Women Building Peace What They Do Why It Matters:

Women Building Peace Sanam Naraghi Anderlini, 2022 A comprehensive cross regional analysis of the successes and problems associated with women's peacebuilding initiatives around the world Building Peace from Within Maphosa, Sylvester B., DeLuca, Laura, Keasley, Alphonse, 2014-02-07 This book seeks to examine how successful models of building peace from within in the African context function It draws emerging lessons to provide critical recommendations on policy practice and academia our primary audience While there are numerous examples of failures of conflict resolution in Africa shown by intractable conflict axes less attention is paid to successes While acknowledging the challenges that exist this edited volume provides positive examples of building peace from within in fragile contexts through many forms of initiatives and actions at different levels community based through individual and or collective local peace initiatives government through ministries and or departments and regional through external and or multilateral infrastructure for peace As a guiding principle the notion of building peace from within draws from the idea of community regeneration which describes voluntary and peaceful activities of grassroots actors that reflect their broader interests of building peaceful communities and existence Building Peace Laura J. Shepherd, 2018-10-11 Moving seamlessly from the global to the local from the politics of institutions to the theoretical apparatus through which we analyse peace and security governance the contributions to this volume draw attention to the operations of gendered power in peacebuilding across diverse contexts and explore the possibilities of gender sensitive sustainable peace The authors have wide ranging expertise in gendered analysis of the peacebuilding practices of international and national organisation detailed and complex qualitative analysis of the gendered politics of peacebuilding in specific country contexts and feminist analysis of the tools we use to think with when approaching contemporary debates about peacebuilding The volume thus serves not only as a useful marker of the development of feminist encounters with peacebuilding but also as a foundation for future scholarship in this area This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Peacebuilding International Peacebuilding Alpaslan Ozerdem, SungYong Lee, 2015-12-14 International Peacebuilding offers a concise practical and accessible introduction to the growing field of peacebuilding for students and practitioners This new textbook comprises three parts each dealing with a key aspect of peacebuilding Part I defines the core concepts and theoretical discussions that provide the philosophical grounds for contemporary peacebuilding activities Part II divides the procedures of peacebuilding into three phases and examines some of the important features of each phase Part III examines the key areas of the practice of peacebuilding The volume approaches peacebuilding from the viewpoints of individual actors or institutions introducing a range of theoretical discussions with which students can critically examine contemporary peacebuilding practice as well as presenting detailed case studies for key issues highlighted in the text In doing so the book aims to provide more concrete ideas on how peacebuilding programmes are planned and implemented in the field and which major issues should be addressed by peacebuilding practitioners This book will be essential reading for all students of peacebuilding conflict transformation and post conflict reconstruction and recommended reading for students of international organisations international security and IR in general Transnational Actors in War and Peace David Malet, Miriam J. Anderson, 2017-06-01 Transnational Actors in War and Peace provides a comparative examination of a range of transnational actors who have been key to the conduct of war and peace promotion and of how they interact with states and each other It explores the identities organization strategies and influence of transnational actors involved in contentious politics armed conflict and peacemaking While the study of transnational politics has been a rapidly growing field to date the disparate actors have not been analyzed alongside each other making it difficult to develop a common theoretical framework or determine their influence on international security This book brings together a diverse set of scholars focused on a range of transnational actors such as foreign fighters terrorists private military security companies religious groups diasporas NGOs and women s peace groups Malet and Anderson provide the standard for future study of transnational actors in this work intended for those interested in security studies international relations conflict resolution and global governance Gender and Peacebuilding Claire Duncanson, 2016-05-27 Gender and Peacebuilding offers a comprehensive and up to date analysis of how and why gender matters in contemporary peace operations It draws on a wide range of examples from across the world to offer a nuanced account of the UNs attempts to mainstream gender into peace operations via Security Council Resolution 1325 and assesses the successes and failures of this effort to enhance the participation and protection of women and girls in peacebuilding operations In presenting this mixed picture of progress and ongoing challenges the book argues for bold steps forward that will enable peacebuilding to contest the current neoliberal order address structural inequalities and bring about feminist visions of peace and security It is only by focusing attention on the economic empowerment of women and its ability to temper the dangers of neo liberalism in post conflict contexts that feminists can hope to achieve these aims Timely critical and engaged this book provides an invaluable guide to the issues for students of peace and conflict studies and sets the agenda for future scholarship and advocacy Black Women and International Law Jeremy I. Levitt, 2015-04-30 From Compton to Cairo Bahia to Brixton black women have been disproportionately affected by poverty illiteracy unemployment discrimination and violence Despite being one of the largest and geographically dispersed groups in the world they are rarely referenced or considered as a subject of analysis in international law literature Thus it is vital that scholars refashion global discourse by re conceptualizing international law and relations from their unique experiences and perspectives This collection covers a broad range of topics and issues that examine the complex interactions as subjects and objects between black women and international law The book critically explores the manifold relationship between them with a view toward highlighting the historic and contemporary ways in which they have influenced and been influenced by transnational law doctrine norms jurisprudence public policy public discourse and global governance It purports to unearth old law and fashion new paradigms born out of the experiences of black women Gender, UN Peacebuilding, and the Politics of Space Laura J. Shepherd, 2017-08-02 The United Nations Peacebuilding Commission UNPBC was established in December 2005 to develop outlines of best practice in post conflict reconstruction and to secure the political and material resources necessary to assist states in transition from conflict to peacetime Currently the organization is involved in reconstruction and peacebuilding activities in six countries Yet a 2010 review by permanent representatives to the United Nations found that the hopes of the UN peacebuilding architecture despite committed and dedicated efforts had yet to be realized Two of these hopes relate to gender and power specifically that peacebuilding efforts integrate a gender perspective and that the Commission consult with civil society NGOs and women's organizations This book is the first to offer an extensive and dedicated analysis of the activities of the UN Peacebuilding Commission with regard to both gender politics broadly conceived and the gendered dynamics of civil society participation in peacebuilding activities Laura J Shepherd draws upon original fieldwork that she conducted at the UN to argue that the gendered and spatial politics of peacebuilding not only feminizes civil society organizations but also perpetuates hierarchies that privilege the international over the domestic realms The book argues that the dominant representations of women gender and civil society in UN peacebuilding discourse produce spatial hierarchies that paradoxically undermine the contemporary emphasis on bottom up governance of peacebuilding activities

