Voices Of Courage Inspiration From Survivors Of Sexual Assault:

Voices of Courage Michael J. Domitrz, 2005 Twelve accounts from sexual assault survivors Sexual Assault and Abuse Ann Byers, 2015-07-15 Since young women today receive conflicting and confusing messages about dating sexuality and image it is not surprising they can find themselves wondering if they've been sexually abused It is estimated that a sexual assault occurs once every two minutes That means that teens need to be aware of the many forms sexual abuse can take and the best practices for trying to prevent it This guide will help them make sense of the issue emphasizing that the victim is never to blame Readers will be armed with crucial information that will help them know what to do if it happens to them or their friends or loved ones

Surviving Sexual Violence Thema Bryant-Davis, 2011-10-16 Explains the range of different sexual violations from harassment in the workplace and marital rape to sexual violence in the military and childhood sexual abuse and offers tips from experts in the field on various modes of recovery including mind body practices psychoeducation spirituality religion and journaling

Incarnating Grace Julia Feder, 2023-11-07 Prioritizes survivors of abuse by reexamining Christian ideals about suffering and salvation More than half of women and almost one in three of men in the United States have experienced sexual violence at some time in their lives Yet our Christian tradition has failed survivors of sexual violence who have been taught to believe that traumatic suffering brings us closer to God Incarnating Grace attempts to save our broken ways of talking about God's grace by unearthing liberating resources buried in the Christian tradition Christian ideas about salvation have historically contributed to sexual violence in our communities by reinforcing the idea that suffering is salvific But a God worth worshiping does not want human beings to suffer Drawing on the sixteenth century Spanish mystic Teresa of Avila as well as contemporary political and feminist theologians philosophers and legal scholars author and Associate Professor of theology Julia Feder offers an account of Christian salvation as mystical political Feder begins by describing the breadth of traumatic wounding and the shape of traumatic recovery as articulated by psychologists Since the fullness of post traumatic healing requires reserves deeper than those which can be articulated by the secular field of psychology alone the book then introduces the Spanish Carmelite Saint Teresa of Avila and her theological insights which are most helpful for constructing a post traumatic theology of healing Arguing that God stands against violence and suffering the book also examines the notion of senseless suffering a technical term that comes from Edward Schillebeeckx a Catholic twentieth century Flemish priest and theologian The suffering of sexual violence serves no higher purpose or greater human value and pushes against all ways of making sense of the world as good and orderly In the following chapters Feder turns to two Christian virtues that animate post traumatic recovery courage and hope and explores how Christian hope can provide a language to empower courageous activity undertaken toward healing Incarnating Grace opens a new dialogue about salvation and violence that does not allow evil to have the last word
