Why Not Today Trafficking Slavery The Global Church And You:

Why Not Today Matthew Cork, Kenneth Kemp, 2013-06-24 In a hotel room in Bangalore a California pastor wrestles with God and himself I draw in a long slow breath of Indian air The room is dark and still I have only one thing more to say Lord I am in I am so in When Matthew Cork lead pastor of a church in a comfortable corner of Orange County first encountered the Dalit untouchable people of India on a visit to Hyderabad he was shaken to his core Children begging at the airport Elderly women sweeping gutters Families living in discarded concrete pipes He learned of the systemic bondage they had been in for thousands of years As Matthew came face to face with this suffering he knew God was summoning him to help He knew that the greatest hope for the Dalits lay in educating their children something long closed to them So God gave Matthew a vision that would transform him and his church taking them on a journey from the suburban comfort of the US to the slums and villages of India Today a new movement is sweeping over the world a movement to set oppressed people free free from slavery sex trafficking poverty and political and social injustice Why Not Today is an invitation and a challenge to join in the efforts to bring freedom and hope to people suffering all over world Perhaps God has stirred a passion in you to help the poor and overcome injustice This story shows what God can do when we are willing to respond to that stirring Why not start today
