Different* Andreas Boskugel, 2015-03-25 Think Different is a different kind of self-help book. The author, Andreas Boskugel, is well known in Europe and appreciated for his clear and direct manner. Boskugel has taken the law of attraction to its systematic and logical conclusion. This book is completely free of otherwise typical references to moral or religious standards because the law of attraction, like all natural laws, isn't based on morality or religion. Consequently, the author has a very different take than do others on success. For example, he doesn't idolize hard work, honesty, and gratitude as absurd, for these are only religious and cultural based opinions and actually contradict the law of attraction. The author also forgoes otherwise typical teachings about what is right or wrong; after all, what is right is individually defined. Feigned pity or morality sermons are also not included in this work. This work is for those who love the integrity of the law of attraction and prefer clarity over political correctness. And it's for those who really want to get somewhere in life and who therefore question existing opinions. It's for people who are able to think on their own instead of going with the flow. For many, it was not until reading this book that they finally understood the law of attraction. For the topics in this book are more logically organized than in other popular works, and insights are offered that can dramatically improve the lives of readers. Completely new insights about the existing laws of life can help readers become invincible masters of their own destiny. Keywords: Law of Attraction, Self-Help, Success, Wealth, Dream, Wish, Fulfillment, Love, Relationship, Money. Liturgical-Missional Neal D. Presa, 2016-02-10 What is the nature and purpose of the church for a twenty-first century world? What is the church's calling in an age of globalization? Twenty-one pastors and theologians in the Reformed tradition offer insightful perspectives by bringing into conversation the treasures of liturgical and missional theology. These authors see the church's essential character to be as worshipping, witnessing communities gathered and sent by the triune God. Topics that are explored include the relationship between worship and mission, baptism and the Eucharist, the formative role of community, the catholicity and ecumenicity of the church, multiculturalism and hymnody. Thinking Utopia Jörn Rüsen, Michael Fehr, Thomas W. Rieger, 2006-12-01 After the breakdown of socialist and communist systems in the East, it had become fashionable to declare the so-called end of utopia, end of history, end of narratives. The authors of this volume do not share this view but think that it is time to rehabilitate utopian thought. The political concept of Utopia that has given its name to these transcendental projections onto the world has been too narrow to describe and analyze the moving forces of the mind perceiving human existence beyond reality. By broadening the perspectives of utopian studies, these essays enable the reader to reconstruct scholarly paradigms and strategies of utopian, complex and holistic thinking in modern cosmology, philosophy, sociology, in literary, historical and political sciences, and to compare traditions and ways of Western utopian

thought to the practice in the East
