Canaan, Wesley Shumar, 2008-05 This volume brings together a set of largely ethnographic articles written from a critical perspective that consider how current transitions in post secondary education are impacting on higher education HE institutions

To Walk with the Devil Gregor Joseph Kranjc, 2013-01-01 Examining archival material and post war scholarly and popular literature Kranjc describes the often sharp divide between Communist era interpretations of collaboration and those of their anti Communist opponents

The formation of Croatian national identity Alex Bellamy, 2013-07-19 This book assesses the formation of Croatian national identity in the 1990s It develops a novel framework calling into question both primordial and modernist approaches to nationalism and national identity before applying that framework to Croatia In doing so the book provides a new way of thinking about how national identity is formed and why it is so important An explanation is given of how Croatian national identity was formed in the abstract via a historical narrative that traces centuries of yearning for a national state The book shows how the government opposition parties dissident intellectuals and diaspora groups offered alternative accounts of this narrative in order to legitimise contemporary political programmes based on different versions of national identity It then looks at how these debates were manifested in social activities as diverse as football religion economics and language This book attempts to make an important contribution to both the way we study nationalism and national identity and our understanding of post Yugoslav politics and society An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

Reading War, Making Memory Tea Sindbæk Andersen, Jessica Ortner, Fedja Wierød Borčak, 2025-11-01 In the fields of literary and memory studies the cultural impact of the Bosnian War of 1992 1995 appears despite the scale of devastation somewhat minimal Reading War Making Memory focuses on how authors from the diaspora of the former Yugoslavia have transmitted and translated the realities of the war in their fiction illuminating how these texts interpolate the culture and memory of Bosnia Herzegovina into an act of mnemonic migration Drawing from close readings studies of public reception and focus group interviews this volume explores the attempt to reshape social frameworks of memory and the wider reception and impact of memory making literature across Europe

Prostitution, Race, and Politics Philippa Levine, 2003 Publisher description

The Ethiopian State at the Crossroads Leenco Lata, 1999

Treacherous Faith David Loewenstein, 2013-08-29 Treacherous Faith is a major study of heresy and the literary imagination from the English Reformation to the Restoration It analyzes both canonical and lesser known writers who contributed to fears about the contagion of heresy as well as those who challenged cultural constructions of heresy and the rhetoric of fear mongering

Contemplating Historical Consciousness Anna Clark, Carla L. Peck, 2018-12-17 The last several decades have witnessed an explosion of new empirical research into representations of the past and the conditions of their production prompting claims that we have entered a new era in which the past has become more present than ever before Contemplating Historical Consciousness brings together leading historians ethnographers and other scholars who give illuminating reflections on the aims methods and conceptualization of their own research as well as the successes and failures they have encountered This rich collective account provides valuable perspectives for current scholars while charting new avenues for future research

The Past in Exile Birgit Bock-Luna, 2007 In this study of identity politics memory and long distance nationalism among Serbian migrants in California the author examines the complicated ways in which visions of the past are used to form Diaspora subjects and make claims to the homeland in the present Drawing on extended fieldwork in the San Francisco Bay Area community she shows how the Yugoslav wars generated a revaluation Serbian history and personal life stories resulting in the strengthening of ethnic identity Nevertheless strategies for dealing with rupture and change also included contestation of exile nationalism

Is Toronto Burning? 1977/1978/1979 York University (Toronto, Ont.). Art Gallery, 2014

State Identities and the Homogenisation of Peoples Heather Rae, 2002-08-15 Why are forced displacement ethnic cleansing and genocide an enduring feature of state systems In this book Heather Rae locates these practices of pathological homogenisation in the processes of state building Political elites have repeatedly used cultural resources to redefine bounded political communities as exclusive moral communities from which outsiders must be expelled Showing that these practices predate the age of nationalism Rae examines cases from both pre nationalist and nationalist eras the expulsion of the Jews from fifteenth century Spain the persecution of the Huguenots under Louis XIV and in the twentieth century the Armenian genocide and ethnic cleansing in former Yugoslavia She argues that those atrocities prompted the development of international norms of legitimate state behaviour that increasingly define sovereignty as conditional Rae concludes by examining two threshold cases the Czech Republic and Macedonia to identify the factors that may inhibit pathological homogenization as a method of state building

Reflections on Canada's Past, Present and Future in International Law/Réflexions sur le passé, le présent et l'avenir du Canada en droit international Oonagh E. Fitzgerald, Valerie Hughes, Mark Jewett, 2018-06-30

Marking 150 years since Confederation provides an opportunity for Canadian international law practitioners and scholars to reflect on Canada's rich history in international law and governance where we find ourselves today in the community of nations and how we might help shape a future in which Canada's rules based and progressive approach to international law gains ascendancy This collection of essays each written in the official language chosen by the authors provides a thoughtful perspective on Canada's past and present in international law surveys the challenges that lie before us and offers renewed focus for Canada's pursuit of global justice and the rule of law Part I explores the history and practice of international law including sources of international law Indigenous treaties international treaty diplomacy domestic reception of international law and Parliament's role in international law Part II explores Canada's role in international law governance and innovation in the broad fields of economic environmental and intellectual property law Part III explores Canadian perspectives on developments in international human rights and humanitarian law including judicial implementation of these obligations international labour law business and human rights international criminal law war crimes child soldiers and gender

Reflections on Canada's Past Present and Future in International Law R flexions sur le pass le pr sent et l avenir du Canada en droit international demonstrates the pivotal role that Canada has played in the development of international law and signals the essential contributions the country is poised to make in the future

Wandering Spirits Janne Flora, 2019-03-28 It is common to think of the Arctic as remote perched at the farthest reaches of the world a simple and harmonious isolated utopia But the reality as Janne Flora shows us is anything but In Wandering Spirits Flora reveals how deeply connected the Arctic is to the rest of the world and how it has been affected by the social political economic and environmental shifts that ushered in the modern age In this innovative study Flora focuses on Inuit communities in Greenland and addresses a central puzzle their alarmingly high suicide rate She explores the deep connections between loneliness and modernity in the Arctic tracing the history of Greenland and analyzing the social dynamics that shaped it Flora's thorough sensitive engagement with the families that make up these communities uncovers the complex interplay between loneliness and a host of economic and environmental practices including the widespread local tradition of hunting Wandering Spirits offers a vivid portrait of a largely overlooked world in all its fragility and nuance while engaging with core anthropological concerns of kinship and the structure of social relations
