Three Letter Plague A Young Mans Journey Through A Great Epidemic:

Three-Letter Plague Jonny Steinberg, 2010-11-22 At the age of 29 Sizwe Magadia is among the most handsome well educated and richest of the men in his poverty stricken village in rural Transkei Dr Hermann Reuter a son of old South West African stock wants to prove to the world that if you provide decent treatment people will come and get it no matter their circumstances Already Sizwe has watched several neighbours grow ill and die yet he remains reluctant to establish his own HIV status When Hermann establishes an antiretroviral treatment programme in Sizwe s village these figures from two different worlds collide one afraid that people will turn their backs on medical care the other fearful of the advent of a world in which respect for traditional ways has been lost and privacy has been obliterated The resulting antagonism mirrors a continent wide battle against an epidemic that has corrupted souls as much as bodies In this eye opening compassionate searing and beautifully written account Steinberg seeks to understand the AIDS crisis in South Africa As he grapples to get closer to answers that remain maddeningly just out of reach he realises that he must look within to unravel some of the enigma surrounding the greatest African disaster of our times

Mad Dogs and Meerkats Karen Brown, 2011-05-10 In Mad Dogs and Meerkats Karen Brown links the increase of rabies in Southern Africa to the HIV AIDS epidemic Her study shows that the most afflicted regions of South Africa have seen a dangerous rise in feral dog populations as people lack the education means or will to care for their pets or take them to inoculation centers Ineffective disease control which in part depends on management policies in neighboring states has exacerbated the problem The book traces the history of rabies in South Africa and neighboring states from 1800 to the present and shows how environmental and economic changes brought about by European colonialism and global trade have had long term effects Provided by publisher

Developing a Plan for the Planet Ian Chambers, John Humble, 2017-03-02 The world struggles with increasing threats to global sustainability caused by population growth overuse of fresh water resources depletion of biodiversity and reliance on non renewable energy sources There is an urgent need for an overall plan to address these challenges in a coordinated and effective manner Whether in government business community or as an individual we need to begin acting a lot smarter faster and more collaboratively if we are going to avert the potential devastating impacts on this planet Plan for the Planet outlines a coordinated approach to tackling the global challenges we face which can be implemented at every level Using proven business management wisdom and principles this book provides perhaps the most comprehensive and robust framework within which business government and the community can work together to build a sustainable world Whether you want to understand how to prepare your organisation and yourself to deal successfully with the global challenges or seize the opportunities which are fast developing with the emergence of the sustainability revolution you will benefit from reading this timely book

