic turns it discusses emerging directions of research Drawing on a wealth of international research this book maps central topics and approaches in the study of culture and thus provides systematic impetus for changed disciplinary and transdisciplinary research in the humanities and beyond e g in the fields of sociology economics and the study of religion This work is the English translation by Adam Blauhut of an influential German book that has now been completely revised It is a stimulating example of a cross cultural translation between different theoretical cultures and also the first critical synthesis of cultural turns in the English speaking world Global Modernity V. Schmidt, 2014-05-07 This book introduces the concept of global modernity as a paradigm for the analysis of the contemporary era Building on Parson s distinction between social cultural personal and organismic systems it presents a four dimensional scheme that aims to identify modernity s key structural components The Nation State and Beyond Isabella Löhr, Roland Wenzlhuemer, 2012-12-13 The history of globalization is anything but a no frills affair that moves smoothly along a clear cut unidirectional path of development eventually leading to seamless global integration Accordingly scholarship in the social sciences has increasingly argued against equating the history of globalization processes and transcultural entanglements with the master narrative of the gradual homogenization of the world Examining the shifting patterns of global connections has therefore become the main challenge for all those who seek to understand the past the present and the future of modern societies And this challenge includes finding a place for the nation state The studies presented here argue that looking at the nation state from the perspective of global entanglements opens the door for its interpretation as a dynamic and multi layered structure that takes part in globalization processes and plays various and at times even contradictory roles at the same time A Fraught Embrace Ann Swidler, Susan Cotts Watkins, 2018-12-04 In the wake of the AIDS pandemic legions of organizations and compassionate individuals from faraway places descended on Africa to offer help and save lives Ann Swidler and Susan Cotts Watkins vividly describe the often mismatched expectations and fantasies of altruists who dream of transforming lives of the villagers who desperately seek help and of the brokers on whom both Western altruists and impoverished villagers must rely Based on years of fieldwork in the heavily AIDS affected country of Malawi this incisive irreverent book digs into the sprawling AIDS enterprise and unravels the paradoxes of policy and practice All who want to do good from idealistic volunteers to world weary development professionals depend on brokers as guides fixers and cultural translators The mutual misunderstandings among these players create all the drama of a romance longing exhilaration disappointment heartache and sometimes an enduring connection A Fraught Embrace unveils the tangled relations of those involved in the collective struggle to contain an epidemic The Ashgate Research Companion to the Globalization of Health Ted Schrecker, 2016-03-23 Global health has emerged as a distinct field of academic research and professional activity Over the last decade health has become an important element of many nations foreign policies a routine agenda item for the G8 and a rapidly expanding focus of bilateral and multilateral development assistance Some aspects of health like the spread of easily transmitted communicable diseases are self evidently global in an age of rapid low cost air travel Many more reflect the influence of transnational economic integration globalization and its effects on national economies societies and health systems In still other cases like non communicable diseases in most low and middle income countries the lack of impact on the interests of more powerful actors outside the borders of the affected areas makes it difficult to generate the concern and action on the part of the global community that may be imperative for ethical reasons This multinational volume of original contributed papers simultaneously provides an overview of the state of current global health scholarship reflects the multidisciplinary nature of the field and highlights the most significant issues for research and policy Classes, Citizenship and Inequality T. K. Oommen, 2010 Rejecting the obsolete methodology of comparisons between categories

Competing Sovereignities Richard Joyce, 2012-08-21 Competing Sovereignities provides a critique of the concept of sovereignty in modernity in light of claims to determine the content of law at the international national and local levels In an argument that is illustrated through an analysis of debates over the control of intellectual property law in India Richard Joyce considers how economic globalization and the claims of indigenous communities do not just challenge national sovereignty as if national sovereignty is the only kind of sovereignty but in fact invite us to challenge our conception of what sovereignty is Combining theoretical research and reflection with an analysis of the legal institutional and political context in which sovereignties compete the book offers a reconception of modern sovereignty and with it a new appreciation of the complex issues surrounding the relationship between international organisations nation states and local and indigenous communities

