The Author in Criticism Elio Attilio Baldi, 2020-03-11 The Author in Criticism Italo Calvino's Authorial Image in Italy the United States and the United Kingdom explores the cultural and historic patterns and differences in the critical readings of Italian author Italo Calvino's works in the United States of America the United Kingdom and Italy It considers the external factors that contribute to create recognizable patterns in the readings of Calvino's texts in different contexts This volume therefore covers most notably matters of genre science fiction postmodernism cultural perceptions and conventions the recurrent image of the author in different media academic schools curricula and canons biographical information such as gender and background and translation and the language in which the author speaks or fails to speak to us It traces the influence of these aspects in the academic discourse on Calvino The Author in Criticism also analyzes Calvino's various professional roles as writer editor essayist journalist private correspondent and public cosmopolitan intellectual reappraising their often little acknowledged importance for academic criticism An important underlying idea is that the preconceived image that every critic has of Calvino before even opening one of his books is often solidified and repeated even in the most refined and complex critical analyses This volume purposefully foregrounds the textual and non textual parts that are usually considered peripheral to the works of an author such as book covers blurbs reviews talks interviews etc In this way this book provides insight into the reception of Calvino's works in different countries Moreover it forms a broader reflection of and on important constants in the workings of literary criticism and on the way academic discourses have developed in various cultural contexts over the last decades

Rethinking Race and Identity in Contemporary British Fiction Sara Upstone, 2016-10-04 This book takes a post racial approach to the representation of race in contemporary British fiction reimagining studies of race and British literature away from concerns with specific racial groups towards a more sophisticated analysis of the contribution of a broad post racial British writing Examining the work of writers from a wide range of diverse racial backgrounds the book illustrates how contemporary British fiction rather than merely reflecting social norms is making a radical contribution towards the possible future of a positively multi ethnic and post racial Britain This is developed by a strategic use of the realist form which becomes a utopian device as it provides readers with a reality beyond current circumstances yet one which is rooted within an identifiable world Speaking to the specific contexts of British cultural politics and directly connecting with contemporary debates surrounding race and identity in Britain the author engages with a wide range of both mainstream and neglected authors including Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Julian Barnes John Lanchester Alan Hollinghurst Martin Amis Jon McGregor Andrea Levy Bernardine Evaristo Hanif Kureishi Kazuo Ishiguro Hari Kunzru Nadeem Aslam Meera Syal Jackie Kay Maggie Gee and Neil Gaiman This cutting edge volume explores how contemporary fiction is at the centre of re thinking how we engage with the question of race in twenty first century Britain

Dress, Dreams, and Desire Valerie Steele, 2025-10-30 What can psychoanalysis tell us about the power and allure of fashion

Valerie Steele author of Dress Dreams and Desire was described by critic Suzy Menkes as the Freud of fashion In this pathbreaking book the first cultural history of fashion and psychoanalysis Steele does not merely hold a mirror up to fashion's surface she looks into its soul A renowned fashion historian Steele draws on key psychoanalytic concepts about the body sexuality and the unconscious from the dream theories of Freud and Jung to Lacan's mirror stage and Anzieu's skin ego to interpret the work of designers such as Elsa Schiaparelli Gianni Versace and Alexander McQueen She explores how fashion is the lens through which we see ourselves and how others see us Far from being superficial fashion can be regarded as a deep surface that communicates our unconscious desires and anxieties with none of us fully aware of what we are saying with the clothes we wear
