When The Other Is Me Native Resistance Discourse 1850 1990:

When the Other is Me Emma LaRocque, 2011-03-10 In this long awaited book from one of the most recognized and respected scholars in Native Studies today Emma LaRocque presents a powerful interdisciplinary study of the Native literary response to racist writing in the Canadian historical and literary record from 1850 to 1990 In When the Other is Me LaRocque brings a metacritical approach to Native writing situating it as resistance literature within and outside the postcolonial intellectual context She outlines the overwhelming evidence of dehumanization in Canadian historical and literary writing its effects on both popular culture and Canadian intellectual development and Native and non Native intellectual responses to it in light of the interlayered mix of romanticism exaggeration of Native difference and the continuing problem of internalization that challenges our understanding of the colonizer colonized relationship Making Space for Indigenous Feminism, 3rd Edition Gina Starblanket, 2024-05-23T00:00:00Z The third edition of the iconic collection Making Space for Indigenous Feminism features feminist queer and two spirit voices from across generations and locations Feminism has much to offer Indigenous women and all Indigenous Peoples in their struggles against oppression Indigenous feminists in the first edition fought for feminism to be considered a valid and essential intellectual and activist position The second edition animated Indigenous feminisms through real world applications This third edition curated by award winning scholar Gina Starblanket reflects and celebrates Indigenous feminism s intergenerational longevity through the changing landscape of anti colonial struggle and theory Diverse contributors examine Indigenous feminism s ongoing relevance to contemporary contexts and debates including queer and two spirit approaches to decolonization gendered and sexualized violence storytelling and narrative digital and land based presence Black and Indigenous relationalities and more This book bridges generations of powerful Indigenous feminist thinking to demonstrate the movement s cruciality for today Global social work Carolyn Noble,, Helle Strauss, Brian Littlechild, 2014-06-30 Global social work crossing borders blurring boundaries is a collection of ideas debates and reflections on key issues concerning social work as a global profession such as its theory its curricula its practice its professional identity its concern with human rights and social activism and its future directions Apart from emphasising the complexities of working and talking about social work across borders and cultures the volume focuses on the curricula of social work programs from as many regions as possible to showcase what is being taught in various cultural sociopolitical and regional contexts Exploring the similarities and differences in social work education across many countries of the Americas Asia Europe and the Pacific the book provides a reference point for moving the current social work discourse towards understanding the local and global context in its broader significance

Photography, Truth and Reconciliation Melissa Miles, 2020-08-05 Photography Truth and Reconciliation charts the connections between photography and a crucial issue in contemporary social history The book examines the prevalence of photography in cultural responses to processes of truth and reconciliation and argues that photographs are a valuable means through which stories can be retold and historiography can be rethought Five compelling case studies from Argentina Canada Australia South Africa and Cambodia underscore the special role that this medium has played in facilitating processes of recovery and in reconstructing suppressed histories even when a documentary record of the events does not exist The diverse practices addressed in this book including artistic protest institutional archival legal and personal photography prompt a new consideration of photography's links to presence place time spectatorship and justice Collectively these practices attest to photography's key role in transitional justice and in shaping historical understanding internationally Important reading for students taking photography visual culture history and media studies courses Photography Truth and Reconciliation explores key historical and theoretical themes including photography and testimony international discourses on human rights and justice and problematic notions of public and collective memory The introduction and conclusion of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>

Indigenous Children's Survivance in Public Schools

Leilani Sabzalian, 2019-02-18 Indigenous Children's Survivance in Public Schools examines the cultural social and political terrain of Indigenous education by providing accounts of Indigenous students and educators creatively navigating the colonial dynamics within public schools Through a series of survivance stories the book surveys a range of educational issues including implementation of Native themed curriculum teachers attempts to support Native students in their classrooms and efforts to claim physical and cultural space in a school district among others As a collective these stories highlight the ways that colonization continues to shape Native students experiences in schools By documenting the nuanced intelligence courage artfulness and survivance of Native students families and educators the book counters deficit framings of Indigenous students The goal is also to develop educators anticolonial literacy so that teachers can counter colonialism and better support Indigenous students in public schools

