Times Of Tragedy And Moments Of Grace:

Finding the Good in Grief John F. Baggett, 2013-06-25 When his son was diagnosed with a disabling mental illness John F. Baggett experienced a journey of grief unlike any other a grief for the loss of all his son would never be and that he as a father would never experience Through that difficult period he learned that grief by whatever definition and for whatever reason can be a time of momentous spiritual struggle it is no smooth sailing even for faithful Christians How then can believers navigate the struggles of faith that so often accompany personal tragedy Finding the Good in Grief is both a practical and inspirational guide that teaches readers to learn change and grow through their grief In five stages Baggett demonstrates how to Trust God and rely on others Choose reality instead of illusion Resist the temptation to get stuck Recognize moments of grace Discover new meaning and purpose Finding the Good in Grief will help Christians successfully negotiate faith struggles that often accompany the different stages of grief and will encourage them to find and develop spiritual resources to survive their darkest days of emotional turmoil Most of all it will guide to them understand that God does have the power to transform events of radical suffering and use them for good in our lives Pathways to God

Thomas Evans, 2020-08-04 This book explores a modern path for the ancient hunger to grow closer to God By engaging powerful stories of God's deep connections with people across the country you can grow your own faith and deepen the vitality of your congregation In these pages you will discover the seven different ways God connects with people through a juxtaposition of God's powerful work in the world today and the biblical text While many of us have encounters with God read to discover which faith practices you can focus on to make the greatest impact in your faith life overall Trauma and

Grief R. Scott Sullender, 2018-07-06 In today's world trauma and traumatic loss are increasingly common This book surveys the important constructs concepts and dynamics of trauma loss grief and growth offering resources and strategies that ministers and other spiritual caregivers can use as they support and facilitate people in their journey from trauma recovery to grief work to spiritual growth The book presents a framework for understanding the interrelationship between trauma recovery work grief work and spiritual growth The author argues that each of these components is essential for a full and complete healing from trauma and traumatic losses and that they work together in the ongoing process of healing Traumas and traumatic losses are times of crisis in the sense that they are turning points in people's lives people can either grow through the experience or decline under the weight of their unbearable sorrow and anxiety How people handle traumas and significant losses may be the most important variable in their psychological relational and spiritual health The author gives special attention to describing ways in which God might draw close to the traumatized and bereaved in their process of recovery and healing Techniques of Grief Therapy Robert A. Eric Rohmer K. Tester,2008-02-15 Since the 1950s Eric Rohmer has been one of the major presences in French cinema as critic and director This book is a sophisticated engagement with his work in which Keith Tester argues that Rohmer is not the naïve realist he is often claimed to be Instead his films are revealed as a sustained exercise in Catholic theology

Finish. Period. Sonny Holmes,2015-09-30 Ministry is hard Hundreds of pastors leave their post every month Finish Period Going the Distance in Ministry provides practical biblical strategies for reaching the finish line in ministry service Chapters include assessments of current church culture some of the unique character traits of those called to ministry five steps to the finish line and lessons on endurance for the journey

Interruption and Imagination Kjetil Fretheim,2016-12-22 As we are faced with recurring crises financial migration climate etc there is a need to reconsider public theology as both a practice and a field of study By discussing public statements made by Christians faced with different kinds of crisis this book contributes to the development and understanding of public theology The public statements addressed are three kairos documents The Kairos Document from South Africa in the mid 1980s The Road to Damascus document from authors in developing countries issued in 1989 and the Palestinian Kairos Document from 2009 The discussion is structured around three problems of public theology social analysis politics and ethics and language and voice Fretheim suggests a constructionist understanding of public theology a public theology that interrupts current debates and expands the imagination of the public sphere As public theology is concerned with public life and social issues Interruption and Imagination will be of interest to scholars and students of theology political science sociology and religious studies as well as practitioners policymakers and professionals in the public sector civil society churches and Christian organizations

Fantasies of Time and Death Anna Vaninskaya,2019-12-26 This book reveals the unique contribution made by the three founding fathers of British fantasy Lord Dunsany E R Eddison and J R R Tolkien to our culture s perennial reassessment of the meanings of time death and eternity It traces the poetic philosophical and theological roots of the striking preoccupation with mortality and temporality that defines the imagined worlds of early fantasy fiction and gives both the form of such fiction and its ideas the attention they deserve Dunsany Eddison and Tolkien raise some of the oldest questions in existence about the limits of nature human and divine cosmic creation and destruction the immortality conferred by art and memory and the paradoxes and uncertainties generated by the universal experience of transience the fear of annihilation and the desire for transcendence But they respond to those questions by means of thought experiments that have no precedent in modern literary history This book has won the 2021 Mythopoeic Scholarship Award for Myth and Fantasy Studies The God Who Plays Brian Edgar, 2017-12-20 Many people would be surprised to hear that a playful attitude towards God and the world lies at the heart of Christian faith Traditionally Christians have focused on the serious responsibilities of service sacrifice and commitment But the prophets say that the future kingdom is full of people laughing and playing which has implications for Christians who are called to live out the future kingdom in the present Play is not trivial or secondary to work and service only a playful way of living does justice to the seriousness of life Play is the essential and ultimate form of relationship with God which is why Jesus told people to learn from children Indeed a playful attitude is an important part of all significant relationships This book explores grace faith love worship redemption and the kingdom from the perspective of a playful attitude It describes how to create a play ethic to match the work ethic and discusses play as a virtue Aquinas's warning against the sin of not playing enough and Bonhoeffer's claim that in a world of pain it is only the Christian who can truly play A Moment in Time Carol Pierce-Davis PhD, 2025-06-30 With clear vision scripture driven insight and a down to earth style Dr Carol Pierce Davis presents a collection of meditations titled A Moment in Time Meditations on the Seasons of Faith Loosely based on the church calendar to which she added a few new seasons of her own she leads you into a Biblical journey as contemporary as today touching on the realities of life and death love and division war and peace She showcases her love of scripture and her intimate relationship with the players in Biblical history In her meditation My Man Moses she writes I have always said that when I die and go to heaven presumptuous I know I am going to hang out with the cool guys Isaiah David and Jesus After reading today's scripture I have added another candidate Moses With his outrageous relationship with God he took down the walls of power and mystery between human and God to cajole annoy and get his way when it came to protecting God's people With her psychological awareness and grasp of scripture she offers a spiritual look into communication relationships and life transitions Add in her sense of humor and fearless theology and you have A Moment in Time Meditations on the Seasons of Faith
