Transforming Faith Individual And Community In H Richard Niebuhr:

Transforming Faith Joshua Leonard Daniel, 2015-09-09 In the face of apparently rampant individualism there has been a steady call for a return to community and tradition particularly in religious communities and in recent Christian theology and ethics The form of contemporary life upheld by modern ideals like freedom and universalism the story goes turns out to divide people from each other and from the communal sources of our traditionally moral values But the call to community too often confuses individualism with individuality assuming that any appeal to individuality as a value or ideal is a rejection of communal goods rather than a mode of promoting those goods What s necessary now is a recovery of the individual that understands individuality to serve community even in resistance to it In Transforming Faith Joshua Daniel offers a fresh reading of H Richard Niebuhr s theological ethics that provides an account of individuality and individual creativity as both the fruits and reformers of community What is theologically at stake in Daniel s reconstructive interpretation is the human s existentially resonant relation with God and the christological revitalization of our symbolic and virtuous activity Under the Spell of Freedom Hans Joas, 2024 In Under the Spell of Freedom Hans Joas deconstructs the grand Hegelian narrative of human history as the self realization of the idea of freedom setting as a counterpart the sketches of a theory of the emergence of moral universalism He takes the classical views of Hegel and his emphasis on the role of Protestant Christianity and the extremely negative views about Christianity in the work of the philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche to elaborate on this new understanding of religion and freedom which encompasses a range of intellectual traditions and avoids Eurocentrism Joas answers the empirical question of when where why and how such a moral universalism emerged and developed Differences in Identity in Philosophy and Religion Lydia Azadpour, Sarah Flavel, Russell Re aktuellen ethischen Herausforderungen Verantwortungsethik ist spätestens seit den kirchlichen und theologischen Auseinandersetzungen um die Flüchtlingspolitik erneut ein stark diskutiertes und umstrittenes Themenfeld. Martin, 2008-09-11. Faith Negotiating Loyalties draws readers into the world of Christian faith in South Africa and the question of loyalties in the new post apartheid state. It carries out its investigation in two parts. Part one examines Christian faith and loyalty during the first nation building exercise following the South African War, positioning the creation and contestation of three Christianities corresponding to three nationalisms, each of which imagined South Africa in a particular way, shaping faith accordingly. The idea of an undifferentiated South African Christianity gives way to contesting and contested Christianities; nationalism gives way to nationalisms and faith emerges in tension with and in criticism of these loyalties. Part two discusses the American theologian H. Richard Niebuhr in South Africa. Three kinds of faith in his writings are set forth: social faith, racial faith, and reconstructing faith. Contextualized within the South African story, Niebuhr's ideas suggest self and society as constituted by hybridities and suspended in a web of loyalties. Faith Negotiating Loyalties suggests the message for faith in a post apartheid South Africa is the importance of negotiating covenants which allow for crossings, hybridities and contestations.

Theology of Culture in a Japanese Context Atsuyoshi Fujiwara, 2012-07-01. In dialogue with H. Richard Niebuhr, John Howard Yoder and Stanley Hauerwas, this work examines Japanese culture, suffering and three theologians: Kazoh Kitamori, Yasuo Furuya and Hideo Ohki.
