Transforming Together Authentic Spiritual Mentoring:

Transforming Together Ele Parrott, 2009-05-01 Young women are crying out for someone older to care about them to help them Older women desire to be useful and productive Those who have invested years of walking with the Lord themselves desire to be teamed up with this generation of younger women who are yearning for someone to show them how to walk through life with genuine faith in Christ Transforming Together presents the model for genuine spiritual mentoring through the power and work of Christ in the lives of women faithfully pouring into one another Women both young and old will appreciate the dual focus on the roles of mentor and mentee Building on real life testimonies and her experience as a committed mentor Ele Parrott will guide women as they seek to walk with one another to greater faithfulness in Christ

Leading Women Who Wound Sue Edwards, Kelley Mathews, 2009-02-01 As more churches add women's ministry programs there is a growing need to address the issues that naturally arise as women minister alongside one another and to one another Given the fallen nature of the human heart as well as the complexities of personalities conflict is an inevitable aspect of ministry How do women deal with emotions when other women are insensitive manipulative or just plain mean What does the Bible tell us To be equipped for conflict women must understand and master strategies specifically related to conflict with other women Leading Women Who Wound shows women how to effectively deal with conflict within their ministries Seasoned women's ministry leaders themselves Sue Edwards and Kelley Mathews walk through several different aspects of conflict resolution including self examination identification of potential sources of conflict tools for conflict resolution and insight on how to prevent and move beyond conflict to minister to those who have been sources of contention Recognizing that not all conflict results in a happy ending Leading Women Who Wound gives the tools necessary to minister effectively and move forward with integrity

The Generative Church Cory Seibel, 2019-10-10 Virtually all churches aim to invest meaningfully in the faith development of the younger generations who have been entrusted into their care Some churches have a longstanding track record of faithfulness in living out this commitment Some lose sight of this priority over time and allow their intentionality to fade This book makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of children's youth and young adult ministries by appropriating Erik Erikson's concept of generativity the interest in establishing and guiding the next generation as a way of exploring congregational life Eleven accomplished authors representing five different countries provide diverse theological and cultural perspectives on key aspects of what it means for churches to invest intentionally in the faith development of the members of emerging generations Their chapters challenge us to think about the intergenerational dynamics of our churches the crucial partnership between church and parents and what it means to involve young people meaningfully in the life of the church The intriguing topics explored by this group of authors and the diverse contexts from which they write promise to broaden and enrich our thinking about caring for children youth and young adults as a vital responsibility shared by the entire congregation venues for making sense of the complicated apostle Paul are history and theology. Indeed, one cannot understand him apart from either. However, something is still missing from our portrait of Paul. Rather than thinking of Paul as a theologian and an apostle, Leslie Hardin argues there is great benefit in approaching him as a disciple, a Spirit-filled man who wanted to pass vibrant spirituality on to those he encountered. In The Spirituality of Paul, Hardin uncovers the things Paul practiced in his own life and those he taught his followers in order to attempt to live an authentic Spirit-filled Christian life. Hardin points out that in order to foster the power of the Spirit, Paul like each of us had to dedicate himself to everyday routines and practices. What were those spiritual disciplines? How did they help him? And how might they be applied in our modern lives to bring us closer to Christ? Whether a general reader or mature believer, the reader of this book will find Paul to be a true brother, a fellow sinner receiving grace.

Transforming the Rough Places Kenneth Pohly, 2016-09-25 The word supervision can have a negative connotation to those being supervised and leaders alike. You don't have to read very far in Transforming the Rough Places to realize that there is nothing negative about the supervision that Dr. Pohly describes. The result of years of research and experience, Dr. Pohly's method and rationale offer tools to make supervision a positive experience for all those involved. What he describes is a value-centered leadership style that focuses equally on the ministry or task to be done and the person doing the task. Practicing these skills in supervision can easily enhance all business, ministry, and personal relationships. Discover what it means to lead in a way that can be transformative for the individual and the institution.

Philosophy, Who Needs It? Jason D. Crowder, 2016-03-02 Too often skeptics charge Christians with having a blind faith Unfortunately believers have added fuel to the charges of skeptics by speaking of their faith illogically But the Christian faith is not a blind faith In fact biblical faith is never a blind irrational faith Christianity rests firmly on the stone that was rejected by the builders which has become the cornerstone Jesus Christ Acts 4 11 Living biblically requires thinking biblically just as to think biblically entails to live biblically as Winfried Corduan notes in the Foreword As followers of Christ believers cannot separate biblical thinking and biblical living These two behaviors are eternally connected not only in the person of Jesus Christ but they stem from the eternal being of God the Father and his eternal truth Christ mandates that his followers love God with their entire being heart soul mind and strength Mark 12 30 How are believers to go about living out this biblical mandate Christian faith is a warranted belief This is why it is so essential that Christians recognize the value and importance of philosophy and its proper place in Christendom and in the Christian s walk

Rediscovering the Spiritual Disciplines for Today's Ministry Leadership: A Journey of Proactive Spiritual Formation for Leaders Dr. Steve A. Maglio, 2021-10-29 Military chaplains are highly trained professionals with multiple graduate degrees and varying civilian pastoral experience They enter the chaplaincy after a rigorous selection process and military courses which all must verify their calling to military ministry Throughout a chaplain s career he or she will attend many continuing education seminars civilian education graduate programs and conferences all provided by the military However chaplains are challenged with the rigorous multitasked environment of this ministry Multiple deployments into combat have negatively impacted the personal lives of those seeking to care for the souls of the soldier This book encourages the importance of spiritual resiliency in the lives of leaders both military and civilian Leaders who regularly practice spiritual disciplines will be less likely to suffer personal and professional failure or burnout Second the leader s practice of spiritual disciplines is essential to fostering positive modeling and mentoring for young chaplains and those wishing to serve Third practicing historic Christian spiritual disciplines will benefit those who strive to lead congregations and especially military installations in the free exercise of their faith
