When No One Was Looking Rosemary Wells, 2012-11-20
Nothing and no one will stand in Kathy's way of winning the tennis championship. After all, winning is everything, or is it? Kathy Barty doesn't have the good looks and ease of her best friend Julia. She doesn't have the grades of her little sister Jody. What she has is tennis. Kathy's coach even says she's the most promising New England junior to come along in years. With tennis come trophies, free equipment, and tournament prize money, and all these things put Kathy on equal footing with pretty and well-heeled Julia. Then out of nowhere comes Ruth Gumm, an indifferent player Kathy should beat every time. But Kathy can't beat her. She loses her cool and her nerves every time Ruth is on the other side of the net. And Ruth is supposed to play Kathy in the first round of an important tournament, one that could lead to enormous future success for young Kathy Barty. Suddenly, Ruth is found drowned in a swimming pool. Is Kathy connected to Ruth's death? Was it just an accident, or had someone else stepped into the picture? This chilling mystery was named a runner-up for the Edgar Award from the Mystery Writers of America, an ALA Best Book for Young Adults, and a School Library Journal choice for Best Book for Young Adults. This ebook features an illustrated biography of Rosemary Wells, including rare images from the author's collection.

This book is not a list or an overview of various theories of ethics. Nor is it a didactic manual for specific teaching units on moral education aimed at some group based on age or a particular theme, although some educational frameworks will be proposed. As the title suggests, the book intends to seek the starting points or foundations without which no moral education would be possible. The goal is to formulate and tackle the key questions that precede all moral education: What makes good vs. evil language possible and meaningful? Can virtue be taught and learned? What makes our actions good? What is the condition of human nature? Are we naturally good or evil? What constitutes an educator's right to morally influence anyone else, not just a child? What is the goal of moral education? What does a morally educated person look like? And how can we ensure the coveted moral result? Or, in the words of Jan Amos Comenius, the teacher of nations: how to educate a person to not only know what is good but also to want what is good and to do what is good even when no one is looking.

Integrity.... When No One's Looking Marvin Soskil, 2022-05-04
We all have freedom of choice. Nobody is telling you what you must do. It is your conscience that you have to live with. As we look around us these days, do you notice how the world has changed? We went from better to worse, worse to horrific, and we're heading from horrific to dread. We can have the power to control situations only if we raise the levels of our own consciousness and get back to basics. Remember when we wore white shirts and black ties for assembly? When your parents told you to do something, you didn't ask why; you just did it. When No One is Looking is about bringing Integrity back into our lives and being more conscious of decisions we make and actions we take, which can make this a better world. The most influential tool we have in your entire arsenal is your integrity. Zig Zigler: Only a person with integrity has the ability to command a long time respect.
