The Road Home Ethan Nichtern,2015-04-21 A lively exploration of contemporary Buddhism from one of its most admired teachers In this wise and witty invitation to Buddhist meditation Ethan Nichtern a senior teacher in the Shambhala Buddhist tradition investigates the journey each of us takes to find where we belong Drawing from contemporary research on meditation and mindfulness and from his experience as a Buddhist teacher and practitioner Nichtern describes in fresh language the basic existential experience that gives rise to spiritual seeking and also to its potentially dangerous counterpart spiritual materialism He explains exactly how by turning our awareness to what s happening around us and inside us we become able to enhance our sense of connection with others and at the same time change for the better our individual and collective patterns of greed apathy and inattention The Road Home shows that in order to create a truly compassionate and enlightened society we must start with ourselves And this means beginning by working with our own mind in whatever state we find it One of Library Journal s Best Books of 2015 in Religion and Spirituality One of Tech Insider s Nine Books That Defined 2015 Praise for The Road Home The Road Home is a guidebook a compass a map and a trusted companion and as a wanderer I am forever grateful Ruth Ozeki author A Tale for the Time Being Nichtern is as gifted and compassionate a teacher in writing as he is in person I ve dog eared my copy so thoroughly it s swollen to twice its normal size Maud Newton Makes ancient Buddhist teachings and texts approachable contemporary and relevant Valuable for readers looking for an introduction to Buddhist teachings as they relate to meditation practice or for those searching for ways to live their lives in the here and now Library Journal starred review

Lessons for the Living Stan Goldberg,2009-06-09 When Stan Goldberg was diagnosed with cancer he chose to face his fear by helping others who were already in the process of dying Stan signed up as a hospice volunteer and spent several years at the bedsides of the terminally ill In this book Stan shares the remarkable stories of people he met who were facing the end of life Their stories shine a light on the human capacity for beauty insight forgiveness and gratitude as we see how people like us deal with anxiety and sadness with bravery and love But what s especially remarkable is that the bravery and love aren t as much expressed in grand dramatic gestures as they are in ordinary acts and small accomplishments in simple efforts at kindness in asking for and receiving forgiveness in the abandonment of anger and in learning to speak directly from the heart and to listen in the same way What Stan ultimately discovers and shares here are not lessons in dying but rather lessons in learning how to live
