Organized Crime: A Compilation of U.N. Documents, 1975-1998 M. Cherif Bassiouni, Eduardo Vetere, 2023-09-20 The most sustained and penetrating study of the phenomenon of transnational organized crime was completed by various UN agencies in an ongoing project whose principal milestone is the 1997 Convention on Organized Crime This book presents all relevant texts in chronological order from 1975 to 1998 with additional material explaining the background of the project Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint

The Secret Power of Criminal Organizations Giovanni A. Travaglino, Lisbeth Drury, 2020-09-02 This Brief presents a social psychological approach to understanding the reaction of communities to organized crime and illegal groups Based on a new theoretical framework and the latest empirical evidence this book explores questions of how criminal organizations are able to gain power and exert governance over entire territories This book draws on the prototypical example of Italian organized crime and analyzes the thesis that the power of criminal groups is grounded in dynamics of legitimization rather than fear or coercion The compliance of a community is seen here as stemming from the endorsement of specific cultural values and norms These cultural values are actively appropriated mobilized and transmitted by criminal groups a dynamic the authors have labeled Intracultural Appropriation Theory The book emphasizes what can be learned from using this emerging theory in similar settings such as those of terrorist groups and violent gangs and points the way to solutions for this social problem

International Security Studies Peter Hough, Andrew Moran, Bruce Pilbeam, Wendy Stokes, 2015-02-20 This new textbook provides students with a comprehensive and accessible introduction to the subject of security studies with a strong emphasis on the use of case studies In addition to presenting the major theoretical perspectives the book examines a range of important and controversial topics in modern debates covering both traditional military and non military security issues such as proliferation humanitarian intervention food security and environmental security Unlike most standard textbooks the volume also offers a wide range of case studies including chapters on the USA China the Middle East Russia Africa the Arctic the Middle East Europe and Latin America providing detailed analyses of important global security issues The 34 chapters contain pedagogical features such as textboxes summary points and recommended further reading and are divided into five thematic sections Conceptual and Theoretical Military Security Non Military Security Institutions and Security Case Studies This textbook will be essential reading for all students of security studies and highly recommended for students of critical security studies human security peace and conflict studies foreign policy and International Relations in general Asian
