Valuing Ecosystem Services Methodological Issues And Case Studies:

Valuing Ecosystem Services K N Ninan,2014-08-29 This thought provoking book draws together prominent international authorities to discuss the key methodological issues and challenges in valuing ecosystem services Covering a cross section of ecosystems and services in different sites countries and Teaching Environmental and Natural Resource Economics Bergstrom, John C.,Whitehead, John C.,2022-01-13 Teaching Environmental and Natural Resource Economics is a significant contribution to the literature of economics education Theory and practice teaching activities and exercises and pro teaching tips are clearly and expertly presented This guide will prove invaluable in helping students gain a better understanding of the theory and practice of environmental and natural resource economics Sustaining Biodiversity and Ecosystem Functions Clement A. Tisdell,2015-10-30 The stock of the world s biological diversity and the state of its ecosystems are major determinants of the availability of commodities both essential and desirable for human life This leading edge study provides an overarching and balanced approach to the economics of biological conservation considering man made and natural components and their interdependence Recognising the deficiencies of many contemporary studies which focus almost entirely on natural capital Clement Tisdell utilizes the concept of heritage biological capital including germplasm as part of his analysis of changes in the stock of biological capital This comprehensive synthesis casts doubt upon some propositions and policies for resource conservation recommended by eminent ecologists in areas such as GM crops and livestock husbandry as well as agroecosystems and the concept of sustainable agricultural intensification The propositions presented are lent strength by the author s decision to relate his analysis to pertinent contemporary institutional developments and scientific advances The broad scope and rational scepticism with which this book has been compiled make it an ideal read for economists interested in ecological and environmental economics natural scientists with an interest in biodiversity conservation and higher level policy makers in ecological and environmental fields Ecosystem Services Jetske A. Bouma,Pieter J. H. van Beukering,2015-01-29 Despite the growing popularity of the concept of ecosystem services policy makers and practitioners continue to struggle with the challenge of translating it into practice Drawing on a range of interdisciplinary perspectives this volume takes up the challenge to provide a framework for the effective implementation of simple concepts into complex ecosystem related decision making Addressing the measurement valuation and governance of ecosystem services the book is specifically designed to guide students and policy makers from definitions and measurements to applications in terms of policy instruments and governance arrangements Each chapter discusses key methodological approaches illustrating their applications at various scales by drawing on case studies from around the world Presenting a range of perspectives from across many fields this text ultimately considers the crucial question of how ecosystem service delivery can be safeguarded for generations to come Invasive Species in Forests and Rangelands of the United States Therese M. Poland,Toral Patel-Weynand,Deborah M. Finch,Chelcy Ford Miniat,Deborah C. Hayes,Vanessa M.

Lopez,2021-02-01 This open access book describes the serious threat of invasive species to native ecosystems Invasive species have caused and will continue to cause enormous ecological and economic damage with ever increasing world trade This multi disciplinary book written by over 100 national experts presents the latest research on a wide range of natural science and social science fields that explore the ecology impacts and practical tools for management of invasive species It covers species of all taxonomic groups from insects and pathogens to plants vertebrates and aquatic organisms that impact a diversity of habitats in forests rangelands and grasslands of the United States It is well illustrated provides summaries of the most important invasive species and issues impacting all regions of the country and includes a comprehensive primary reference list for each topic This scientific synthesis provides the cultural economic scientific and social context for addressing environmental challenges posed by invasive species and will be a valuable resource for scholars policy makers natural resource managers and practitioners

Thematic Documents ,2006 Emerging Markets for Ecosystem Services Bradford S Gentry,2007-10-26
Emerging Markets for Ecosystem Services A Case Study of the Panama Canal Watershed provides an integrated interdisciplinary methodological approach for evaluating market opportunities for watershed services carbon sequestration and biodiversity protection Ecosystem Services Jetske A. Bouma, Pieter J. H. van Beukering, 2015-01-29 This book draws on a range of interdisciplinary perspectives to provide a framework for translating concepts into ecosystem related decision making and practice Valuing forest ecosystem services: a training manual for planners and project developers Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2019-02-28 The degradation of ecosystems including forests and the associated loss of biodiversity particularly due to human induced threats and climate change has gained increased attention from scientists and policymakers The Millennium Ecosystem Assessment presented a new conceptual framework that puts ecosystem services at the centre and links human well being to the impacts on ecosystems of changes in natural resources The Economics of Ecosystems and Biodiversity initiative drew further attention to the economic benefits of conserving ecosystems and biodiversity supporting the idea that economic instruments if appropriately applied developed and interpreted can inform policy and decision making processes Only a few ecosystem services however have explicit market value and are traded in open markets many especially those categorized as having passive use value remain invisible and are rarely accounted for in traditional economic systems The failure to appropriately consider the full economic value of ecosystem services in decision making enables the continued degradation and loss of ecosystems and biodiversity Most ecosystem services are considered public goods and tend to be overexploited by society Many methods have been applied to the economic valuation of ecosystem services The use of these methods as well as the interpretation of their results requires familiarity with the ecological political normative and socio economic context and the science of economics Recognizing demonstrating and capturing the value of ecosystem services can play an important role in setting policy directions for ecosystem management and conservation and thus in increasing the provision of ecosystem services and their contributions to human well being The aim of this manual is to enhance understanding of ecosystem services and their valuation The specific target group comprises governmental officers in planning units and field level officers and practitioners in key government departments in Bangladesh responsible for project development including the Ministry of Environment and Forests and its agencies Most of the examples and case studies presented herein therefore are tailored to the Bangladesh context but the general concepts approaches and methods can be applied to a broad spectrum of situations This manual focuses on valuing forest related ecosystem services including those provided by trees outside forests It is expected to improve valuation efforts and help ensure the better use of such values in policymaking and decision making Among other things the manual explores the basics of financial mathematics e g the time value of money discounting cost benefit analysis and profitability and risk indicators the main methods of economic valuation examples of the valuation of selected ecosystem services and inputs for considering values in decision making Handbook of Applied Hydrology, Second Edition Vijay P. Singh, 2016-03-07 Fully Updated Hydrology Principles Methods and Applications Thoroughly revised for the first time in 50

Chow's Handbook of Applied Hydrology Second Edition covers: The Fundamentals of Hydrology, Data Collection and Processing, Hydrology Methods, Hydrologic Processes and Modeling, Sediment and Pollutant Transport, Hydrometeorologic and Hydrologic Extremes, Systems Hydrology, Hydrology of Large River and Lake Basins, Applications and Design, The Future of Hydrology. Environmental Economics in Practice Gopal K. Kadekodi, 2004. The book is a compendium of diverse case studies in the field of environmental economics in India. It outlines the social, scientific tools and methodology involved in the management of natural resources in a developing economy.

Valuing Ecosystem Services Stavros Georgiou, R. Kerry Turner, Brendan Fisher, 2012. Ecosystem services can be broadly defined as the aspects of ecosystems that provide benefits to people. This book provides guidance on the valuation of ecosystem services using the case of multifunctional wetlands to illustrate and make recommendations regarding the methods and techniques that can be applied to appraise management options. It provides a review of ecosystem service valuation rationale including its importance from both a policy and project appraisal perspective and a useful reference when considering policy and appraisal of ecosystem management options. It shows how legal obligations and other high level management targets should be taken into account in valuation exercises thus giving important policy context to the management options. The authors set out what they call an Ecosystem Services Approach to the full appraisal of the role of ecosystem services in the economy and society. Although concentrating on wetlands, the approaches suggested provide an assessment framework that can be applied to other types of ecosystem assets. Environment and Development Economics, 2004.
