TRAVEL BOOK CUBA 30 DAYS Keep travel memories weekend TRAVELER S NOTEBOOK 30 days pages printed transport hotel camping budget shopping activities Four French Travelers in Nineteenth-century Cuba Yvon Joseph, 2008 The nineteenth century marks the apex of the travel genre This book focuses on the representation of Cuba by four French travelers to the island from 1810 to 1866 The travelogues of these voyagers allow their first hand experience to be considered under the mutual gaze involved in cross cultural encounters Four French Travelers in Nineteenth Century Cuba argues that politics and science as well as romanticism and commerce coalesce in the travelers representations of Cuban culture and institutions The travel accounts constitute exercises in how knowledge spreads and gathers as travelers attempt to entice other visitors to emulate them and forge identities for the Cuban Others they have encountered Publisher s description Fellow Travelers John Ochoa, 2021-09-24 Road trips loom large in the American imagination and stories from the road have been central to crafting national identities across North and South America Tales of traversing this vast geography with its singular landscape have helped foster a sense of American exceptionalism Examining three turning points that shaped exceptionalism in both Americas the late colonial and early Republican period expansion into the frontier and the Cold War John Ochoa pursues literary travelers across landscapes and centuries At each historical crossroads the nations of North and South invented or reinvented themselves in the shadow of empire Travel accounts from these periods offered master narratives that shaped the notion of America s postimperial future Fellow Travelers recounts the complex on the road relationships between travelers such as Lewis and Clark Alexander von Humboldt and Aim Bonpland Huckleberry Finn and Jim Kerouac s Sal Paradise and Dean Moriarty and the Che Guevara and Alberto Granado of The Motorcycle Diaries Such journeys reflect concerns far larger than their characters tensions between the voices of the rugged individual and the democratic many between the metropolis and the backcountry and between the intimate and the vast Working across national literatures Fellow Travelers offers insight into a shared process of national reinvention and the construction of modern national imaginaries This book is freely available in an open access edition thanks to TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem a collaboration of the Association of American Universities the Association of University Presses and the Association of Research Libraries and the generous support of the Pennsylvania State University A Collection of Voyages and Travels Thomas Osborne, 1747 Disruptive Learning Narrative Framework Manu Sharma, Andrew Allen, Awad Ibrahim, 2021-11-04 Written by scholars and educators based in Canada and the USA this book articulates and implements a new cutting edge theoretical framework entitled the disruptive learning narrative DLN The contributing authors analyze their experiences with international service learning students using DLN to uncover important lessons about race relations power and privilege They offer fresh insight on how DLN is useful in understanding and unpacking controversial teaching moments abroad and provide further reflections on how others can adapt the DLN framework to meet the contextual needs of their international educational experience The chapters offer case studies and learning from international service learning and study abroad programs in Canada China Columbia Cuba Kenya Tanzania and the USA The book provides essential knowledge and insights for educators who wish to address the inherent messiness and complexity of international experiences It will help educators and researchers to better understand the controversial and sensitive issues of race relations power and privilege dynamics

Being a Tourist Julia Diane Harrison, 2003 What feeds the impulse to explore new horizons What makes travel meaningful In Being a Tourist Julia Harrison explores the motivations of a large group of middle class travelers to find out why people invest their financial emotional psychological and physical resources in this activity She suggests that they are fueled by several desires to find intimacy and connection to express a personal aesthetic to explore the idea of home and to make sense of a globalized world Engagingly and thoughtfully written for readers of travel writing tourism studies anthropology cultural studies and sociology Being a Tourist goes beyond current debates about authenticity and consumption to analyze the nuanced moral and political complexity of privileged travel
