White, 2012-11-02 The Founders of this nation believed that the government they were creating required a civically educated populace Such an education aimed to cultivate enlightened informed and vigilant citizens who could perpetuate and improve the nation

Unfortunately America s contemporary youth seem to lack adequate opportunities if not also the ability or will to critically examine the foundations of this nation An even larger problem is an increasing ambivalence toward education in general Stepping into this void is a diverse group of educators intellectuals and businesspeople brought together in Civic Education and the Future of American Citizenship to grapple with the issue of civic illiteracy and its consequences The essays edited by Elizabeth Kaufer Busch and Jonathan W White force us to not only reexamine the goals of civic education in America but also those of liberal education more broadly
