Avrohm Wisenberg 1978 UJCampaign general chairman

AVROHM WISENBERG

Seven Acres, the Jewish Home for the Aged. He has previously served in leadership capacities with the Jewish Family Service, Congregation Beth Yehoshua and many other communal endeavors.

Federation president Rudy stated that "His firm commitment to strengthen and reinforce Israel, as well as the many national and local needs supported by the United Jewish Campaign are known to all, and serve as a basis for his own statement of the Campaign goals which follow:"

GOALS OF 1978 UNITED JEWISH CAMPAIGN FOR HOUSTON

The United Jewish Campaign each year represents the greatest impact of Israel within the world. The Houston Jewish Community participates significantly in this magnificent outpouring of money, understanding and love. 1978 will be another critical year in the development of the State of Israel, as it continues to shoulder its coordinate burden of the cost of peace, while providing a meaningful standard of living for its people in the face of increasing inflation. Inflation is also a major factor in the United States and in Houston, placing an ever increasing burden on the important work done by our domestic and local agencies which receive their funds totally or in part from the United Jewish Campaign. In order to reinforce our commitment to Jewish continuity worldwide, we must insure the success of the United Jewish Campaign.

The Campaign goals for Houston in 1978 can be simply stated:

1. The involvement of the total Jewish community in this effort to sustain Jewish life here and abroad.
2. Doubling of the number of people who will be active in the Campaign in carrying out its goals.
3. Achieving a significant increase over last year's Campaign in order to keep pace with inflation and increased programming.

The involvement of the total Jewish community of Houston is necessary in order for these goals to be met. The leadership of the Campaign and the Jewish Federation are beginning their plans for the 1978 Campaign and look forward to your enthusiastic support.

In order to achieve his goals, Wisenberg is actively organizing the key leadership for the upcoming Campaign and many of these top leadership appointments will be announced in the near future. "We are proud and pleased that he has accepted this most important task on behalf of the Jewish people," commented Alan Rudy.

Vance begins epic peace shuttle between Israel and Arab neighbors

WASHINGTON, (TAS) — Secretary of State Cyrus Vance left July 31 on an 11-day visit to the Middle East with proposals the United States hopes will lay the groundwork for reconvening the Geneva Middle East peace conference. Prior to leaving, the Secretary held a news conference and met with a top Soviet diplomat at the State Department but the substance of his talks with the Soviet official and the proposals he is taking with him remained for the most part under wraps.

Speaking at a news conference at the State Department on Friday, Vance conceded that at the conclusion of his trip "it is still possible ... we will not know" whether a Geneva conference will be reconvened. "If that is the case we would plan to have further meetings," possibly at the up-
