Voices From The March On Washington:

Voices from the March on Washington J. Patrick Lewis, 2014 Powerful poems weave together multiple voices to tell the story of the March on Washington DC in 1963 Voices from the March on Washington J. Patrick Lewis, George Ella Lyon, 2014-10-09 The powerful poems in this poignant collection weave together multiple voices to tell the story of the March on Washington DC in 1963 From the woman singing through a terrifying bus ride to DC to the teenager who came partly because his father told him Don't you dare go to that march to the young child riding above the crowd on her father's shoulders each voice brings a unique perspective to this tale As the characters tell their personal stories of this historic day their chorus plunges readers into the experience of being at the march walking shoulder to shoulder with strangers hearing Martin Luther King Jr's famous speech heading home inspired Voices from Captivity Robert C. Doyle, 1994 Doyle shows that though setting and circumstances may change POW stories share a common structure and are driven by similar themes Capture incarceration isolation propaganda torture capitulation or resistance death spiritual quest escape liberation and repatriation are recurrent key motifs in these narratives Voices in Our Blood Jon Meacham, 2001 Voices in Our Blood is a literary anthology of the most important and artful interpretations of the civil rights movement past and present It showcases what forty of the nation's best writers including Maya Angelou James Baldwin Ralph Ellison William Faulkner John Steinbeck Alice Walker Robert Penn Warren Eudora Welty and Richard Wright had to say about the central domestic drama of the American Century Editor Jon Meacham has chosen pieces by journalists novelists historians and artists bringing together a wide range of black and white perspectives and experiences The result is an unprecedented and powerful portrait of the movement's spirit and struggle told through voices that resonate with passion and strength Maya Angelou takes us on a poignant journey back to her childhood in the Arkansas of the 1930s On the front page of The New York Times James Reston marks the movement's apex as he describes what it was like to watch Martin Luther King Jr deliver his heralded I Have a Dream speech in real time Alice Walker takes up the movement's progress a decade later in her article Choosing to Stay at Home Ten Years After the March on Washington And John Lewis chronicles the unimaginable courage of the ordinary African Americans who challenged the prevailing order paid for it in blood and tears and justly triumphed Voices in Our Blood is a compelling look at the movement as it actually happened from the days leading up to World War II to the anxieties and ambiguities of this new century The story of race in America is a never ending one and Voices in Our Blood tells us how we got this far and how far we still have to go to reach the Promised Land The Supervisors Service Bulletin ,1923
