Through The Narrow Gate A Memoir Of Spiritual Discovery:

Through the Narrow Gate Karen Armstrong, 1981 Through the Narrow Gate Karen Armstrong, 2010-11-05 The precursor to the bestselling The Spiral Staircase comes Karen Armstrong's classic memoir of her life as a young woman in a convent. Through the Narrow Gate is Karen Armstrong's intimate memoir of life inside a Catholic convent. With honesty and clarity she explains what drove her at age seventeen to devote herself to God. Over the next seven years she endures the difficulties of convent life: the enforced silence, the lack of friendship and family, her own guilt at not being able to stifle her voracious intelligence, and unveils the secrets of religious life during the post-Vatican II years. Through the Narrow Gate is a moving account of a young woman's search for God and the experiences that put Karen Armstrong on her way to becoming one of the most admired and most respected interpreters of religious faith.

Through the Narrow Gate, Revised Karen Armstrong, 2005-02-19 Read and cherished by thousands all over the world since it was first published in 1981, Through the Narrow Gate takes the reader on a spiritual journey that began one September day in 1962 when Karen Armstrong said good-bye to her family at London's King's Cross station and journeyed on to the convent in Tripton to become a nun. Through the Narrow Gate is by turns a book of spiritual revelation and an intimate look at life inside the cloistered walls of the convent.

Frances Molloy Jennifer M. Jeffers, 2025-09-30 Frances Molloy's The Portrait of a Postwar Northern Irish Woman Writer is the story of Ann McGill Brady, the woman who wrote herself into the history of the Irish novel as Frances Molloy. It is also the story of a poor, uneducated Catholic female in Northern Ireland.

in the 1960s she had few choices and they were the traditional ones marriage or work a dead end job For young Molloy marriage was out the question because she did not want to replicate her own mother s life Molloy believed that God did have a higher plan for her life and she believed that she would better serve the world as a nun than as a seamstress in a pajama factory Frances Molloy gives a voice to the poverty prejudice and violence the Catholic community endured in Northern Ireland under the Stormont Government in the post World War II era While identity is always at the forefront of society in Northern Ireland there is little record of the Catholic female bound by tradition and poverty in the North A group without a history is a group without an identity no one has yet written a history of the poor Northern Irish Catholic female in the latter half of the twentieth century Frances Molloy was a Catholic woman in a sectarian state and her story includes discrimination segregation and unjust incarceration in Northern Ireland in the latter half of the twentieth century

Theology as Autobiography Colby Dickinson,2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one s humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self examination of one s most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one s sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes
