Thinking With Bruno Latour In Rhetoric And Composition:

Thinking with Bruno Latour in Rhetoric and Composition Paul Lynch, Nathaniel Rivers, 2015-04-20 Best known for his books We Have Never Been Modern Laboratory Life and Science in Action Bruno Latour has inspired scholarship across many disciplines In the past few years the fields of rhetoric and composition have witnessed an explosion of interest in Latour's work Editors Paul Lynch and Nathaniel Rivers have assembled leading and emerging scholars in order to focus the debate on what Latour means for the study of persuasion and written communication Essays in this volume discern rearticulate and occasionally critique rhetoric and composition's growing interest in Latour These contributions include work on topics such as agency argument rhetorical history pedagogy and technology among others Contributors explain key terms identify implications of Latour's work for rhetoric and composition and explore how his theories might inform writing pedagogies and be used to build research methodologies Thinking with Bruno Latour in Rhetoric and Composition shows how Latour's groundbreaking theories on technology agency and networks might be taken up enriched and extended to challenge scholars in rhetorical studies both English and communications composition and writing studies to rethink some of the field's most basic assumptions It is set to become the standard introduction that will appeal not only to those scholars already interested in Latour but also those approaching Latour for the first time Kenneth Burke + The Posthuman Chris Mays, Nathaniel A. Rivers, Kellie Sharp-Hoskins, 2017-10-15 While rhetoric as a discipline is firmly planted in humanism and anthropology posthumanism seeks to leave the human behind This highly original examination of Kenneth Burke's thought grapples with these ostensibly contradictory concepts as opportunities for invention revision and importantly transdisciplinary knowledge making Rather than simply mapping posthumanist rhetorics onto Burke's scholarship Kenneth Burke The Posthuman focuses on the multiplicity of ideas found both in his work and in the idea of posthumanism Taking varied approaches organized within a framework of boundaries and futures the contributors show that studying the humanist theories of Burke in this way creates a satisfyingly chaotic web of interconnections The essays look at how Burke's writing on the human mind and technology from his earliest works to his very latest revisions interrelates with current concepts such as new materiality and coevolution Throughout the contributors pay close attention to the fluidity concerns and contradictions inherent in language symbolism and subjectivity A unique illuminating exploration of the contested relationship between bodies and language this inherently transdisciplinary book will propel important future inquiry by scholars of rhetoric Burke and posthumanism In addition to the editors the contributors are Casey Boyle Kristie Fleckenstein Nathan Gale Julie Jung Steven B Katz Steven LeMieux Jodie Nicotra Jeff Pruchnic Timothy Richardson Thomas Rickert and Robert Wess Rhetorics of the Digital Nonhumanities Alex Reid, 2022-01-31 Author Alex Reid combines new materialist theory and media theory to examine rhetorical practices in the context of digital technologies This innovative method allows rhetoric and composition to reconceptualize the associations and interactions between humans and technologies in digital media ecologies Rhetoric,

Technology, and the Virtues Jared S. Colton, Steve Holmes, 2018-10-21 Rhetoric Technology and the Virtues offers a framework for theorizing ethics in digital and networked media While the field of rhetoric and writing studies has traditionally given attention to Plato's Gorgias and Phaedrus dialogues this volume updates Aristotle's basic framework of hexis for the digital age According to Aristotle When men change their hexeis their dispositions habits compartments and so on in relation to an activity they change their thought Rhetoric Technology and the Virtues argues that virtue ethics supports postmodern criticisms of rational autonomy and universalism while also enabling a discussion of the actual ethical behaviors that digital users form through their particular communicative ends and various rhetorical purposes Authors Jared Colton and Steve Holmes extend Aristotle's hexis framework through contemporary virtue ethicists and political theorists whose writing works from a tacit virtue ethics framework They examine these key theorists through a range of case studies of digital habits of human users including closed captioning trolling sampling remixing gamifying for environmental causes and using social media alongside a consideration of the ethical habits of nonhuman actors Tackling a needed topic with clarity and defined organization Rhetoric Technology and the Virtues carefully synthesizes various strands of ethical thinking convincingly argues that virtue ethics is a viable framework for digital rhetoric and provides a practical way to assess the changing hexeis encountered across the network of ethical situations in the digital world

Resounding the Rhetorical Byron Hawk, 2018-07-31 Resounding the Rhetorical offers an original critical and theoretical examination of composition as a quasi object As composition flourishes in multiple media digital sonic visual etc Byron Hawk seeks to connect new materialism with current composition scholarship and critical theory Using sound and music as his examples he demonstrates how a quasi object can and does materialize for communicative and affective expression and becomes a useful mechanism for the study and execution of composition as a discipline Through careful readings of Serres Latour Deleuze Heidegger and others Hawk reconstructs key concepts in the field including composition process research collaboration publics and rhetoric His work delivers a cutting edge response to the state of the field where it is headed and the possibilities for postprocess and postwriting composition and rhetoric

