How Writing Faculty Write Christine E. Tulley, 2018-04-09 In How Writing Faculty Write Christine Tulley examines the composing processes of fifteen faculty leaders in the field of rhetoric and writing revealing through in depth interviews how each scholar develops ideas conducts research drafts and revises a manuscript and pursues publication The book shows how productive writing faculty draw on their disciplinary knowledge to adopt attitudes and strategies that not only increase their chances of successful publication but also cultivate writing habits that sustain them over the course of their academic careers The diverse interviews present opportunities for students and teachers to extrapolate from the personal experience of established scholars to their own writing and professional lives Tulley illuminates a long unstudied corner of the discipline the writing habits of theorists researchers and teachers of writing Her interviewees speak candidly about overcoming difficulties in their writing processes on a daily basis using strategies for getting started and restarted avoiding writer s block finding and using small moments of time and connecting their writing processes to their teaching How Writing Faculty Write will be of significant interest to students and scholars across the spectrum graduate students entering the discipline new faculty and novice scholars thinking about their writing lives mid level and senior faculty curious about how scholars research and write historians of rhetoric and composition and metadisciplinary scholars Creative Writing Graeme Harper, Jeri Kroll, 2020-08-28 This stimulating edited collection focuses on the practice of revision across all creative writing genres providing a guide to the modes and methods of drafting revising and editing Offering an overview of how creative writing is generated and improved the chapters address questions of how creative writers revise why editing is such a crucial part of the creative process and how understanding the theories underpinning revision can enhance writers projects Innovative and thought provoking this book is ideal for undergraduate and postgraduate students of creative writing along with all creative writers looking to hone and polish their craft

Essentials of Assessment Report Writing W. Joel Schneider, Elizabeth O. Lichtenberger, Nancy Mather, Nadeen L. Kaufman, 2018-09-19 The bestselling guide to reporting writing updated and reworked for today s practice Essentials of Assessment Report Writing offers effective solutions to the creation of reader friendly yet targeted psychological and educational assessment reports Parents clinicians clients and other readers need more than test by test descriptions they need an accessible analysis of the entire situation to determine their next steps This book provides clear guidance for busy practitioners seeking ways to improve their report writing skills With a focus on current practice this new second edition covers DSM 5 updates and the latest assessment instruments including the WJ IV WISC V WAIS IV KTEA 3 and the CAS2 New discussion includes advice on tailoring the report to the audience and annotated case reports provide illustrative models of effective report styles interpretation and analysis Key concepts are highlighted for quick reference throughout and end of chapter questions help reinforce understanding Reporting styles vary widely within the field in both content and style there is no definitive standard but many reports fail to reflect best practices and therefore prove less than useful to the reader This book provides expert guidance throughout the reporting process to help practitioners provide high quality accessible reports Integrate assessment results to provide a person centered report Identify and navigate critical decision points in the interpretive process Write efficiently yet effectively while enhancing the reader s experience Provide an accurate informative and readable assessment report Incorporate practical recommendations to address the referral concerns Expertly conducted assessments should culminate with a carefully constructed analysis that provides direction via clear communication Because this report will be used to inform treatment intervention and ultimately the client's quality of life it is critical that it provides clear informative guidance in a way that readers can understand Essentials of Assessment Report Writing provides comprehensive guidelines for navigating through the report writing process The Naylor Report on Undergraduate Research in Writing Studies Dominic DelliCarpini, Jenn Fishman, 2020-04-03 The Naylor Report on Undergraduate Research in Writing Studies combines scholarly research with practical advice for practitioners of undergraduate research in writing studies including student researchers mentors and program administrators Building upon the 1998 Boyer Commission Report Reinventing Undergraduate Education this book provides insight into the growth of undergraduate research over the last twenty years Contributors demonstrate how undergraduate research serves students and their mentors as well as sponsoring programs departments and institutions The Naylor Report also illustrates how making research central to undergraduate education helps advance the discipline Organized in two parts Part I focuses on defining characteristics of undergraduate research in writing studies mentoring research methods contribution to knowledge and circulation Part II focuses on critical issues to consider such as access curriculum and institutional support ENGLISH ACROSS DISCIPLINES: Proceedings of the Applied Linguistics and Language Teaching Conference 2022 Contributors: , 2024-02-09 This volume contains a selection of articles that were originally presented at the Applied Linguistics and Language Teaching International Conference and Exhibition ALLT 2022 held at Zayed University Dubai United Arab Emirates in March 2022 The articles in this volume represent the diverse backgrounds experiences and research interests of the ALLT presenters They cover a range of theoretical empirical and pedagogical practices with a strong emphasis on language teaching While most of the papers focus on English language the findings and lessons are applicable to the teaching of any language This makes the volume an invaluable resource addressing important aspects of contemporary research topics and the pedagogy of language teaching

Writing Theology Well Lucretia B. Yaghjian, 2006-11-24 In its creative integration of the disciplines of writing rhetoric and theology Writing Theology Well provides a standard text for theological educators engaged in the teaching and mentoring of writing across the theological curriculum As a theological rhetoric it will also encourage excellence in theological writing in the public domain by helping to equip students for their wider vocations as writers preachers and communicators in a variety of ministerial and professional contexts Writing through Boyhood in the Long Eighteenth Century Chantel Lavoie, 2023-11-10 Writing through Boyhood in the Long Eighteenth Century explores how boyhood was constructed in different creative spaces that reflected the lived experience of young boys through the long eighteenth century not simply in children's literature but in novels poetry medical advice criminal broadsides and automaton exhibitions The chapters encompass such rituals as breeching learning to read and write and going to school They also consider the lives of boys such as chimney sweeps and convicted criminals whose bodily labor was considered their only value and who often did not live beyond boyhood Defined by a variety of tasks expectations and objectifications boys real imagined and sometimes both were subject to the control of their elders and were used as tools in the cause of civil society commerce and empire This book argues that boys in the long eighteenth century constituted a particular kind of currency both valuable and expendable valuable because of gender expendable because of youth
