Greenwashing in the Fashion Industry - The Flipside of the Sustainability Trend from the Perspective of Generation Z Sarah Linckens, Carmen Horn, Jens K. Perret, 2024-02-29 The sustainability trend of recent years is reflected in society's growing environmental awareness and the increasing promotion of green products and services in the market The flip side is that most advertisements and green branding originate from companies that still have a negative impact on the environment Therefore it is necessary to understand how greenwashing marketing campaigns are perceived despite increasing environmental awareness in society This study answers how greenwashing is perceived whether the perception differs depending on the degree of environmental consciousness and which effects the perception has In order to answer these questions a qualitative study via expert interviews with participants belonging to Gen Z has been conducted making specific reference to the Conscious Spring greenwashing campaign by H M The qualitative content analysis showed that the majority of participants recognized greenwashing through misleading word choice and contradictory actions that are advertised in the campaign Nevertheless there were also interviewees who were misled by the campaign The campaign had an effect on the participants' attitudes towards the brand both on their feelings and beliefs about the brand as well as on their behavioral intentions The findings are largely used to understand the advertising impact of greenwashing but they will also be helpful for sustainable clothing companies in creating green campaigns or for NGOs working to combat greenwashing and educate consumers

How to Get That Dream Job - Tips and Techniques to Impress Your Future Employers Dueep Jyot Singh, John Davidson, 2018-03-26 Table of Contents Introduction Getting the Right Look Code of Dress for Men Golden Speech CV And Portfolio Attitude during Your Interview The Interviewee Taking Charge Conclusion Author Bio Publisher Introduction May we get the jobs of our dreams Away from slave driver boss Away from tiresome clients Away from deadly deadlines Very very impressive pay packet Four day work week Vacations for two months every year Medical insurance retirement bonus 200% salary increase every Christmas Lead me to such a job But alas this is a pipe dream If you are an employer or a boss this book is not for you because you know everything about interviewing future employees You have been involved in a large number of interviews during your career as being the boss and throwing your weight around This book is for all of those people who are looking for their dream jobs and still do not manage to make the grade This book is of course written by a person who has been on the right side of the interviewing table a number of times so of course I can tell you all about the sort of questions asked to you by your employer and what they expect from you Sometimes you have to read the body language of the employer to see whether he is going of taking an interview just because he has to do so because he has already chosen the right candidate his wife's cousin's brother in law's nephew to be inducted in the firm right then And of course at the very beginning of my career I had to go through a large number of interviews so I can tell you about how best to ace your interview each time every time From Sweatshop to Fashion

Shop Jihye Kim, 2021-08-26 Since their arrival in the 1960s Korean immigrants in Argentina have been massively involved in the garment industry Nevertheless despite their decades long concentration in the same sector over time they have reshaped their motivations and business styles throughout the twists and turns of the host country's junctures Applying rigorous immigrant entrepreneurship theories yet wary of orthodoxies Kim examines the intriguing paths which Korean entrepreneurs have taken to develop their businesses in the Argentine garment industry amidst complex frantically volatile social and economic circumstances and argues for the application of a new approach that combines existing theories with historically contextual perspectives This unique case study on Korean immigrant entrepreneurship in Latin America represents a significant milestone in the fields of migration and Korean studies and a substantial contribution to bridging the gap between the North where such inquiries abound and the South where the history settlement and current status of Korean immigrants have been notoriously under examined Bewildering Borders

Werner Zips, Manuela Zips-Mairitsch, 2019 Transfrontier conservation challenges African borders the colonial scars of history The global tourism industry has discovered the potential of African borderlands for adventure travel Iconic animals and indigenous cultures are marketed in the same breath often evoking stereotypical images of Wild Africa Can ecotourism and ethno tourism be commended as viable panaceas for environmental protection and development The marketing of nature and culture raises important questions on the meaningful inclusion of local communities as tourism entrepreneurs Living museums and cultural villages are emerging as start ups of local communities They commodify ethnicity albeit on their own terms This volume debates the economy of conservation providing diverse perspectives on an issue of great contemporary relevance Graduate! Kristen M.