Local Knowledge and Gender in Ghana Christine Müller, 2015-07-15 The emergence of global knowledge societies is recently questioning the meaning and relevance of local knowledge in the context of Southern countries Women have proved to be the central actors in the multiple channels of local global networking using these new social ties for the negotiation of old and new elements of knowledge scientific knowledge and development discourses The inherent politicisation of knowledge and the direct objective of transforming societal institutions are not only signs of resistance against global hegemony but serve for a new definition and for a defence of local culture and of local knowledge

Historical Memory in Africa Mamadou Diawara, Bernard Latagan, Jörn Rüsen, 2010-06-01 A vast amount of literature both scholarly and popular now exists on the subject of historical memory but there is remarkably little available that is written from an African perspective This volume explores the inner dynamics of memory in all its variations from its most destructive and divisive impact to its remarkable potential to heal and reconcile It addresses issues on both the conceptual and the pragmatic level and its theoretical observations and reflections are informed by first hand experiences and comparative reflections from a German Indian and Korean perspective A new insight is the importance of the future dimension of memory and hence the need to develop the ability to remember with the future in mind Historical memory in an African context provides a rich kaleidoscope of the diverse experiences and perspectives and yet there are recurring themes and similar conclusions connecting it to a global dialogue to which it has much to contribute but from which it also has much to receive

The Humanities between Global Integration and Cultural Diversity Hans G. Kippenberg, Birgit Mersmann, 2016-03-21 Modernization and digital globalization have proven to mark major thresholds where paradigmatic shifts and realignments take place This volume aims to capture the reconfiguration of humanistic study between the forces of global integration and cultural diversification from a full range of disciplines within the humanities and social sciences The key issue is discussed in three major parts The first chapter examines transnational interpolations of the humanities as potential indicator for a globalizing humanistic research The second chapter deals with humanistic revisions of modernity with and against globality The third chapter discusses the ambiguous constitution of cultural diversity as a complement and counter movement to global integration ideologically moving between social cohesion and exclusion The final chapter outlines what the threshold crossing from modern to global humanities will mean for the future of humanistic research The multidisciplinary study of culture within the history of the humanities documents and reflects the mobility and migration of its concepts and methods moving and translating between disciplines research traditions historical periods academic institutions and the public sphere

