In The Vintage Book of African American Poetry editors Michael S Harper and Anthony Walton present the definitive collection of black verse in the United States 200 years of vision struggle power beauty and triumph from 52 outstanding poets From the neoclassical stylings of slave born Phillis Wheatley to the wistful lyricism of Paul Lawrence Dunbar the rigorous wisdom of Gwendolyn Brooks the chiseled modernism of Robert Hayden the extraordinary prosody of Sterling A Brown the breathtaking expansive narratives of Rita Dove the plaintive rhapsodies of an imprisoned Elderidge Knight The postmodern artistry of Yusef Komunyakaa Here too is a landmark exploration of lesser known artists whose efforts birthed the Harlem Renaissance and the Black Arts movements and changed forever our national literature and the course of America itself Meticulously researched thoughtfully structured The Vintage Book of African American Poetry is a collection of inestimable value to students educators and all those interested in the ever evolving tradition that is American poetry The Cambridge Companion to American Civil Rights Literature Julie Armstrong,2015-03-02 This Companion brings together leading scholars to examine the significant traditions genres and themes of civil rights literature Wound Building

Danny Hayward,2021 Wound Building is a volume of essays with digressions on one group of contemporary poets active in a self organizing political poetry scene in the UK most of whom have little to no audience outside of the little magazines that they publish and the reading series they put on The book is a front line report on the rapid development of this poetry in the period between 2015 and 2020 with a particular focus on the relationship of poetry to violence and its representation The poets discussed here write violent love poems and violent elegies as well as violent fantasies composed in stabs of violent verse and violet prose The poems themselves comprise fantasies of killing David Cameron dreams of being split open along a seam basement songs hundreds of pages of notes on working life in a privatized care home in Hove East Sussex a four line slogan about the Cologne groping scandal of New Year 2016 variations on the Refugees Medical Phrasebook a life wasted in a factory in Guangzhou an autobiographical sci fi internet fever dream an anarchist elegy and a refusal to argue Ultimately Hayward argues that the lessons this poetry teaches is never to write a worthy narrative when a fucked up collage will do Rather than a cohesive account of a school of poets or a contribution to the boring tittle tattle of aesthetic debates over British poetry as an institution Wound Building is a front line report on the local disasters of a contemporary UK poetry caught in the grip of the historical cataclysm of capitalist culture Wound Building is further concerned with aesthetic problems related to Marxism anarchism contemporary trans politics and class though its theoretical preoccupations are subordinated to its desire to provide a ground level view on the writing itself its production its intellectual aporia and the ways it finds itself outstripped by the ongoing march of events The book will be of interest not only for those concerned with contemporary British political and experimental poetry but also more generally for anyone who wishes to think carefully about what it means to make art about present day history and its many horrible enormities The book s title is derived from the idea of sublime woundedness that subtends the context of the poets discussed here the impressions of wounds opening up like LED lit shopfronts in the night in a parallel universe in which injury is intoxicatingly impersonal and structural and which forms the environment in which the poems fight to absolutize the value of every last breath or face into the reality of extravagantly violent wish fulfillment or dissolve themselves in a search for new ways of professing love or transform into a kind of expressionism of vomiting up medical diagnostic categories found in abstract social labor or pump their verses full of the convulsive rhythms of surprise and sudden relief without any guarantee that this is the right thing to do or that anyone will even fucking hear Wound Building does not historicize this state of affairs as much as it attempts to live alongside the immediacy of this work in order to see what is still possible for poetry and criticism to make and do
