Marshall Plan Modernism Jaleh Mansoor, 2016-09-02 Focusing on artwork by Lucio Fontana Alberto Burri and Piero Manzoni Jaleh Mansoor demonstrates and reveals how abstract painting especially the monochrome broke with fascist associated futurism and functioned as an index of social transition in postwar Italy Mansoor refuses to read the singularly striking formal and procedural violence of Fontana's slit canvasses Burri's burnt and exploded plastics and Manzoni's achromes as metaphors of traumatic memories of World War II Rather she locates the motivation for this violence in the history of the medium of painting and in the economic history of postwar Italy Reconfiguring the relationship between politics and aesthetics Mansoor illuminates how the monochrome's reemergence reflected Fontana Burri and Manzoni's aesthetic and political critique of the Marshall Plan's economic warfare and growing American hegemony It also anticipated the struggles in Italy's factories classrooms and streets that gave rise to Autonomia in the 1960s Marshall Plan Modernism refigures our understanding of modernist painting as a project about labor and the geopolitics of postwar reconstruction during the Italian Miracle

Architecture of Control Grant Vetter, 2012-12-06 Through six meditations on the ideology of architecture Grant Vetter is able to give us an entirely new set of coordinates for understanding social control in the twenty first century Moving between historical precedents in the east and the west Vetter's work reveals a hybrid order of architectural power that acts on subjectivity from within rather than without Whether characterized as a process of indo colonization social ionization or a sub atomizing social physics Vetter's account of architectural subjectivation requires a complete rethinking of power knowledge as invested in producing perfected subjects rather than normative ones This new paradigm can be described as a sovereign power in as much as it acts directly on the body through interrogatory discipline interrogatory informatics modulated in individualism auto affective attunement and incentivizing injunctions As a critical rejoinder to the discourse of Panopticism The Architecture of Control is essential reading for everyone who is interested in new modes of resistance to the designs of biopower and imperial democracy

Preliminary Materials for a Theory of the Young-Girl Tiqqun, 2012-06-22 A theoretical dissection of capitalism's ultimate form of merchandise the living spectacle of the Young Girl The Young Girl is not always young more and more frequently she is not even female She is the figure of total integration in a disintegrating social totality from Theory of the Young Girl First published in France in 1999 Preliminary Materials for a Theory of the Young Girl dissects the impossibility of love under Empire The Young Girl is consumer society's total product and model citizen whatever type of Young Girl she may embody whether by whim or concerted performance she can only seduce by consuming Filled with the language of French women's magazines rooted in Proust's figure of Albertine and the amusing misery of teenage romance in Witold Gombrowicz's Ferdydurke and informed by Pierre Klossowski's notion of living currency and libidinal economy Preliminary Materials for a Theory of the Young Girl diagnoses and makes visible a phenomenon that is so ubiquitous as to have become transparent In the years since the book's first publication in French the worlds of fashion shopping seduction plans makeover projects and eating disorders have moved beyond the comparatively tame domain of paper magazines into the perpetual accessibility of Internet culture Here the Young Girl can seek her own reflection in corporate universals and social media exchanges of personalities within the impersonal realm of the marketplace Tracing consumer society s colonization of youth and sexuality through the Young Girl s freedom in magazine terms to do whatever she wants with her body Tiqqun exposes the rapaciously competitive and psychically ruinous landscape of modern love

Now The Invisible Committee,2018-05-11 A new political critique from the authors of The Coming Insurrection calling for a destituent process of outright refusal and utter indifference to government Now is the phantom chapter to the Invisible Committee s previous book To Our Friends a new critique from the anonymous collective that establishes their opposition to the world of capital and its law of labor addresses current anti terrorist rhetoric and the ferocious repression that comes with it and clarifies the end of social democracy and the growing rumors of the need for a coming civil war Now emerges at a time when the Invisible Committee s contestation has found echoes throughout the West with a collapse of trust in the police an inept weariness on the part of the political system a growing urgency for opposition a return of the theme of the Commune a vanishing distinction between radicals and citizens and a widespread refusal on the part of the citizen to be governed As farcical political elections continue to unfold worldwide like a line of tumbling dominoes and governments increasingly struggle to reclaim a legitimacy that has already slipped out of their grasp Now clarifies the Invisible Committee s attitude toward all such elections and their outcome one of utter indifference Now proposes a destituent process that charts out a different path to be taken a path of outright refusal that simply ignores elections altogether It is a path that calls for taking over the world and not taking power for exploring new forms of life and not a new constitution and for desertion and silence as alternatives to proclamations and crashes It is also a call for an unprecedented communism a communism stronger than nation and country
