When Victors Tell the Story: The Un's Victims in Rwanda Amadou Deme, 2014-03-17 The Rwanda Genocide Papers , When the Victors Tell the Story Amadou Deme, 2024-02-20 On January 11 1994 the infamous Genocide fax from UNAMIR Lt Gen Romeo Dallaire in Rwanda to UN Headquarters in New York has been claimed to have been a warning of the impending genocide that Kofi Annan's Department of Peace Keeping Operations ignored Dallaire actually never spoke with the informant Jean Pierre was interviewed by Capt Amadou Deme Capt Deme saw the weapons cache and delivered Jean Pierre's request to know when Dallaire would carry out a raid so he could bring more weapons to be found Dallaire admitted this was true in his testimony in the Military I trial Capt Deme was the first UN official to reach the crash site of the plane of the Rwandan President Juvénal Habyarimana and provided Gen Dallaire with the information received about events on events in Kigali as Intelligence Officer during the entire time Dallaire was in Rwanda At the Milles Collines Hotel The Hotel Rwanda in the film when Dallaire was out of the country Capt Deme was in command of UN troops escorting refugees from the hotel to the airport depicted in the film The convoy was stopped by armed civilians and self proclaimed militiamen who threatened the lives of all A national leader of the Interahamwe stepped forward to help Deme avert disaster Later when Deme was an investigator for the UN Prosecution at the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda ICTR that same man arrived at the Tribunal in chains Deme was a member of the ICTR Prosecution team that recommended in 1997 the prosecution of Paul Kagame for the assassination of Presidents Habyarimana of Rwanda and Ntaryamira of Burundi on April 6 1994 the act of aggressive war that triggered the Rwanda genocide The memoir of Capt Amadou Deme tells the story of the Rwandan Genocide like no other The Scene of the Mass Crime Christian Delage, Peter Goodrich, 2013 The Scene of the Mass Crime takes up the unwritten history of the peculiar yet highly visible form of war crimes trials These trials are the first and continuing site of the interface of law history and film From Nuremberg to the contemporary trials in Cambodia film in particular has been crucial both as evidence of atrocity and as the means of publicizing the proceedings But what does film bring to justice Can law successfully address war crimes atrocities genocide What do the trials actually show What form of justice is done and how does it relate to ordinary courts and proceedings What lessons can be drawn from this history for the very topical political issue of filming civil and criminal trials This book takes up the diversity and complexity of these idiosyncratic and in strict terms generally extra legal medial situations Drawing on a fascinating diversity of public trials and filmic responses from the Trial of the Gang of Four to the Gacaca local courts of Rwanda to the filmic symbolism of 9 11 from Soviet era show trials to Nazi People s Courts leading international scholars address the theatrical political filmic and symbolic importance of show trials in making history legitimating regimes and most surprising of all in attempting to heal trauma through law and through film These essays will be of considerable interest to those working on international criminal law transitional justice genocide studies and the relationship between law and film

International Justice in Rwanda and the Balkans Victor Peskin,2008-03-03 Today s international war crimes tribunals lack police powers and therefore must prod and persuade defiant states to co operate in the arrest and prosecution of their own political and military leaders Victor Peskin s comparative study traces the development of the capacity to build the political authority necessary to exact compliance from states implicated in war crimes and genocide in the cases of the International War Crimes Tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda Drawing on 300 in depth interviews with tribunal officials Balkan and Rwandan politicians and Western diplomats Peskin uncovers the politicized protracted and largely behind the scenes tribunal state struggle over co operation

Violence and Public Memory Martin Blatt,2023-06-23 Violence and Public Memory assesses the relationship between these two subjects by examining their interconnections in varied case studies across the United States South America Europe the Middle East and Africa Those responsible for the violence discussed in this volume are varied and the political ideologies and structures range from apartheid to fascism to homophobia to military dictatorships but also democracy Racism and state terrorism have played central roles in many of the case studies examined in this book and multiple chapters also engage with the recent rise of the Black Lives Matter movement The sites and history represented in this volume address a range of issues including mass displacement genocide political repression forced disappearances massacres and slavery Across the world there are preserved historic sites memorials and museums that mark places of significant violence and human rights abuse which organizations and activists have specifically worked to preserve and provide a place to face history and its continuing legacy today and chapters across this volume directly engage with the questions and issues that surround these sometimes controversial sites Including photographs of many of the sites and events covered across the volume this is an important book for readers interested in the complex and often difficult history of the relationship between violence and the way it is publicly remembered

Politics and the Religious Imagination John H.A. Dyck,Paul S. Rowe,Jens Zimmermann,2010-06-10 Politics and the Religious Imagination is the product of a group of interdisciplinary scholars each analyzing the connections between religious narratives and the construction of regional and global politics combining a set of theoretical and philosophic insights with several case studies that represent varied geographies and religious customs The past decade has seen increasing interest in the links between religion and politics and this edited volume seeks to take religion seriously as a motivator of action Few studies have attempted to bring together the multi disciplinary work in this burgeoning field of study and this work takes a global perspective using a variety of contexts including East West relations to analyze the following key themes the constructive and destructive hermeneutics of religious stories the relevance and importance of religion as a dominant political narrative the rise of new stories among groups as agents of change the way that religious narratives help to define and constrain the Other the manipulation of religious stories for political benefit This work argues that it is insufficient to judge the relationship of religion and politics through mere institutional or quantitative lenses and this collection proves that while this promise of the narrative part of the social imaginary has been recognized in political theory to a certain extent its influence in the realm of empirical political science has yet to be fully considered Combining the work of a wide range of experts this collection will be of great interests to scholars of politics philosophy religious studies and the literary influence of religion

Identities in Transition Paige Arthur, 2010-12-13 In many societies histories of exclusion racism and nationalist violence often create divisions so deep that finding a way to deal with the atrocities of the past seems nearly impossible These societies face difficult practical questions about how to devise new state and civil society institutions that will respond to massive or systematic violations of human rights recognize victims and prevent the recurrence of abuse Identities in Transition Challenges for Transitional Justice in Divided Societies brings together a rich group of international researchers and practitioners who for the first time examine transitional justice through an identity lens They tackle ways that transitional justice can act as a means of political learning across communities foster citizenship trust and recognition and break down harmful myths and stereotypes as steps toward meeting the difficult challenges for transitional justice in divided societies