Empire, Civil Society, and the Beginnings of Colonial Education in India Jana Tschurenne, 2019-05-23 Offers a new perspective on the making of colonial education and the history of modern schooling in India Armed Memory Gabriella Erdélyi, Günter Frank, Ute Lotz-Heumann, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Johannes Schilling, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, Tarald Rasmussen, Mathijs Lamberigts, Bruce Gordon, David M. Whitford, 2015-12-09 The edited volume aims to re contextualize revolts in early modern Central and Southern Europe Hungary Croatia Czech Lands Austria Germany Italy by adopting the interdisciplinary and comparative methods of social and cultural history Instead of structural explanations like the model of state building versus popular resistance it wishes to put back the peasants themselves to the historical narratives of revolts Peasants appear in the book as active agents fighting or bargaining for freedom which was a practical issue for them Nonetheless the language of lord peasant negotiation was that of religion just as official punishments used Christian symbols The approach of revolts as the events of collective violence also highlights the experiences and memories of participants How did individuals and groups use remembering and forgetting as a means of forging an identity for themselves Instead of the narratives of the powerful that became the normative stories of history the perspective of the rebels uncovers the everyday faces of revolts more forcibly Finally contributors examine how later narrators used the rebels for their own purposes in other words the subsequent representation of the revolts and their leaders in image literature and historiography comes to the fore The volume aims to overcome disciplinary boundaries by bringing together historians and scholars of related disciplines including the history of literature the visual arts and anthropology The central contention of the volume the cultural imprint of peasant revolts is fully addressed thereby filling a conspicuous gap in the currently available literature Do We Need Religion? Hans Joas, 2015-11-17 The old assumption that modernization leads to secularization is outdated Yet the certainty that religion is an anthropological universal that can only be suppressed by governments is also dead Thus it is now a favorable moment for a new perspective on religion This book takes human experiences of self transcendence as its point of departure Religious faith is seen as an attempt to articulate and interpret such experiences Faith then is neither useful nor a symptom of weakness or misery but an opening up of ways of experience This book develops this basic idea contrasts it with the thinking of some leading religious thinkers of our time and relates it to the current debates about human rights and universal human dignity Theopoetics and Religious Difference Marius van Hoogstraten, 2020-09-30 Why are interreligious encounters and relations both more troubling and more promising than typically assumed and how can this be embraced In engaging the contemporary theological discourse of theopoetics Marius van Hoogstraten offers a way of approaching religious difference that while perhaps unusual to readers familiar with more conventional theology may be especially fitting for this age Provided by publisher Namibia and Germany: Negotiating the Past Reinhard Kossler,2015-08-12 100 years since the end of German colonial rule in Namibia the relationship between the former colonial power and the Namibian communities who were affected by its brutal colonial policies remains problematic and interpretations of the past are still contested This book examines the ongoing debates conflicts and confrontations over the past It scrutinises the consequences of German colonial rule its impact on the descendants of victims of the 1904 08 genocide Germany s historical responsibility and ways in which post colonial reconciliation might be achieved Global Inequalities Beyond Occidentalism Manuela Boatcă,2016-04-22 Based on theoretical developments in research on world systems analysis transnational migration postcolonial and decolonial perspectives whilst considering continuities of inequality patterns in the context of colonial and postcolonial realities Global Inequalities Beyond Occidentalism proposes an original framework for the study of the long term reproduction of inequalities under global capitalism With attention to the critical assessment of both Marxist and Weberian perspectives this book examines the wider implications of transferring classical approaches to inequality to a twenty first century context calling for a reconceptualisation of inequality that is both theoretically informed and methodologically consistent and able to cater for the implications of shifts from national and Western structures to global structures Engaging with approaches to the study of class gender racial and ethnic inequalities at the global level this innovative work adopts a relational perspective in the study of social inequalities that is able to reveal how historical interdependencies between world regions have translated as processes of inequality production and reproduction As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology political and social theory and anthropology concerned with questions of globalisation and inequality The Strangeness of Gods S. C. Humphreys,2004-09-30 The Strangeness of Gods combines studies of changes in modern interpretations of Greek religion with studies of changes in Athenian ritual The combination is necessary in order to combat influential stereotypes that Greek religion consisted of ritual without theological speculation that ritual is inherently conservative To re examine the evidence for Greek rituals and their interpretation is also to re examine our own preconceptions and prejudices The argument presented by S C Humphreys tries to bring Greek texts closer to the classic texts of other civilizations and religion as a form of speculative thought closer to science Her studies of Athenian rituals put this emphasis on changing interpretations into practice showing that the Athenians thought about their rites as well as celebrating them Cordial Cold War Bajpai, Anandita,2021-10-01 Cordial Cold War examines cultural entanglements in various forms between two distant yet interconnected sites of the Cold War India and the German Democratic Republic GDR Focusing on theatre performances film festivals newsreels travel literature radio broadcasting cartography and art as sites of engagement the chapters spotlight spaces of interaction that emerged in spite of and within the ambits of Cold War constraints The inter disciplinary collection sheds light on the variegated nature of translocal cultural entanglements at work even before the GDR was officially recognized as a sovereign state by India in 1972 By foregrounding the role of actors their practices and the sites of their entanglement the contributions show how creative energies were mobilized to forge zones of friendship mutual interest and envisioned solidarities This volume situates actors from the Global South as mutual co shapers of the cultural Cold War therein shifting its Euro American and Soviet epicenters to Non Aligned India Going beyond official state channels of international political dialogue it locates cordiality in the micro histories and everyday experiences of interpersonal engagements bringing to focus a hitherto underexplored chapter of India Germany entanglements
