

Dormitory Counselors To Draw Constitution

Prospective residence hall counselors for the 1975-76 school year attended the Western Texas Residence Hall Association convention at Stephen F. Austin State University March 25-26 in Nacogdoches.

While attending the conference at "The University Among the Pines," the 7-man and 1-woman group gathered ideas for establishing a residence hall constitution to contain conduct guidelines for students of Western Texas.

Basic format of the hall constitution is being taken from the residence hall constitution at Texas A & M University.

Members of the council responsible for drawing up the hall constitution are Hazel Brown, Gail Burleson, Katy LeMond, Jackie Fontenot, Billy Dillard, Clay Harris and Steve Cox. Assisting with the constitution and serving as mediator is Nelson Riley, dormitory advisor. All attended the convention.

Final draft of the constitution will be presented to Dr. Duane Reed, Dean of Student Services, by the end of this week for his advice and for later consideration for approval by the Board of Trustees.

Adopted Statement
The Preamble of the CONSTITUTION OF WESTERN TEXAS COLLEGE RESIDENCE HALL states: We, the residents of Western Texas College Residence Hall, in order to unite as a body for the organization and coordination of all matters concerning residence hall life and to combine our resources to improve the social, cultural, recreational, and intellectual atmosphere within the WTC residence halls, do hereby adopt the following foundation of government for WTC Residence Halls.

The constitution includes articles pertaining to organizational names, purpose, organization of government, election of officers, executive committee duties, election and responsibilities of floor representatives, guidelines for membership of the hall council, standing committees, judicial board, advisor election and power invested in him, by-laws and amendment guidelines, ratification procedures and conformity.

Peer Judgment
"We learned that the peer judgment board is working effectively in many Texas colleges and universities. The students who attended the convention are hopeful that it will be possible to establish a judicial organization," said M. Hines. This will allow students on the Judicial Board to apply corrective measures where needed.

A suggested replacement for the current hall "blue slip" not yet approved by the Administration is to issue an offender of the hall rules and regulations an appointment card which will send the accused directly to the head dormitory advisor to discuss the problem area and to let the advisor thereby either refer the student to the Board of Directors or to issue punishment.

The constitution will be a first

LRC Features New 3-M Microfilm Reader

Newest member of the "electronics explosion" currently available in the LRC is a 300 series 3-M brand microfilm Reader-Printer.

With this microfilm, students have an added advantage over the usual microfilm readers — press a button, marked "release," and a copy of the page shows on the viewscreen automatically emerges from the top of the reader-printer.

Copies are standard size. Two print sizes are possible, depending on the kind of lens used in the reader-printer. Most copies will be negative — that is, white print on black, since most of the microfilm reels are positive.

For the present, this reader-printer will probably be used only for making copies, as few readers are ready for use by students who want to read material on microfilm, but only one printer.

Features of the 3-M study aid include a motorized system for carrying the film, with fast forward or backward speeds, plus hand controls for lining up the page on the viewscreen.

Copies will cost only five cents. Anything the LRC has on microfilm is available, including all Reader's Guide indexed periodicals back to 1967. There are about 100 of these, including the New York Times and the old Life Magazine.

NEWLY PURCHASED — Nona Sutton, Learning Resource Center worker, shows how the new microfilm reader works.

Western Art Exhibited

The Scurry County Museum is hosting an exhibit of Western art by W. Elmer Koerner until May 4. These paintings have been shown in major museums and art centers across the United States.

Koerner (1878-1938) gained the reputation as an illustrator for some of the best-known Western fiction writers of his time, such as Zane Gray. His paintings have appeared in many of the foremost magazines of his day, including McClure's, Ladies Home Journal and Saturday Evening Post.

Koerner was famous not only for his suggestive color technique but also for his accurate renditions. He was also a master of the vignette. Koerner always requested that after his illustrations were used they were to be returned to him.

At his death in 1938, hundreds of his paintings were found in his Interlachen, N.J., studio. Koerner's wife kept the studio and paintings intact until her death in 1964. During this time his work received very little notice although they had been popular in the 1920's and 30's.

In 1964 Koerner's daughter assumed care of the paintings. She brought her father's paintings back into the public's approving eye. Since 1964 Koerner's following has grown until the demand for his paintings became immense.

Several Attend UTPB Confab

Counselors and administrators from WTC, Odessa, Midland, Howard County and South Plains College attended a junior college counselors' workshop April 21 on the University of Texas Permian campus.

The one-day workshop acquainted representatives from the colleges with UTPB Permian's various academic programs. It was sponsored by the university's Admissions and Registrar's Office.

Faculty chairmen and deans from each of the university's three colleges made presentations and answered questions from participants. Also, an introductory general session was scheduled to explain academic and admissions policies.

Kite-Flying Contest Planned

The Student Senate sponsored a campus ping-pong tournament Wednesday with the final round of play scheduled today. Last week, the senate sponsored a football tournament.

Entry fee for both affairs was twenty-five cents each and students had the option of entering singles or doubles competition or both.

Committee chairman, Katy LeMond, reported that both tournaments had a "good turnout" and that the names of the winners will be announced later. Mickey Baird, Director of Student Activities, officiated at both tournaments held in the gymnasium of the Student Center.

Weather permitting, the senate will sponsor a kite-flying contest to be held on the WTC golf practice field, east of the tennis courts April 30.

Entry fee for the contest will be fifty cents per kite, each entrant furnishing kites and materials. Students wishing to enter may sign-up in the dormitory lobby or the gymnasium.

For further information contact Katy LeMond at ext. 257 or Mrs. Baird at ext. 226.
