Through My Enemys Eyes Envisioning Reconciliation In Israel Palestine:

Through My Enemy's Eyes Salim J Munayer, Lisa Loden, 2014-02-01 This book addresses the universal theological dimension of reconciliation in the context of the Israeli Messianic Jewish and Palestinian Christian divide. Palestinian Christians and Israeli Messianic Jews share a belief in Jesus as the son of God and Messiah. Often though that is all they have in common. This remarkable book written in collaboration by a local Palestinian Christian and an Israeli Messianic Jew seeks to bridge this gap by addressing head on divisive theological issues as well as their political implications such as land covenant prophecy and eschatology which separate their two communities. The struggle for reconciliation is painful and often extremely difficult for all of us. This unique work seeks to show a way forward. COMMENDATIONS In a world that wants to see only one side of every conflict and this one especially where people believe only their own propaganda and where many Christians inhabit hard shells of theological political and apocalyptic certainties this book is a bravely different voice. Rather it is two voices talking carefully honestly graciously respectfully and truthfully to each other as sisters and brothers in the Messiah should. This is a unique conversation in which each partner Messianic Jewish Israeli and Palestinian Christian gives full expression to all that they are and think and feel about themselves and the conflict in their land. We are treated to some stretching theological debate and some honest self criticism. But above all we come to share the hope and courage that shines through the pain and struggle. Christopher J H Wright International Ministries Director Langham Partnership UK. The Palestinian Israeli divide may be the most intractable conflict of our time. With great courage honestly facing the turbulent political historical and theological landscape which authentic reconciliation must engage. Munayer and Loden open up fresh space. Given the divides between their communities this book is a remarkable achievement. A cry of hope from the land where Jesus walked. Chris Rice Director of the Center for Reconciliation Duke Divinity School USA

Christian Zionism and the Restoration of Israel Colin Chapman, 2021-03-31 How should Christians today understand the many promises and prophecies in the Old Testament about the future of Israel and its land? Are Christian Zionists justified in believing that these have been fulfilled in the return of Jews to their land since the 1880s and the creation of the State of Israel in 1948? This book discusses all the key texts about the restoration of Israel that are quoted in these debates questioning the Christian Zionist interpretation and offering an alternative. This is followed by a detailed study of two important Old Testament texts dealing with the future of Israel: Ezekiel 33:47 and Zechariah 9:13 understanding them in their original context and exploring how they are interpreted in the New Testament. This is no theoretical ivory tower debate. We are dealing here with the most bitter and protracted conflict of the last 150 years and the way we interpret the Bible has profound political consequences. The Way of Prophetic Leadership Jennifer Campbell, 2015-06-01 This book seeks to address both the bewilderment and desire for prophetic visionary leadership in the contemporary church by a discussion of two significant revivals of the 1600s: the English Nonconformist Quakers and the Protestant French Huguenots. How can prophetic vision be incorporated successfully into the ministry of the church Campbell argues that the mission of the apostle evangelist pastor and teacher is to be prophetically inspired and led in every way by the union of the Word the Person of Jesus Christ and the Person of the Holy Spirit Publisher Reconciling Justice Salim J. Munayer,2024-07-05 Christians too often disregard the depth and thoughtfulness of Jewish Muslim and Middle Eastern Christian concepts of justice To fill this lack this book explores the rich development of justice within each Abrahamic faith as it relates specifically to the Palestinian Israeli context From a uniquely Palestinian Christian perspective this book offers a theological framework through the concept of reconciling justice to facilitate better understanding for multiethnic political and religious encounters as a prophetic imagination for peace and reconciliation in the region Breaking Cycles of Violence in Israel and Palestine Franke Wilmer,2021-02-02

Victimization narratives arise out of the experience of historical and ongoing injury and often intersect or in part constitute identity narratives Unless transformed through reconciliation these narratives can be used by political leaders to mobilize and perpetuate violence Victimization narratives are grounded in lived experiences whether by contemporary generations or passed on from one generation to another as a historical narrative about the prior experience of victimization Therefore cycles of violence cannot be ended sustainably unless those narratives are transformed and first narratives of victimization and cycles of violence must be disrupted This is the work of many peace activists in Israel and Palestine whose relationships are built on empathic engagement This book reviews theories of empathy across a broad range of scholarly work It then applies a framework of political psychology to understand the role of empathy in the accounts of peace activists whose identities as victims were transformed by their empathic engagement It includes a chapter providing historical background and concludes with a consideration of alternative futures for the Israeli and Palestinian people and communities

Theology of Reconciliation in the Context of Church Relations Rula Khoury Mansour,2020-01-31 Christians are called to be peacemakers in a world rife with conflict but how should Christians respond when the source of strife is not outside the church but within it Built on an in depth analysis of three Palestinian church splits this text examines the cultural and theological implications of intra church conflict in Arab evangelical communities in Israel Translating Miroslav Volf s formative theology of reconciliation into her contemporary Palestinian context Dr Rula Khoury Mansour provides a critical evaluation of both Volf s theory and Palestinian peacemaking models Through her research and analysis Dr Mansour develops a Middle Eastern theology of reconciliation and encourages congregations around the world to develop greater cultural and theological awareness in their quest to experience lasting peace within their churches and wider communities

Beauty for Ashes: Understanding the Israel-Hamas War Judith Mendelsohn Rood,2024-12-28 This guide to understanding the grotesque Hamas attack on Israel on the Sabbath of Darkness October 7 2023 is framed by a biblical generous theology of history Judith Mendelsohn Rood shares her experiences as a researcher at the Islamic Court in Jerusalem a professor of Middle Eastern history teaching world history at an evangelical Christian university and as a
