

The background of the entire image is a painting. It depicts a large, gnarled tree trunk, possibly a dead or dying tree, with a small figure of a person climbing it. The tree trunk is rendered in shades of brown, orange, and grey, with a rough, textured surface. The background is dark and moody, with swirling patterns in shades of blue, green, and black, suggesting a storm or a turbulent sea. The overall style is impressionistic or expressionistic.

Wisdom And Curriculum Christian Schooling After Postmodernity:

Wisdom and Curriculum Doug Blomberg, 2007 Blomberg presents an interpretation of essentially Christian schooling that challenges the conventional wisdom of both its advocates and critics In asserting that education should teach students to be discerning of the worldviews that are operative in their own education he strikes an important blow for the kind of Christian schooling he advocates as well as puncturing the oft held position that secular education is in and of itself values neutral He proffers the view that schools bringing their own values and beliefs forward in an explicit manner is the only authentic and honest way of proceeding At the heart of this position is his final dismantling of the validity of disjoining theory and practice

Wisdom and Curriculum Douglas G. Blomberg, 2003 Education for Hope John E Hull, 2023-01-28 This book traces the little known history of an alternative school system erected in Canada by post WWII Dutch Neo Calvinist immigrants In less than four decades this community established a kindergarten to university education system that extended from Ottawa Ontario to Victoria BC This remarkable tradition of education imagines the school as a dissident and transformational social institution While this book offers the narrative of faith based tradition of education the author makes a strong case that educators from diverse ideological backgrounds can learn important lessons from it about the implementation of an alternative educational vision teacher led curriculum reform and a self formative pedagogy To supplement this narrative the author also provides a separate set of theoretical discussions on key issues in school reform as well as his memoir as an educator and curriculum designer within this tradition Reimagining Christian Education Johannes M. Luetz, Tony Dowden, Beverley Norsworthy, 2018-07-04 This book is an arresting interdisciplinary publication on Christian education comprising works by leading scholars professionals and practitioners from around the globe It focuses on the integrated approaches to Christian education that are both theoretically sound and practically beneficial and identifies innovative pedagogical methods and tools that have been field tested and practice approved It discusses topics such as exploring programmes and courses through different lenses learning challenges and opportunities within organisational management theology of business Christian models of teaching in different contexts job preparedness developing different interpretive or meaning making frameworks for working with social justice people with disability non profit community organisations and in developing country contexts It offers graduate students teachers school administrators organisational leaders theologians researchers and education practitioners a fresh and inspiring reimagining of Christian education perspectives and practices and the ramifications of their application to life long learning Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education

The Faithful Librarian Garrett B. Trott, 2019-09-18 What do Christianity and librarianship have in common Netherlands Prime Minister and theologian Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 was among the first in the modern era to attempt to rejoin the dichotomy of sacred vs secular study when he said no single piece of our mental world is to be hermetically sealed off from the rest Over the years a number of publications have followed Kuyper s lead yet little has been written on the subject since Greg A Smith s notable Christian Librarianship 2002 Building on Smith s work this volume seeks to bridge the sacred secular divide with an exploration of how Christianity and the gospel are manifested through the profession of librarianship
