Three Texts On Consciousness Only Bdk English Tripitaka:

Three Texts on Consciousness Only Numata Center for Buddhist Translation and Research, 1999 This volume comprises three important texts of the Yogacara school Demonstration of Consciousness Only is a translation of Vasubandhu's Thirty Verses plus the interpretation of Dharmapala as the ultimately correct view of the text with the supplementation of two or three divergent interpretations It is an attempt to answer the question of the mechanism and nature of ignorance by demonstrating that seemingly real external objects of perception and the equally seemingly real self who perceives these things are mental fabrications that do not exist apart from consciousness itself Thirty Verses on Consciousness Only is the short verse work by Bodhisattva Vasubandhu that propounds the idea that nothing exists except consciousness or mind and that all things believed by the ordinary person to be objective realities outside mind are in reality mere mental constructs The Treatise in Twenty Verses on Consciousness Only is a companion piece to the Thirty Verses It is a series of hypothetical objections by possible opponents with replies by Vasubandhu The objections of opponent takes the realistic no nonsense position that the things seen heard smelled etc are real things that exist in the world outside the mind The opponent typically offers an argument as to why it cannot be possible for perceived objects to be merely mental constructs Vasubandhu counters each argument explaining why the realistic argument is faulty and why objects of perception cannot rationally be considered to exist apart from consciousness

Buddhism, Christianity and the Question of Creation Perry Schmidt-Leukel, 2016-12-05 Is the world created by a divine creator Or is it the constant product of karmic forces The issue of creation was at the heart of the classic controversies between Buddhism and Hindu Theism In modern times it can be found at the centre of many polemical debates between Buddhism and Christianity Is this the principal barrier that separates Buddhism from Christianity and other theistic religions The contributions to Part One explore the various aspects of traditional and contemporary Buddhist objections against the idea of a divine creator as well as Christian possibilities to meet the Buddhist critique Part Two asks for the potential truth on both sides and suggests a surprising way that the barrier might be overcome This opens a new round of philosophical and theological dialogue between these two major traditions with challenging insights for both Contributors Jos I Cabeza n John P Keenan Armin Kreiner Aasulv Lande John D Arcy May Eva K Neumaier Perry Schmidt Leukel Ernst Steinkellner

Buddhism and Christianity in Dialogue Perry Schmidt-Leukel, 2005 This book is written for a general as well as a more specialist readership On the one hand it introduces basic topics of Buddhist Christian dialogue on the other hand it opens up new ground particularly insofar as the Buddhist and the Christian contributors all write comparatively

Zen Sanctuary of Purple Robes Sachiko Kaneko Morrell, Robert E. Morrell, 2006-07-10 Zen Sanctuary of Purple Robes examines the affairs of Rinzaï Zen's Tôkeiji Convent founded in 1285 by nun Kakusan Shido after the death of her husband Hôjô Tokimune It traces the convent's history through seven centuries including the early nuns Zen practice Abbess Yôdô's imperial lineage with nuns in purple robes Hideyori's seven year old

Buddha Land, The Bandhuprabha,2002-06 This fourth century commentary on the Buddhabh mi s tra is one of the earliest texts of the Yog c ra tradition It includes an introductory description of the setting in which it was preached by the Buddha the main body of the text which treats the five factors that constitute a Buddha land i e the Pure Dharma Realm and the four wisdoms mirror wisdom equality wisdom discernment wisdom and duty fulfillment wisdom and a concluding section of two illustrative similes and four summary verses The overall theme of these texts is that the Pure Land is not a physical location but a symbol of the mind of wisdom constituted by the five factors of the Pure Dharma Realm and the four wisdoms. These four wisdoms grounded in the Pure Dharma Realm present the varied structure of wisdom as conceived by Yogacara thinkers. Mirror wisdom and equality wisdom are nondiscriminative while discernment wisdom and duty fulfillment wisdom distinguish the nature of bodhisattva tasks and carry them out in the world. Thus the overarching context for these texts is the tension created between the critical awareness and deliteralization tendency of Yogacara and the Pure Land cultus with its veneration of many Pure Land Buddhas and its hopes of being born in the Pure Land.

Two Esoteric Sutras, 2001-02. This volume contains The Adamantine Pinnacle Sutra and The Susiddhikara Sutra, two important texts in the corpus of Buddhist Tantric literature. These texts include a general introduction in the conventional format of Buddhist scriptures and a supplementary introduction that describes the nature of Mahavairocana equatable with the Dharma body first primarily from the perspective of his aspect as the essence of the Sixteen Bodhisattvas in the Dharma Great and Samaya Mandalas and then in his capacity as the essence of the Dharma realm. The body describes the samadhis characteristic of the Yoga Tantras, an exposition of the rites of initiation, a description of the rites to be performed by the teacher in the mandala, the manner in which he is to initiate the disciple and how the disciple is to obtain various types of success and seal knowledge required for performing rituals associated with the Great Mandala Adamantine Realm along with miscellaneous rules.
