Context and Method in Qualitative Research Gale Miller,Robert Dingwall,1997-06-11 A critical examination of the principles and practice of qualitative research is provided in this book which examines the interplay between context and method making it invaluable for both the experienced and the beginning researcher A range of methodological and practical issues central to the concerns of qualitative researchers are addressed These include the validity and plausibility of qualitative methods the problems encountered using specific techniques in a range of social settings and the moral issues raised in qualitative research These themes are related to practical issues which are illustrated by a breadth of examples and in depth case studies The contributors look at the methods and strategies that they have used to study everyday life and make suggestions to readers on why and how they might conduct their own studies They raise issues that go beyond cookbook discussions of issues such as how to enter social settings manage the subjects of one's research and ask good questions in the process of formulating research strategies These issues are addressed within the framework of the larger purposes and uses of qualitative research where specific methodological problems are not used as ends in themselves

Urban Regeneration, Community Power and the (In)Significance of 'Race' Paul J. Maginn, 2017-11-30 The concepts of community consultation and participation have come to dominate academic and policy debate about urban regeneration partnerships However there has been relatively little discussion about the nature of community power within regeneration partnerships Adopting an ethnographic approach in the study of community participation and power and the significance of race in three ethnically diverse neighbourhoods in London this book highlights that there has been a pluralistic turn in British urban regeneration policy Local communities often portrayed as the least powerful partner within partnerships are shown to use various strategies to influence decision making thus giving rise to a new typology of pluralism pragmatic hyper and paternalistic Furthermore the significance of race and racism within community forums and regeneration partnerships is challenged The playful use of the term In Significance in the title is linked to the argument that although racism exists race does not always matter