Riotous Deathscapes Hugo ka Canham, 2023-02-01 In Riotous Deathscapes Hugo ka Canham presents an understanding of life and death based on indigenous and black ways of knowing that he terms Mpondo theory Focusing on amaMpondo people from rural Mpondoland in South Africa's Eastern Cape Canham outlines the methodologies that have enabled the community's resilience and survival He assembles historical events and a cast of ancestral and living characters following the tenor of village life to offer a portrait of how Mpondo people live and die in the face of centuries of abandonment trauma antiblackness and death Canham shows that Mpondo theory is grounded in and develops in relation to the natural world where the river and hill are key sites of being and resistance Central too is the interface between ancestors and the living in which life and death become a continuity and a boundlessness that white supremacy and neoliberalism cannot interdict By charting a course of black life in Mpondoland Canham tells a story of blackness on the African continent and beyond Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award Recipient The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature Lokangaka Losambe, Tanure Ojaide, 2024-05-16 The Routledge Handbook of the New African Diasporic Literature introduces world literature readers to the transnational multivocal writings of immigrant African authors Covering works produced in Europe North America and elsewhere in the world this book investigates three major aesthetic paradigms in African diasporic literature the Sankofan wave late 1960s early 1990s the Janusian wave 1990s 2020s and the Offshoots of the New Arrivants those born and growing up outside Africa Written by well established and emerging scholars of African and diasporic literatures from across the world the chapters in the book cover the works of well known and not so well known Anglophone Francophone and Lusophone writers from different theoretical positionalities and critical approaches pointing out the unique innovative artistic qualities of this major subgenre of African literature The focus on the diasporic consciousness of the writers and their works sets this handbook apart from others that solely emphasize migration which is more of a process than the community of settled African people involved in the dynamic acts of living reflected in diasporic writings This book will appeal to researchers and students from across the fields of Literature Diaspora Studies African Studies Migration Studies and Postcolonial Studies Losing the Plot Leon de Kock, 2016-09-01 In Losing the Plot well known scholar and writer Leon de Kock offers a lively and wide ranging analysis of postapartheid South African writing which he contends has morphed into a far more flexible and multifaceted entity than its predecessor If postapartheid literature's founding moment was the transition to democracy writing over the ensuing years has viewed the Mandelan project with increasing doubt Instead authors from all quarters are seen to be reporting in different ways and from divergent points of view on what is perceived to be a pathological public sphere in which the plot the mapping and making of social betterment appears to have been lost The compulsion to detect forensically the actual causes of such loss of direction has resulted in the prominence of creative nonfiction A significant adjunct in the rise of this is the new media which sets up a wounded space within which a cult of commiseration compulsively and repeatedly plays out the facts of the day on people's screens This De Kock argues is reproduced in much postapartheid writing And although fictional forms persist in genres such as crime fiction with their tendency to overplot more serious fiction underplots yielding to the imprint of real conditions to determine the narrative construction Transforming the Church in Africa: Vernon E. Light, 2012-11-26 This book is a must read for serious Christians hoping to obey the Great Commission to make disciples in Africa Vernon strikes an admirable balance between academic depth and practical application helping us to appreciate the interface between the gospel of Jesus Christ and the traditional African worldview I heartily recommend this book to all thinking Christian leaders in Africa pastors teachers and missionaries Kevin G Smith DLitt PhD Vernon Light wrote this book with an apostolic passion in the way the apostles presented and proclaimed the Gospel to world religions and cultures It is an exciting study of African traditional religion and its relation to Christianity It shows that for Christianity to thrive and be relevant biblically and transformationally in Africa firstly Christian scholars and theologians are needed who understand and address Africa's traditional heritage and Western modern postmodern and pluralistic ideologies and secondly the Gospel must be contextually relevantly meaningfully and practically taught through an effective discipleship program The book based on extensive research and massive use of resources is a valuable tool for students pastors scholars and theologians interested in the state of Christianity and religious change in Africa Professor Yusufu Turaki PhD Much more than being a useful resource this is a book with a mission Like Jeremiah of old Jer 20 9 Vernon is a man with a passion and message from God to the society to which God has called him Like Jeremiah Vernon is totally convinced of the absolute truth of his message in the midst of a myriad of conflicting opinions and that his message will change society from disaster to hope Would that it is heard Professor David T Williams DTh The Rev Vernon E Light BSc BDHons MTh is a member of the academic staff at the South African Theological Seminary Pandemic Genres Neville Wallace Hoad, 2025-02-04 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more As HIV AIDS emerged as a public health crisis of significant proportions across sub-Saharan Africa it became the subject of local and international interest that was at once prurient benevolent and interventionist Meanwhile the experience of Africans living with HIV AIDS became an object of aesthetic representation in multiple genres produced by Africans themselves These cultural representations engaged public discourse the public policy pronouncements of officials of postcolonial states an emerging global NGO speak and journalism In Pandemic Genres Neville Hoad investigates how cultural production novels poems films around the pandemic supplemented public discourse He shows that the long historical imaginaries of race empire and sex in Botswana Kenya and South Africa underwrote all attempts to bring the pandemic into public representation Attention to genres that stage themselves as imaginary particularly on the terrain of feeling may forecast possibilities for new figurations Cultured Violence Rosemary Jane Jolly, 2010-01-01 Cultured Violence explores contemporary South African culture as a test case for the achievement of democracy by constitutional means in the wake of prolonged and violent cultural conflict Drawing on and juxtaposing narratives of profoundly different kinds the fiction of J M Coetzee public testimony from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission documents from former Deputy President Jacob

Zuma's rape trial and personal interviews among them in order to illuminate different cultural senses of the state of the nation and retrieve otherwise elusive descriptions of South African subjects taken from accounts of their individual lives

Rural Resistance in South Africa Thembela Kepe, Lungisile Ntsebeza, 2011-10-14 Drawing on scholarship from multiple disciplines this volume presents a fresh understanding of the Mpondo uprising in South Africa focusing on its meanings and significance in relation to land rural governance politics and the agency of the marginalized
