Challenge and Transformation Lawrence H. Schiffman, 2013 The Literary Imagination in Jewish Antiquity Eva Mroczek, 2016-04-29 Winner of the 2017 Manfred Lautenschlaeger Award for Theological Promise Winner of the 2017 The George A and Jean S DeLong Book History Book Prize The discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls revealed a world of early Jewish writing larger than the Bible from multiple versions of biblical texts to revealed books not found in our canon Despite this diversity the way we read Second Temple Jewish literature remains constrained by two anachronistic categories a theological one Bible and a bibliographic one book The Literary Imagination in Jewish Antiquity suggests ways of thinking about how Jews understood their own literature before these categories had emerged In many Jewish texts there is an awareness of a vast tradition of divine writing found in multiple locations that is only partially revealed in available scribal collections Ancient heroes such as David are imagined not simply as scriptural authors but as multidimensional characters who come to be known as great writers who are honored as founders of growing textual traditions Scribes recognize the divine origin of texts such as Enoch literature and other writings revealed to ancient patriarchs which present themselves not as derivative of the material that we now call biblical but prior to it Sacred writing stretches back to the dawn of time yet new discoveries are always around the corner Using familiar sources such as the Psalms Ben Sira and Jubilees Eva Mroczek tells an unfamiliar story about sacred writing not bound in a Bible In listening to the way ancient writers describe their own literature rife with their own metaphors and narratives about writing The Literary Imagination in Jewish Antiquity also argues for greater suppleness in our own scholarly imagination no longer bound by modern canonical and bibliographic assumptions Mercy for All Robert D. Anderson, 2023-12-20 This is a study in the interpretation of Paul with a focus on an interpretation of Romans 9 to 11 as a defense of God's faithfulness to Israel The study begins with reviews of three historical approaches to studying Paul's relationship to the Judaism of his era the third anchoring Paul with the Judaism of his time Second Temple Judaism It then moves to an interpretation of his writings from a broad framework within that Jewish sociocultural paradigm The study suggests that Paul's letter to the Romans provides a defense of Judaism and Romans 9 to 11 provides an argument for God's faithfulness to Israel Romans 11 particularly 11 25 32 presents a picture of Israel's redemption and how gentiles relate to Israel's redemption through the mercy they have received via Israel Gentiles are seen as instrumental in the redemption of Israel Romans 11 25 32 should be read as a missional paradigm to Israel The Politics of Pessimism in Ecclesiastes Mark R. Sneed, 2012-02-27 Scholars attempt to resolve the problem of the book of Ecclesiastes heterodox character in one of two ways either explaining away the book's disturbing qualities or radicalizing and championing it as a precursor of modern existentialism This volume offers an interpretation of Ecclesiastes that both acknowledges the unorthodox nature of Qoheleth's words and accounts for its acceptance among the canonical books of the Hebrew Bible It argues that instead of being the most secular and modern of biblical books Ecclesiastes is perhaps one of the most religious and primitive Bringing a Weberian approach to Ecclesiastes it represents a paradigm of the application of a social science methodology Targums and Rabbinic Literature Zondervan, 2024-09-10 Ancient Literature for New Testament Studies is a multivolume series that seeks to introduce key ancient texts that form the cultural historical and literary context for the study of the New Testament Each volume will feature introductory essays to the corpus followed by articles on the relevant texts

Each article will address introductory matters provenance summary of content interpretive issues key passages for New Testament studies and their significance Neither too technical to be used by students nor too thin on interpretive information to be useful for serious study of the New Testament this series provides a much needed resource for understanding the New Testament in its first century Jewish and Greco Roman context Produced by an international team of leading experts in each corpus Ancient Literature for New Testament Studies stands to become the standard resource for both scholars and students Volumes include Apocrypha and the Septuagint Old Testament Pseudepigrapha The Dead Sea Scrolls The Apostolic Fathers Philo and Josephus Greco Roman Literature Targums and Early Rabbinic Literature Gnostic Literature New Testament Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha
