Women And Politics In Iran Veiling Unveiling And Reveiling:

Women and Politics in Iran Hamideh Sedghi, 2007-07-09 Why were urban women veiled in the early 1900s unveiled from 1936 to 1979 and reveiled after the 1979 revolution This question forms the basis of Hamideh Sedghi s original and unprecedented contribution to politics and Middle Eastern studies Using primary and secondary sources Sedghi offers new knowledge on women s agency in relation to state power In this rigorous analysis she places contention over women at the centre of the political struggle between secular and religious forces and demonstrates that control over women s identities sexuality and labor has been central to the consolidation of state power Sedghi links politics and culture with economics to present an integrated analysis of the private and public lives of different classes of women and their modes of resistance to state power

Veiled Voices in Postrevolutionary Iranian Cinema Raha Shojaei, 2025-06-09 This book examines the vocal presence of women in postrevolutionary Iranian cinema The research explores the concept of the veiled voice which conceals the bodily aspects of the voice and suppresses its discursive elements Studying the veiling of women s voices in New Iranian Cinema how they relate to authoritative voices and their limitations in cinematic spaces the book addresses the detachment of women s voices from their bodies in some films The book argues that this detachment is often used as a feminist strategy to bypass constraints on female portrayal on camera The book dissects how these voices are often marginalized within the cinematic space either structurally narratively or due to patriarchal adherence It also discusses the concept of the acousmatic voice particularly in the context of Iranian cinema where the female voice off is used as a spatial veil contributing to the marginalization of women Although Michael Chion s concept of the acousm tre is based on classic Hollywood cinema this book shows that the mere presence of an off screen voice does not ensure a predictable impact in the filmic world In New Iranian Cinema influenced by factors like modesty rules the off screen voice untethered to a body can serve as a presentational strategy rather than just a cinematic narrational device The book also investigates the unveiling of the female voice as a subject of aesthetic admiration and desire within the cinematic realm navigating censorship through religious and cinematic elements and explores how cinematic spaces manipulate the presence and embodiment of the unveiled voice to avoid revealing its true source The book is also informed by the author s experience as the first woman sound designer working in the Iranian film industry

Anti-Veiling Campaigns in Turkey Sevgi Adak, 2022-02-24 The veiling and unveiling of women have been controversial issues in Turkey since the late Ottoman period It was with the advent of local campaigns against certain veils in the 1930s however that women s dress turned into an issue of national mobilisation in which gender norms would be redefined In this comprehensive analysis of the anti veiling campaigns in interwar Turkey Sevgi Adak casts light onto the historical context within which the meanings of veiling and unveiling in Turkey were formed By shifting the focus from the high politics of the elite to the implementation of state policies the book situates the anti veiling campaigns as a space where the Kemalist reforms were negotiated compromised and resisted by societal actors Using previously unpublished archival material Adak reveals the intricacies of the Kemalist modernisation process and provides a nuanced reading of the gender order established in the early republic by looking at the various ways women responded to the anti veiling campaigns A major contribution to the literature on the social history of modern Turkey the book provides a complex analysis of these campaigns which goes beyond a simple binary between liberation and oppression Veiled Figures Teresa Heffernan,2016-01-01 Islam the Enlightenment and the veil The great whore of Babylon cosmopolitanism and racialized nationalism Two western women venture east Lady Annie Brassey and Anna Bowman Dodd The Great War and its aftermath militarized citizens un veiled bodies and the nation The burqa and the bikini veiling and unveiling at the turn of the twenty first century *The I.B.
