Time, Temporality and Legal Judgment Tanzil Chowdhury, 2020-05-25 This book challenges the correspondence theory of judicial fact construction that legal rules resemble and subsume facts out there and instead provides an account of judicial fact construction through legally produced times or adjudicative temporalities that structure legal subject and event formation in legal judgement Drawing on Bergsonian and Gadamerian theories of time this book details how certain adjudicative temporalities can produce fully willed and autonomous subjects through time framed legal events in effect the paradigmatic liberal legal subject or how alternative adjudicative temporalities may structure legal subjects that are situated and constituted by social structures The consequences of this novel account of legal judgement are fourfold The first is that judicial fact construction is not exclusively determined by the legal rule s but by adjudication s production of temporalities The second is that the selection between different adjudicative temporalities is generally indeterminate though influenced by wider social structures As will be argued social structures framed as a particular type of past produced by certain adjudicative temporalities may either be incorporated in the rendering of the legal event or elided The third is that with the book s focus on criminal law different deployments of adjudicative temporalities effect responsibility ascription Finally it is argued that the demystification of time as that which structures event and subject formation reveals another way in which to uncover the politics of legal judgement and the potential for its transformative potential through either its inclusion or its elision of social structures in adjudication s determination of facts This book will be of interest to students and scholars in the field of legal judgement legal theory and jurisprudence

A Companion to Nineteenth-Century Philosophy John Shand, 2019-04-10 Investigate the challenging and nuanced philosophy of the long nineteenth century from Kant to Bergson Philosophy in the nineteenth century was characterized by new ways of thinking a desperate searching for new truths As science art and religion were transformed by social pressures and changing worldviews old certainties fell away leaving many with a terrifying sense of loss and a realization that our view of things needed to be profoundly rethought The Blackwell Companion to Nineteenth Century Philosophy covers the developments setbacks upsets and evolutions in the varied philosophy of the nineteenth century beginning with an examination of Kant s Transcendental Idealism instrumental in the fundamental philosophical shifts that marked the beginning of this new and radical age in the history of philosophy Guiding readers chronologically and thematically through the progression of nineteenth century thinking this guide emphasizes clear explanation and analysis of the core ideas of nineteenth century philosophy in an historically transitional period It covers the most important philosophers of the era including Hegel Fichte Schopenhauer Mill Kierkegaard Marx Nietzsche Bradley and philosophers whose work manifests the transition from the nineteenth century into the modern era such as Sidgwick Peirce Husserl Frege and Bergson The study of nineteenth century philosophy offers us insight into the origin and creation of the modern era In this volume readers will have access to a thorough and clear understanding of philosophy that shaped our world

Heidegger's Alternative History of Time Emily Hughes, Marilyn Stendera, 2024-04-02 This book reconstructs Heidegger's philosophy of time by reading his work with and against a series of key interlocutors that he nominates as being central to his own critical history of time In doing so it explains what makes time of such significance for Heidegger and argues that Heidegger can contribute to contemporary debates in the philosophy of time Time is a central concern for Heidegger yet his thinking on the subject is fragmented making it difficult to grasp its depth complexity and promise Heidegger traces out a history that focuses on the conceptualisations of time put forward by Aristotle Plotinus Augustine Kant Hegel Bergson and Husserl an alternative history of time that challenges how time has been defined and studied within both philosophy and the sciences This book explores what happens when we take seriously Heidegger's claim that these seven figures are essential to any understanding of time setting out what this can tell us about existence possibility and philosophy as a historical discipline Heidegger's Alternative History of Time will appeal to scholars and advanced students working on Heidegger phenomenology the philosophy of time and the history of philosophy

The Bergsonian Mind Mark Sinclair, Yaron Wolf, 2021-12-30 Henri Bergson 1859-1941 is widely regarded as one of the most original and important philosophers of the twentieth century His work explored a rich panoply of subjects including time memory free will and humour and we owe the popular term lan vital to a fundamental insight of Bergson's His books provoked responses from some of the leading thinkers and philosophers of his time including Albert Einstein William James and Bertrand Russell and he is acknowledged as a fundamental influence on Marcel Proust The Bergsonian Mind is an outstanding wide ranging volume covering the major aspects of Bergson's thought from his early influences to his continued relevance and legacy Thirty six chapters by an international team of leading Bergson scholars are divided into five clear parts Sources and Scene Mind and World Ethics and Politics Reception Bergson and Contemporary Thought In these sections fundamental topics are examined including time freedom and determinism memory perception evolutionary theory pragmatism and art Bergson's impact beyond philosophy is also explored in chapters on Bergson and spiritualism physics biology cinema and post colonial thought An indispensable resource for anyone in Philosophy studying and researching Bergson's work The Bergsonian Mind will also interest those in related disciplines such as Literature Religion Sociology and French Studies

Conclusion the many archai of conservation and curation Folds of Past, Present and Future Sarah Van Ruyskensvelde, Geert Thyssen, Frederik Herman, Angelo Van Gorp, Pieter Verstraete, 2021-09-07 This volume brings together important theoretical and methodological issues currently being debated in the field of history of education The contributions shed insightful and critical light on the historiography of education on issues of de colonization on the historical development of the educational sciences and on the potentiality attached to the use of new and challenging source material Subversive Property Sarah Keenan, 2014-08-13 This book explores the relationship between space subjectivity and property in order to invert conventional socio legal understandings of property Sarah Keenan demonstrates that new political possibilities for property may be unveiled by thinking about property in terms of space and belonging rather than exclusion Drawing on feminist and critical race theory this book shifts focus away from the propertied subject and on to the broader spaces in and through which the propertied subject is located Using case studies such as analyses of compulsory leases under Australia's Northern Territory Intervention and lesbian asylum cases from a range of jurisdictions Keenan argues that these spaces consist of networks of relations that revolve around belonging not just belonging between subject and object as property is traditionally understood but also the less explored relation of belonging between the part and the whole This book therefore offers a conceptually useful way of analysing a wide range of socio legal issues It will be of relevance to those working in the area of property and legal geography but also to those with more general interests in socio legal studies social and political theory postcolonial studies critical race studies and gender and sexuality studies The Tempo of Modernity Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-09-08 The present work is a study in the history of an enduring idea that defines the inner life of the mind and also supplied a substratum for the twentieth century literary imagination and substance for philosophical thinking producing a unique alliance between philosophy and literature This special union was forged by a new holistic conception of time which supplemented and even supplanted the conventional sense of chronological time This temporal turn animated the existential insights of Husserl Heidegger and Bergson but it was grounded in nineteenth century advances in the biological sciences the hegemony of Hegelianism and even stretched back to Augustine's early meditation on time in Book XI of his Confessions In linking together a set of thinkers who addressed this form of temporal consciousness Gabriel R Ricci illuminates a common intellectual preoccupation from the vantage point of a concept The authors do not together assemble the thought it is the thought that produced a collective voice This voice appears in the episodes outlined in each chapter and they are framed by an introduction which explores Joseph Frank's insights into the new spatial forms in literature and an epilogue which resurrects J W Dunne's peculiar dream experiments and theory of precognition Ricci employs Frank's seminal essay to draw comparisons between literature's adaptation of the new time sense and philosophy's expression of the new compatibility between space and time Dunne's theory serves to demonstrate the continuity between literary form and philosophical speculation
