Thinking With Animals New Perspectives On Anthropomorphism:

Thinking with Animals Lorraine Daston, Gregg Mitman, 2005-02-02 Is anthropomorphism a scientific sin Scientists and animal researchers routinely warn against animal stories and contrast rigorous explanations and observation to facile and even fanciful projections about animals Yet many of us scientists and researchers included continue to see animals as humans and humans as animals As this innovative new collection demonstrates humans use animals to transcend the confines of self and species they also enlist them to symbolize dramatize and illuminate aspects of humans experience and fantasy Humans merge with animals in stories films philosophical speculations and scientific treatises In their performance with humans on many stages and in different ways animals move us to think From Victorian vivisectionists to elephant conservation from ancient Indian mythology to pet ownership in the contemporary United States our understanding of both animals and what it means to be human has been shaped by anthropomorphic thinking The contributors to Thinking with Animals explore the how and why of anthropomorphism drawing attention to its rich and varied uses Prominent scholars in the fields of anthropology ethology history and philosophy as well as filmmakers and photographers take a closer look at how deeply and broadly ways of imagining animals have transformed humans and animals alike Essays in the book investigate the changing patterns of anthropomorphism across different time periods and settings as well as their transformative effects both figuratively and literally upon animals humans and their interactions Examining how anthropomorphic thinking works in a range of different contexts contributors reveal the ways in which anthropomorphism turns out to be remarkably useful it can promote good health and spirits enlist support in political causes sell products across boundaries of culture of and nationality crystallize and strengthen social values and hold up a philosophical mirror to the human predicament

Thinking Animals Kari Weil, 2012 Kari Weil provides a critical introduction to the field of animal studies as well as an appreciation of its thrilling acts of destabilization Examining real and imagined confrontations between human and nonhuman animals she charts the presumed lines of difference between human beings and other species and the personal ethical and political implications of those boundaries Weil's considerations recast the work of such authors as Kafka Mann Woolf and Coetzee and such philosophers as Nietzsche Heidegger Derrida Deleuze Agamben Cixous and Hearne while incorporating the aesthetic perspectives of such visual artists as Bill Viola Frank Noelker and Sam Taylor Wood and the visual thinking of the autistic animal scientist Temple Grandin She addresses theories of pet keeping and domestication the importance of animal agency the intersection of animal studies disability studies and ethics and the role of gender shame love and grief in shaping our attitudes toward animals Exposing humanism's conception of the human as a biased illusion and embracing posthumanism's acceptance of human and animal entanglement Weil unseats the comfortable assumptions of humanist thought and its species specific distinctions

Cosmopolitanism and the Literary Imagination C. Patell, 2015-02-19 Through contemporary theories of cosmopolitanism and analyses of literary texts such as Heart of Darkness Lilith's Brood and Moby Dick this book explores the cosmopolitan impulses behind the literary imagination Patell argues that cosmopolitanism regards human difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved

Handbook of Historical Animal Studies Mieke Roscher, André Krebber, Brett Mizelle, 2021-06-08 The handbook provides a comprehensive evaluation of approaches topics and research areas of the rapidly developing field of Historical Animal Studies The so called animal turn specifically inspired new takes on writing history This upsurge in research has led to immense amounts of new empirical studies as well as approaches to historiography which this handbook aims to systemize

Making Our Beasts Elana Shever, 2025-12-30 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Making Our Beasts is an ethnography of science in action that uses a familiar topic dinosaurs to lead readers to understand science and its objects in new ways Through fieldwork and interviews conducted at laboratories dig sites museums and entertainment sites Elana Shever explores vertebrate paleontology in the United States showing how the practices of scientists and the materiality of fossils together shape the social world and also are shaped by it Foregrounding elements of scientific inquiry that have been sidelined including affect touch material agency and the labor of volunteers technicians and other nonscientists Shever reveals how paleontology continues to be structured by race gender and colonialism

The Nonhuman in American Literary Naturalism Karin M. Danielsson, Kenneth K. Brandt, 2023-09-05 The Nonhuman in American Literary Naturalism responds to a need to expand and refine the connections among nonhuman studies and American literary naturalism and to productively expand the scholarly discourse surrounding this vital movement in American literary history This collection focuses on that which becomes visible when the human subject is skirted or moved off center in other words the representation of nonhuman animals and other vital or inert species things entities cityscapes and seascapes that play an important part in American literary naturalism Informed by animal studies ecocriticism posthumanism new materialism and other recent theoretical perspectives the essays in this collection discuss early naturalist texts as well as more recent naturalistic oriented authors

Ethical Materialities in Art and Moving Images Silke Panse, 2024-12-26 Starting from the premise that after modernism and postmodernism in the Anthropocene an artwork cannot rest upon its separation from the planet this volume develops new ethical practice and thought with respect to art philosophy and moving images Practitioners and theorists examine how the relations between the ethical and the material figure in a context in which a dearth of ethical practice and thought has caused the materialities of the Anthropocene and the climate catastrophe Ethics are generally regarded as constituted through immaterial relations guided by moral imperatives By contrast this volume argues that the singular ethicalities that are manifested in a work cannot be captured by abstract ethics The explorations of the ethical here are not prescriptive but creative Through artistic and philosophical thought and practice the contributions move beyond the division between an active practice of ethics and a contemplative theory of aesthetics They ask what ethicalities and materialities are at play in the relations between the artist the art their worlds and the planet after new materialism and posthumanism Rather than transcending the ethical through the material or the material through the ethical the contributions articulate the singular relations between them and consider the inter and intra active ethical and material relations of art and images in biodiverse environments They suggest that to bring out the ethical dimensions of the material and the material dimension of the ethical without identifying one with the other is a responsibility of art and images      Disaster in the Early Modern World Ovanes Akopyan,David

Rosenthal,2023-11-17 How did early modern societies think about disasters such as earthquakes or floods How did they represent disaster and how did they intervene to mitigate its destructive effects This collection showcases the breadth of new work on the period ca 1300 1750 Covering topics that range from new thinking about risk and securitisation to the protection of dikes from shipworm and with a geography that extends from Europe to Spanish America the volume places early modern disaster studies squarely at the intersection of intellectual cultural and socio economic history This period witnessed fresh speculation on nature the diffusion of disaster narratives and imagery and unprecedented attempts to control the physical world The book will be essential to specialists and students of environmental history and disaster as well as general readers who seek to discover how pre industrial societies addressed some of the same foundational issues we grapple with today

Animal Housing and Human-Animal Relations Kristian Bjørkdahl,Tone Druglitrø,2016-05-12 This book provides an in depth investigation into the practices of animal housing systems with international contributions from across the humanities and social sciences By attending to a range of different sites such as the zoo the laboratory the farm and the animal shelter to name a few the book explores material technologies from the perspective that these are integrated parts of a larger biopolitical infrastructure and questions how animal housing systems and the physical infrastructures that surround central human animal practices come into being Chapter 11 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 3.0 license      Edinburgh Companion to Animal Studies Lynn Turner,2018-03-07 This volume critically investigates current topics and disciplines that are affected enriched or put into dispute by the burgeoning scholarship on Animal Studies