Rhetorics Change / Rhetoric's Change Jenny Rice, Chelsea Graham, Eric Detweiler, 2018-05-01 Rhetorics Change features selected essays multimedia texts and audio pieces from the 2016 Rhetoric Society of America biennial conference which spotlighted the theme Rhetoric and Change The pieces are broadly focused around eight different lines of thought Aural Rhetorics Rhetoric and Science Embodiment Digital Rhetorics Languages and Publics Apologia Revolution Reflection and Intersectionality Interdisciplinarity and the Future of Feminist Rhetoric Simultaneously familiar yet new the value of this collection can be found in the range of its modes and voices

A New Handbook of Rhetoric Michele Kennerly, 2021-07-12 Like every discipline Rhetorical Studies relies on a technical vocabulary to convey specialized concepts but few disciplines rely so deeply on a set of terms developed so long ago Pathos kairos doxa topos these and others originate from the so called classical world which has conferred on them excessive authority Without jettisoning these rhetorical terms altogether this handbook addresses critiques of their ongoing relevance explanatory power and exclusionary effects A New Handbook of Rhetoric inverts the terms of classical rhetoric by applying to them the alpha privative a prefix that expresses absence Adding the prefix to more than a dozen of the most important terms in the field the contributors to this volume build a new vocabulary for rhetorical inquiry Essays on apathy akairos adoxa and atopos among others explore long standing disciplinary habits reveal the denials and privileges inherent in traditional rhetorical inquiry and theorize new problems and methods Using this vocabulary in an analysis of current politics media and technology the essays illuminate aspects of contemporary culture that traditional rhetorical theory often overlooks Innovative and groundbreaking A New Handbook of Rhetoric at once draws on and unsettles ancient Greek rhetorical terms opening new avenues for studying values norms and phenomena often stymied by the tradition In addition to the editor the contributors include Caddie Alford Benjamin Firgens Cory Geraths Anthony J Irizarry Mari Lee Mifsud John Muckelbauer Bess R H Myers Damien Smith Pfister Nathaniel A Rivers and Alessandra Von Burg The Animal Who Writes Marilyn M. Cooper, 2019-02-15 Writing begins with unconscious feelings of something that insistently demands to be responded to acted upon or elaborated into a new entity Writers make things that matter treaties new species software and letters to the editor as they interact with other humans of all kinds As they write they also continually remake themselves In The Animal Who Writes Cooper considers writing as a social practice and as an embodied behavior that is particularly important to human animals The author argues that writing is an act of composing enmeshed in nature cultures and is homologous with technology as a mode of making Feminist Rhetorical Science Studies Julie Jung, Amanda Booher, 2018-01-30 This edited collection disrupts tendencies in feminist science studies to dismiss rhetoric as having concern only for language and it counters posthumanist theories that ignore human materialities and asymmetries of power as co constituted with and through distinctions such as gender sex race and ability The eight essays of Feminist Rhetorical Science Studies Human Bodies Posthumanist Worlds model methodologies for doing feminist research in the rhetoric of science Collectively they build innovative interdisciplinary bridges across the related but divergent fields of feminism posthumanism new materialism and the rhetoric of science Each essay addresses a question How can feminist rhetoricians of science engage responsibly with emerging theories of the posthuman Some contributors respond with case studies in medical practice fetal ultrasound patient noncompliance medical science the neuroscience of sex differences and health policy drug trials of the U S Food and Drug Administration others respond with a critical review of object oriented ontology and a framework for researching women technical writers in the workplace The contributed essays are in turn framed by a comprehensive introduction and a final chapter from the editors who argue that a key contribution of feminist posthumanist rhetoric is that it rethinks the agencies of people things and practices in ways that can bring about more ethical human relations Individually the contributions offer as much variety as consensus on matters of methodology Together they demonstrate how feminist posthumanist and materialist approaches to science expand our notions of what rhetoric is and does yet they manage to do so without sacrificing what makes their inquiries distinctively rhetorical Romanticism and Speculative Realism Chris Washington, Anne C. McCarthy, 2019-01-24 Romanticism and Speculative Realism features a range of scholars working at the intersection of literary poetics and philosophy It considers how the writing of the Romantic era reconceptualizes the human imagination the natural world and the language that correlates them in radical ways that can advance current speculative debates concerning new ontologies and new materialisms In their wide ranging examinations of canonical and non canonical romantic writers the scholars gathered here rethink the connections between the human and non human world to envision speculative modes of social being and ecological politics Spanning historical and national frameworks from historical romanticism to contemporary post romantic ecology and from British and German romanticism to global modernity these essays examine life in all its varied forms in and beyond the Anthropocene
