Writing Out The Storm Journal Musings Of A Manic Depressive Wanderer:

Writing Out the Storm Rebecca M. Merriman, 2001-06 To everyone else she was a captivating woman and successful educator with a happy marriage She had an intriguing life as an author popular motivational speaker retreat leader and bohemian world wanderer Yet for two decades Rebecca Mitchell Merriman silently struggled through a raging roller coaster ride of hazardous highs and consuming depressions In Writing Out the Storm Journal Musings of a Manic Depressive Wanderer Merriman invites the reader into a private world where she often teeters on the brink of suicide feeling hopelessly guilty for not being able to simply snap out of it After a decade of secretly struggling through the storm of mental illness by age 33 the author was spending each summer alone high in her Rocky Mountain hideaway hiking writing and calming her increasingly shot nerves In spite of being elected Teacher of the Year by her peers during her second year her sixth and final year of teaching was spent mostly hiding in a tiny storage room afraid that too much exposure might clue in her students and fellow educators that something was dreadfully wrong with her After she quit teaching high school she wrote a book about of all things happiness and became a professional speaker and consultant on the illusive subject It s as if making happiness my life s work might somehow magically entitle me to it Finally at age 42 the author decided to seek medical help and went in for her psychological intake Exactly one year later she was transported handcuffed and humming in the back of a paddy wagon to a psychiatric facility for her first involuntary commitment It was the first of three back to back psychotic breakdowns each being worse than the last What went wrong This moving memoir of moods and madness follows the story of Merriman s long journey toward healing Arranged as a collection of essays which mix vivid vignettes from her past with deeply personal journal entries and present reflections on her battle with this crippling disease it describes with unflinching honesty how the storm of mental illness in spite of its recurrent euphorias almost swept her from the land of the living these essays are my brave act of vulnerability my honest attempt to convey the confusion and fear of this disease A love note to all my brothers and sisters who ve ever been locked up inside themselves raging against the storm tossed terrain of their broken brain A poignant and invaluable account of one woman s ultimate triumph over manic depressive illness Writing Out the Storm will bring hope to anyone tormented by the ravages of depression or bipolar illness

Living in Storms Thom Schramm, 2008 A collection of poems on manic depression edited by Thom Schramm Musings of a Mild Manic-Depressive Albert H. Saperstein, 1979-06-01 I Am the Storm Manic Depression Awareness David Micka, 2021-05-02 I Am The Storm Manic Depression Awareness h3
