When Hell Was In Session:

When Hell was in Session Jeremiah Andrew Denton (Jr.), Ed Brandt, 1976 Denton a Navy pilot recounts his experiences as a prisoner of war held in Hanoi's infamous Hanoi Hilton prison complex 1998 American Alpine Journal, The American Alpine Journal is internationally acknowledged as the world's finest mountain climbing journal. Published annually since 1929 the AAJ offers incisive accounts of the previous year's significant climbs. The 1998 AAJ covers hundreds of the most remarkable ascents around the world with first person accounts deftly drawn topos and dramatic photographs. In addition the AAJ's book reviews including reports on the Everest Tragedy books provide readers with insightful critiques of the year's climbing literature.

Honor Bound Stuart I. Rochester, Frederick T. Kiley, 1998 Honor Bound is the result of a fruitful collaboration between Stuart I. Rochester and Frederick Kiley. In examining the lives of the prisoners in captivity it presents a vivid sensitive sometimes excruciating account of how men sought to cope with the physical and psychological torment of imprisonment under wretched and shameful conditions. It includes insightful analyses of the circumstances and conditions of captivity and its varying effects on the prisoners, the strategies and tactics of captors and captives, the differences between captivity in North and South Vietnam and between Laos and Vietnam and analysis of the quality of the source materials for this and other works on the subject.

American POW Memoirs from the Revolutionary War through the Vietnam War Jon Alexander OP, 2007-02-01 Fourteen student papers from an undergraduate seminar examine American POW memoirs from the Revolutionary War through the Vietnam War. The focus of the student authors is on how American POWs have constructed narratives of their internments. The papers examine various styles of narration, characterization and plot construction and how the POW memoirs are framed with introductions, quotations, maps and illustrations. Overall these papers suggest that the contexts in which authors write POW memoirs may influence the character of the memoirs they write as much as the attributes of their POW experiences. American POW Memoirs is a unique collection of papers. This publication provides an example of how an undergraduate seminar might move from training students in scholarly practice to providing students a first experience as scholarly practitioners.

Captured: An American Prisoner of War in North Vietnam (Scholastic Focus) Alvin Townley, 2019-03-26 Alvin Townley a critically acclaimed author of adult nonfiction delivers a searing YA debut about American POWs during the Vietnam War. Naval aviator Jeremiah Denton was shot down and captured in North Vietnam in 1965. As a POW Jerry Denton led a group of fellow American prisoners in withstanding gruesome conditions behind enemy lines. They developed a system of secret codes and covert communications to keep up their spirits. Later he would endure torture and long periods of solitary confinement. Always Jerry told his fellow POWs that they would one day return home together. Although Jerry spent seven and a half years as a POW he did finally return home in 1973 after the longest and harshest deployment in US history. Denton's story is an extraordinary narrative of human resilience and endurance. Townley grapples with themes of perseverance, leadership and duty while also deftly portraying the deeply
