Some novel insights Martin Hartleib, 2023-06-01 Master s Thesis from the year 2018 in the subject Sport Sport Economics Sport Management grade 2 0 University of Leipzig Institute for Empirical Research in Economics language English abstract This thesis will provide the reader with a good understanding of the economic forces in the modern sports industry with a focus on European Football The reader will be introduced to the most common measures of Competitive Balance and the existing literature on the topic Equipped with this knowledge the paper takes the reader on a recap of the European top leagues history with a focus on the Competitive Balance beginning in 1980 The final chapter then provides an econometric deep dive into the data for the Bundesliga The commercialization of European football strongly accelerated in the early 1990s and brought tremendous revenue increases to the industry Rapidly broadcasting revenues became the clubs main source of income Some professional football leagues jointly sell their teams broadcasting rights as bundles and share the incomes with a certain degree of solidarity among them This study tries to find evidence for the positive impact of such revenue sharing agreements on the competitive balance in Europe's strongest football leagues. Therefore a newly developed measure is applied which contains combined information about leagues' absolute level of competitive balance as well as relative changes in standings over time. The results of the study mainly speak in favor of an enhancement of solidarity among teams because of its positive impact on competitive balance and thus on a leagues' attractiveness to customers.

Reasons beyond motives. Psychology or relationship marketing? A cross-cultural investigation of football fans' motivations Narmin Mustafayeva, 2017-09-12 Master's Thesis from the year 2015 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 66 University of Edinburgh language English abstract This cross cultural study aims to investigate motivations of the UK and the non UK fans specifically the factors affecting fan behaviour and the role of marketing activities of the clubs in it. As the purpose of the dissertation is the understanding of behaviour beliefs and motives the results will be derived from the in depth interviews conducted with fans of Manchester United FC and Chelsea FC. Specifically it attempts to discover main factors impacting football consumption to explore the role of relationship marketing and branding in fans motivations and to investigate how fans motivations vary within different demographics and nationalities. The context of this study is two big English clubs Manchester United and Chelsea which have enormous fan bases not only in the UK but all over the world. Literature in relevant fields will be reviewed and presented to build a ground for the further research and explore the current understanding of fans motivations and football marketing.
