The Science and Politics of Covid-19 Michel Claessens,2021-06-28 This book is a fresh and readable account of the Covid 19 pandemic and how scientists and medical doctors are helping governments to manage the crisis The book contains interviews and exchanges with dozens of scientists doctors experts government representatives and journalists Why do some of the most scientifically advanced countries have the highest Covid 19 mortality During the pandemic the research community has been at the heart of and actor in a global scandal Why has science failed With the help of numerous testimonies from China France the UK and the USA in particular the book provides an insider s view on this major crisis Although the governments of these countries based their Covid 19 strategy on science scientists failed to have a decisive influence on decision makers except in China which created genuine time bombs The accelerated development of vaccines does not erase past months errors The crisis led to the development of science politics at an unprecedented rate More worryingly experts themselves acknowledge that they did not rise to the challenge Covid 19 also highlighted the weakness of democratic regimes and the power of technocapitalism Countries pulled down their blinds locked their doors and promoted national approaches rather than international cooperation The author proposes to set up an international framework on health risk to co construct decision making He advocates political distancing in order to put the basics first develop science fight ignorance The author Michel Claessens on the Science for Policy Podcast from SAPEA

The Road Towards DemocraCity Marco Carcea,2021-08-09 This book discusses the challenges faced by the homo resaliens and his need for a transition to a more sustainable social economic and environmental system It fills a gap in the existing literature and provides a new perspective by changing the etymology of the word resilience no more resiliere but resalio By comparing and analysing the relevant literature the author has coined the term homo resaliens resilient man in contrast to the failure of the homo oeconomicus the corruption of the homo politicus the incompleteness of homo sustinens and the limits of homo ecologicus Opening a new debate in which the role of academia and res publica are fundamental to safeguard human communities and future generations this book will greatly assist governments that wish to understand the socio political and economic implication of resilience in terms of social inclusiveness and long term social and environmental sustainability

Major French Cities facing Metropolization Alain Bourdin,2024-05-27 This book characterizes a type of city i e the metropolis by using characteristics which have very little to do with its size It distinguishes between metropolises and megacities and defines these different characteristics by bringing together elements related to facilities accessibility and economic power on one hand and other elements which relate more to the capacity for innovation and more generally to the knowledge society and economy All of which demonstrate the process of metropolization as well as elements of daily life and more generally elements which relate to the urban experience To live in a metropolis is not only to benefit from more urban amenities but also to live in a different way in particular in a world which is much more diverse in every respect Based on a series of metropolization criteria constructed and discussed this book goes beyond ordinary statistical approaches to integrate the interterritorial scale of metropolitan systems as well as their qualitative dimension Following in Simmel's footsteps it shows that a city is also an atmosphere a mentality a spirit all of which are poorly captured by statistical data As such the book focuses on five major themes networks economic development social issues urban form and the ecological and digital transition The book makes an interesting read for urban planners sociologists planners and architects and all specialists working in this field

Chaud devant Jean-François Viot, 2020-06-26 Une coll. que un ami ou un parent nous avons tous une relation qui refuse de penser que le réchauffement climatique a lieu qu'il a une cause humaine ou que nous pouvons réagir Alors qu'un consensus scientifique solide existe certains multiplient les arguments pour nous convaincre que nous ne devons pas nous en faire ou que nous ne sommes pas responsables Cet ouvrage va à la rencontre de ces arguments Au départ d'une discussion entre une militante et une tante physicienne Jean-François Viot explore l'histoire et les fondements de la science climatique s'interroge l'action du GIEC et interroge les mécanismes du climat scepticisme Son investigation minutieuse dénoue ainsi petit à petit les fils des théories qui nient le réchauffement climatique Il en ressort un formidable outil la porte du plus grand nombre pour débattre une question fondamentale du XXI^e siècle Le réchauffement climatique savoir ou bobard Avec une préface de Jean-Pascal van Ypersele climatologue et ancien président du GIEC

La Méditation de pleine conscience Elisabeth Martens, 2021-01-19 Stress angoisses harcèlements burn out Dans une économie très dure l'être humain souffre et cherche des issues La pleine conscience se propose comme une solution apaisante Depuis quelques années cette institution bouddhiste fait l'unanimité chez les Verts au Parlement européen mais aussi au Congrès des États-Unis et Davos haut lieu des lites financières Tous ensemble pour méditer Elisabeth Martens enseignante de pratiques de santé taoïstes ne conteste pas leur efficacité mais dénonce l'imposture de cette institution religieuse qui s'est discrètement liée aux pouvoirs et aux lites Se résigner ou agir pour corriger les injustices Une véritable pleine conscience nécessite d'aller voir l'envers du décor
