While the Music Lasts Rineke Smilde, Kate Page (Musician), Peter Alheit, 2014 Music Has Power® in Senior Wellness and Healthcare Concetta Tomaino, The Institute of Music and Neurologic Function, 2023-11-21 The transformative role music therapy can play in all areas of healthcare and especially in the care of older adults is increasingly apparent. However, while music activities are present in most care settings, these activities do not provide the therapeutic benefits that are possible with music therapy informed interventions and programs. Best practices from music therapy are transforming dementia care and have the potential to improve healthcare and health for older people wherever they receive care. Dr. Concetta Tomaino, a pioneer in the field of music therapy, shares more than 40 years of clinical and research experience, not just with Music Therapists but also with healthcare leaders, clinicians, and direct care staff. With chapters on mental health and wellness, dementia, as well as movement and speech rehabilitation, this comprehensive and friendly practice guide will help all caregivers use music therapy best practices to provide better, more fulfilling support across all senior healthcare settings.

Expanding Professionalism in Music and Higher Music Education Heidi Westerlund, Helena Gaunt, 2021-06-07 This book addresses the need to rethink the concept and enactment of professionalism in music and how such concepts underpin professional higher music education. There is an urgent imperative to enable the potential of professional musicians in our contemporary societies to be more fully realised, recognising both intense challenges that are currently threatening some traditional music practices and significant scope for new practices to be imagined in response to deep veins of societal need. Professionalism encompasses the conduct, aims, values, responsibilities, and ongoing development of a practising professional in the field. Professional higher music education engages both with providing future professionals with relevant education in particular craft skills and with nurturing their visions for their work as artists in future societies. The major focus of the book is on performance traditions that have dominated professional higher education, notably western classical music.