Routledge Handbook of International Relations in the Middle East Shahram Akbarzadeh, 2019-03-26 This handbook examines the regional and international dynamics of the Middle East It challenges the state society dichotomy to make sense of decision making and behavior by ruling regimes The 33 chapter authors include the world's leading scholars of the Middle East and International Relations IR in order to make sense of the region This synthesis of area studies expertise and IR theory provides a unique and rigorous account of the region's current dynamics which have reached a crisis point since the beginning of the Arab Spring The Middle East has been characterized by volatility for more than a century Although the region attracts significant scholarly interest IR theory has rarely been used as a tool to understand events The constructivist approach in IR highlights the significance of state identity shaped by history and culture in making sense of international relations The authors of this volume consider how IR theory can elucidate the patterns and principles that shape the region in order to provide a rigorous account of the contemporary challenges of the Middle East The Routledge Handbook of International Relations in the Middle East provides comprehensive coverage of International Relations issues in the region Thus it offers key resources for researchers and students interested in International Relations and the Middle East

Co-operation, Contestation and Complexity in Peacebuilding Nadine Ansorg,Eleanor Gordon,2020-12-30 Security Sector Reform SSR remains a key feature of peacebuilding interventions and is usually undertaken by a state alongside national and international partners External actors engaged in SSR tend to follow a normative agenda that often has little regard for the context in post conflict societies Despite recurrent criticism SSR practices of international organisations and bilateral donors often remain focused on state institutions and often do not sufficiently attend to alternative providers of security or existing normative frameworks of security This edited collection explores three aspects that add an important piece to the puzzle of what constitutes effective Security Sector Reform SSR First the variation of norm adoption norm contestation and norm imposition in post conflict countries that might explain the mixed results in terms of peacebuilding Second the multitude of different security actors within and beyond the state which often leads to multiple patterns of co operation and contestation within reform programmes Third how both the multiplicity of and tension between norms and actors further complicate efforts to build peace or as complexity theory would posit influence the complex and non linear social system that is the conflict affected environment The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Intervention and Statebuilding

Peacebuilding, Memory and Reconciliation Bruno Charbonneau,Genevieve Parent,2013-06-17 This book aims to bridge the gap between what are generally referred to as top down and bottom up approaches to peacebuilding After the experience of a physical and psychological trauma the period of individual healing and recovery is intertwined with political and social reconciliation The prospects for social and political reconciliation are undermined when a top down approach is favoured over the bottom up strategy the prioritization of structural stability over societal well being Peacebuilding Memory and Reconciliation explores the inextricable link between psychological recovery and socio political reconciliation and the political issues that dominate this relationship Through an examination of the construction of social narratives about or for peace the text offers a new perspective on peacebuilding which challenges and questions the very nature of the dichotomy between top down and bottom up approaches This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies social psychology political science and IR in general

Violence, Transformation, and The Sacred: "They shall be called Children of God" Margaret Pfeil and Tobias L. Winright,2012

Gender and Women's Leadership Karen O'Connor,2010-08-18 These volumes provide an authoritative reference resource on leadership issues specific to women and gender with a focus on positive aspects and opportunities for leadership in various domains

Urban Safety and Peacebuilding Achim Wennmann,Oliver Jütersonke,2018-12-07 This volume draws together original research related to conceptual and practical advances at the interface of urban safety and peacebuilding The book reflects the advances in urban safety and peacebuilding to help address the rapidly increasing risk of conflict and insecurity in cities. Specifically, it draws on contributions to the Technical Working Group on the Confluence of Urban Safety and Peacebuilding Practice, an informal expert network co-facilitated by the United Nations Office at Geneva, UN Habitat's Safer Cities Programme and the Geneva Peacebuilding Platform. A focus on sustaining peace serves as a framework for situating new policy responses against conflict, violence and exclusion in the city and for promoting a conversation across disciplinary and specialist silos. The volume thereby broadens the optic of peacebuilding practice beyond interstate and intrastate armed conflicts and especially their aftermath and reconnects it to the community level origins of building peace. The analysis and practice presented here will remind those willing to work towards peaceful and inclusive cities that there are tried and tested approaches available and a host of experts and practitioners ready to accompany those prepared to lead in their respective contexts. This book will be of interest to students and researchers in the fields of peacebuilding, urban studies, security studies and international relations.