What We Learned Helen Raptis, 2016-02-01 Stories of Indigenous children forced to attend residential schools have haunted Canadians in recent years Yet most Indigenous children in Canada attended Indian day schools and later public schools near their home communities Although church and government officials often kept detailed administrative records we know little about the actual experiences of the students themselves In What We Learned two generations of Tsimshian students a group of elders born in the 1930s and 1940s and a group of middle aged adults born in the 1950s and 1960s reflect on their traditional Tsimshian education and the formal schooling they received in northwestern British Columbia Their stories offer a starting point for understanding the legacy of day schools on Indigenous lives and communities Their recollections also invite readers to consider a broader notion of education one that includes traditional Indigenous views that conceive of learning as a lifelong experience that takes place across multiple contexts

Revitalizing Health Through Humanities: Foregrounding Unheard Trends L. Santhosh Kumar, Barnashree

Khasnabis, Sreedevi Santhosh, 2024-11-28 Health Humanities in contemporary times has enabled exploration of the unexplored chartered terrains in literary paradigms Scholars in the field of Humanities and Sciences have been engaging with the praxis of applying concepts from both disciplines revising the approach towards Health Care and Humanities Due to interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary methodologies of reading literary texts they have been reinforcing a paradigm shift from the conventional understanding of narratives in Literature and Health Care Traditional discursive boundaries between the disciplines of Health and Humanities are collapsing due to a comprehensive and nuanced interpretation of the shared ontological foundation between the two Humanism Terminologies like Displacement Dislocation and Disjunction unite Health and Humanities and they also make the unknown known Health Humanities explores the different multitudes of narration in the literary arena and it represents diverse voices of literature It also showcases the importance of re reading a text owing to its autotelic status The authors who have contributed chapters for this book have meticulously selected diverse texts and contexts embedded in the dynamism of Health Humanities This book is an impetus for academicians from the field of Humanities and Sciences who desire to venture into new epistemes towards Health Humanities

The Testimonial Uncanny
 Julia V. Emberley, 2014-09-30 Examines how colonial and postcolonial violence is understood and conceptualized through Indigenous storytelling Through the study of Indigenous literary and artistic practices from Canada Australia New Zealand and the United States Julia V Emberley examines the ways Indigenous storytelling discloses and repairs the traumatic impact of social violence in settler colonial nations She focuses on Indigenous storytelling in a range of cultural practices including novels plays performances media reports Internet museum exhibits and graphic novels In response to historical trauma such as that experienced at Indian residential schools as well as present day violence against Indigenous bodies and land Indigenous storytellers make use of Indigenous spirituality and the sacred to inform an ethics of hospitality They provide uncanny configurations of political and social kinships between people between the past and the present and between the animate and inanimate This book introduces readers to cultural practices and theoretical texts concerned with bringing Indigenous epistemologies to the discussion of trauma and colonial violence

Indigeneity and the Decolonizing Gaze
 Robert Stam, 2023-01-26 Against the long historical backdrop of 1492 Columbus and the Conquest Robert Stam's wide ranging study traces a trajectory from the representation of indigenous peoples by others to self representation by indigenous peoples often as a form of resistance and rebellion to colonialist or neoliberal capitalism across an eclectic range of forms of media arts and social philosophy Spanning national and transnational media in countries including the US Brazil Canada France Germany and Italy Stam orchestrates a dialogue between the western mediated gaze on the Indian and the indigenous gaze itself especially as incarnated in the burgeoning movement of indigenous media that is the use of audio visual digital media for the social and cultural purposes of indigenous peoples themselves Drawing on examples from cinema literature music video painting and stand up comedy Stam shows how indigenous artists intellectuals and activists are responding to the multiple crises climatological economic political racial and cultural confronting the world Significant attention is paid to the role of arts based activism in supporting the struggle of indigenous artistic activism of the Yanomami people specifically to save the Amazon forest and the planet Indigenous Women and Work Carol Williams, 2012-10-23
