

Brothers dominate Harriers handicap

Last week's Traralgon Harriers four mile handicap race was dominated by the performances of two brothers, Brian and Bruce Inglis.

Twelve-year-old Brian, running in his first race longer than one and a half miles, won the race comfortably.

Bruce recorded the fastest time with 21 minutes 15 seconds, knocking eight seconds off the previous course record.

The four fastest distance runners in the club, Bruce Inglis, Geoff Duffell, Keith Tomholt and Ian Membrey, were all handicapped on the same mark of 11 minutes behind scratch.

Inglis and Duffell are well proven runners over distances of eight to ten miles.

Tomholt's strength and speed shown in races over 100 metres and two miles while Ian Membrey has recorded his best times over three and four miles.

Also as holder at the course record at 21 mins 23 seconds, Ian was favored to win the race.

Membrey tried to break up the group running a scintling sub five minutes for the first mile but failed to shake off the others.

He soon fell behind falling victim to his own initial pace.

At the two mile mark Duffell and Inglis turned together heading back to finish stride for stride, 10 metres ahead of Tomholt.

The early speed was too much for Tomholt as well.

He had hoped for a slow tactical race relying on his speed to break away over the last mile.

Inglis slowly drew away from Duffell with each stride lengthening his break. He won comfortably from Duffell by 33 seconds.

Battles were conducted by other runners as well, although not at the same speed but with equal guts and determination.

Long time rivals Leigh Thompson and Geoff Wilson were never far apart from start to finish.

Wilson took the honors by seven seconds.

Wilson recorded 23 minutes five seconds, and Thompson 23-12.

Junior Greg Wigg and Stefan Dundek are seeing the results of consistent training.

Their times are getting faster since they began training regularly after joining the club.

Greg finished in 26.55 and Stefan 27.41.

Sixteen people competed in the race, many of whom are fitter than ever, and looking forward to a successful track and field season starting in a few months time.

Runners come in all shapes and sizes, and when the shortest member of Traralgon Harriers and the tallest member run together its a case of David and Goliath. Ten year-old Ian Reid at four foot four, and 19 year-old Jimmy Timmer-Arends six foot two and a half inches, set off on the same handicap in a Traralgon Harriers race. Ian is a student at Grey street state school and started running this year. Jim started running with the Harriers in 1976.

Thursday 8 September 1977:

Conserving Europe's Wildlife Andrew L.R. Jackson, 2018-03-28 The Natura 2000 network of protected areas is the centrepiece of European Union nature policy currently covering almost one fifth of the EU's entire land territory plus large marine areas. This vast EU-wide network which aims to conserve Europe's most valuable and threatened species and habitats has major impacts on land use throughout all Member States of the EU. This book critically assesses the origins and implementation of the Natura 2000 network established under the Birds Directive of 1979 and the Habitats Directive of 1992. Based on original archival research and interviews with key participants the book records a detailed history of the origins and negotiation of Natura 2000 policy and law with the history of EU environmental policy provided as a framework. An historical institutionalist approach is adopted which emphasises the importance of understanding legal and policy development as processes that unfold over time. Three phases in the history of EU environmental policy are identified and described and the history of EU nature policy is placed within the context of these three phases. Informed by this history the author presents a comprehensive summary and assessment of the law and policy that protects Natura 2000 sites at EU level and reviews the nature conservation outcomes for the targeted species and habitats. The book reveals how a knowledge of the history of Natura 2000 enriches our understanding of key issues such as conflicts in establishing and conserving the Natura 2000 network. EU integration in the field of nature conservation and the future of EU nature policy. Downing

Street Diary Volume Two Bernard Donoughue, 2009-01-19 The first volume of Bernard Donoughue's Downing Street Diary was described by Charles Moore in the Daily Telegraph as the best account of Harold Wilson's last days: the sheer scale and detail are fascinating, wrote Peter Riddell in the Times Literary Supplement. This second volume covers the three years 1976-79 when Donoughue was Senior Policy Advisor to James Callaghan. At first Callaghan quickly established dominance over his cabinet and restored calm after the plots and scandals of the later Wilson years. His incomes policy reduced inflation and in the teeth of opposition from the left wing he negotiated the notorious IMF loan at the expense of eliminating some of Labour's most cherished dreams. By 1978 Callaghan, a politician of great patriotism and decency, seemed to have succeeded in steering Britain into calmer waters. But then the storm broke. Trade union militants brushed aside their mediocre leaders and launched a ferocious attack on Callaghan's pay policy, driving up inflation and demonstrating the government's impotence. In the diaries we see the prime minister and the government paralysed as the Winter of Discontent began to bite and politics took to the streets. As Labour drifted to inevitable defeat in the 1979 election we see Callaghan fighting honourably. From the smoke of battle there emerges a striking new leader, Margaret Thatcher. The diaries describe vividly both the decline and final collapse of old Labour and how Mrs Thatcher took the opportunity to launch her crusade to dismantle trade union power and much of the British public sector. Besides James Callaghan, the chief figures in this volume of Lord Donoughue's diaries are Roy Jenkins, Denis Healey, Tony Crosland, Michael Foot, Shirley Williams, David Owen and Tony Benn. Official Records
